Expand a character and leadership based process that has shown results in the Charlotte County school district and other schools throughout the Country.

The purpose of the funding is to allow for the Foundation to select, implement and monitor a comprehensive leadership and character process in selected schools within our public school system.

The Foundation, with its community, business, and philanthropist partners and volunteers, provide development opportunities, processes, and tools to school leaders, teachers, and staff who are passionately committed to building a leadership-focused school culture and "operating system" that unlocks the potential of children and prepares them with the character and competence to lead in an era of tremendous challenge, complexity, and opportunity.

Thousands of school in our Country and the entire Charlotte county school district's elementary schools have reported a transformation in their culture and significant improvement in their students performance through the integration of comprehensive leadership and character processes into their schools' culture and curriculum.

The Foundation will provide resources to bring in a process that provides a common language and common set of tools. It touches students, teachers, administrators, and parents. It is not a new curriculum, but rather, it is a process that can be integrated into a school's existing curriculum and systems to increase student achievement.
