7. Write a project description that will serve as a stand-alone summary of the project for legislative review. The description should summarize the entire project's intended purpose, the purpose of the funds requested (if request is a sub-part of the entire project), and most importantly the detail on how the funds requested will be spent - for example how much will be spent on positions and associated salaries, specifics on capital costs, and detail of operational expenses. The summary must list what local, regional or statewide interests or areas are served. It should also document the need for the funds, the community support and expected results when applicable. Be sure to include the type and amount of services as well as the number of the specific target population that will be served (such as number of home health visits to X, # of elderly, # of school aged children to receive mentoring, # of violent crime victims to receive once a week counseling etc.)

Forward March is a community outreach program for 100 out-of-school youth and adults, ages 17 to 29 years of age, who are making a transition into the workforce. The program curriculum focuses on core academics and work readiness skills that facilitate job placement and retention. The program is offered at various locations throughout Florida, where identified in collaboration with regional/local workforce agencies. This program is designed to provide unemployed economically disadvantaged participants with training designed to improve work readiness skills and facilitate job placement and retention. The main program goal is to reduce dependence on public assistance by enhancing the employability of out-of-school youth and adults, ages 17 to 29 years of age.
