7. Write a project description that will serve as a stand-alone summary of the project for legislative review. The description should summarize the entire project's intended purpose, the purpose of the funds requested (if request is a sub-part of the entire project), and most importantly the detail on how the funds requested will be spent - for example how much will be spent on positions and associated salaries, specifics on capital costs, and detail of operational expenses. The summary must list what local, regional or statewide interests or areas are served. It should also document the need for the funds, the community support and expected results when applicable. Be sure to include the type and amount of services as well as the number of the specific target population that will be served (such as number of home health visits to X, # of elderly, # of school aged children to receive mentoring, # of violent crime victims to receive once a week counseling etc.)

Broward College's new program will provide adults with cognitive learning disabilities (unique abilities) the opportunity to earn a degree, achieve gainful employment, and become self-sufficient. This program is modeled on a successful degree program at Bellevue College in Washington (and replicated in Arkansas and Texas), where the employment rate is 85% and the completion/graduation rate is 82%. The Broward College program expects to be self-sustaining in its second year. The Occupational and Life Skills Associate's Degree for Adults with Unique Abilities project success will be assessed through the following metrics. Retention: Fall to Fall retention at 80% or higher. Completion/graduation Rate: 80% or higher. Graduate Employment Rate: 85% or higher.
