The summary must list what local, regional or statewide interests or areas are served. It should also document the need for the funds, the community support and expected results when applicable. Be sure to include the type and amount of services as well as the number of the specific target population that will be served (such as number of home health visits to X, # of elderly, # of school aged children to receive mentoring, # of violent crime victims to receive once a week counseling etc.)

Crisis Revolution Unit - Diversion of Baker Act clients

Continuity of Care for high risk discharges - short term

Residential II room and board with program overlay services (605 individuals served)

The program is designed as a diversion program with the intent to maximize access to limited community resources and better utilize Central Florida Behavioral Health Network funding. PEHMS' Crisis Resolution Program assists clients to resolve their immediate crisis by facilitating access to support and wrap around services while providing a safe place for recovery-oriented activities. The program provides timely access to critical services within a continuum of behavioral health care interventions. The program's impact will be on appropriately diverting from impatient hospitalization, reducing recidivism and ensuring appropriate placement, and facilitating the establishment of needed supports to maintain stability.
