The summary must list what local, regional or statewide interests or areas are served. It should also document the need for the funds, the community support and expected results when applicable. Be sure to include the type and amount of services as well as the number of the specific target population that will be served (such as number of home health visits to X, # of elderly, # of school aged children to receive mentoring, # of violent crime victims to receive once a week counseling etc.)

The Puerto Rican Research Institute (PRI) at the University of Central Florida mission is to study and disseminate knowledge about Puerto Rico and its diaspora in Florida. The mission is aimed at the University of Central Florida growing Hispanic student population, of which a large percentage are from Puerto Rican descent, to the almost one million Puerto Ricans residing in the state of Florida and to all Florida residents interested in the Puerto Rican experience. The mission of the PRI builds on UCF goals of offering the best undergraduate education, while becoming more inclusive and diverse and becoming America's leading partnership university. The vision is for PRI to become the center of scholarly interdisciplinary activity in relation to the Puerto Rican experience in Florida and the southeastern United States.

Staffing would include Program director, three research assistants, and administrative support staff.
