I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Office of Program Policy Analysis and Governmental Accountability

Section 11.51, F.S. creates the Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government Accountability (OPPAGA) within the Legislature and provides that the office must perform independent examinations of state programs.¹ The section sets forth the process by which the director must share the findings of an examination with the program examined and provides a timeline for the program to subsequently inform OPPAGA of what the program has done to respond to the recommendations made in the report.

Section 11.511, F.S. provides that the Legislative Auditing Committee shall appoint the director of OPPAGA by majority vote of the committee, subject to confirmation by a majority vote of the Senate and the House of Representatives. The section sets forth the qualifications of the director and the process for reappointment and termination of the director. The section also sets forth qualifications for staff of the office and the duties of the office. Section 11.513, F.S. requires OPPAGA to conduct a program evaluation and justification review of each state agency and sets forth what must be included in the review.

The bill repeals sections 11.51, 11.511 and 11.513, F.S.

Auditor General

Article III, s. 2 of the Florida Constitution provides that "the legislature shall appoint an auditor to serve at its pleasure who shall audit public records and perform related duties as prescribed by law or concurrent resolution." Currently, s. 11.42, F.S. sets forth the process for appointment and required qualifications of the Auditor General.² The bill repeals s. 11.42, F.S. and amends s. 11.45, F.S. to provide that the term "Auditor General" means the auditor appointed pursuant to s. 2, Art. III of the State Constitution.

Legislative Accountability Office

¹ Joint Rules of the Legislature are generally adopted during the first organizational session of each Legislature through a concurrent resolution. OPPAGA is provided for in Joint Rule Six – Office of Program Policy and Government Accountability.

² See also, Joint Rule Five – Auditor General.

The bill amends s. 1.01, F.S., relating to definitions to create a definition of the term “Legislative Accountability Office” to mean an entity designated by joint rule of the Legislature or by agreement between the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The bill amends s. 11.45, F.S. to provide that the Legislative Accountability Office will be organized as directed by the Legislature or by the agreement of the presiding officers.³ Unless renewed or replaced following a general election, the agreement or direction will expire on December 31 following each biennial general election unless an earlier expiration is provided by the Legislature. In the absence of such agreement or direction, each presiding officer will have independent discretion to assign statutory powers, roles, and responsibilities of the Legislative Accountability Office to the Auditor General or to any office under the authority of the respective presiding officer. Unless otherwise directed or agreed, the Auditor General will be assigned to the Legislative Accountability Office. Either presiding officer will be authorized to assign roles and responsibilities to the Auditor General provided that such assignment does not conflict with any unexpired provision of joint rule, concurrent resolution, or agreement of the presiding officers.

The bill provides that the purposes and functions of the Legislative Accountability Office may include:

1. Investigating all matters relating to the receipt and expenditure of public funds.
2. Analyzing the economy, effectiveness, and efficiency of government entities.
3. Providing relevant, timely work product to assist the Legislature in its budgeting, lawmaking, and oversight functions.

Currently, s. 11.45, F.S. sets forth the types of audits that must be conducted by the Auditor General. The bill replaces the references to the Auditor General in this section with references to the Legislative Accountability Office. The bill also modifies the definition of the term “performance audit” and modifies language regarding the types of audits that must be performed and how often they are to be conducted.

The bill provides that upon recommendation of the Legislative Accountability Office, the Auditor General may adopt reasonable rules and regulations necessary to facilitate audits that the Legislative Accountability Office is authorized to perform. The Legislative Accountability Office will be authorized to enforce such rules.

The bill amends s. 11.905, 112.313, 112.324, 189.428, 215.981, 218.32, 259.1053, and 1001.453, F.S. to replace references to either the Auditor General or OPPAGA with references to the Legislative Accountability Office. The bill requests the Division of Statutory Revision within the Office of Legislative Services to prepare, before the 2011 Regular Session, a reviser’s bill to substitute the term “Legislative Accountability Office” for the terms “Auditor General”, “Office of Program Policy and Governmental Accountability” and “OPPAGA” where those terms appear in the Florida statutes.

Legislative Auditing Committee

Section 11.40, F.S. creates the Legislative Auditing Committee, comprised of members of the Senate and House of Representatives which is authorized to take under investigation any matter within the scope of an audit, review, or examination conducted by the Auditor General or OPPAGA.⁴ The bill repeals the portions of s. 11.40, F.S. that sets forth the composition of the committee and in a newly created section of statute, provides that the Legislative Auditing Committee means a committee designated by Joint Rule of the Legislature or by agreement between the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives. The bill retains other references to the duties of the committee in s. 11.40, F.S. The bill also replaces references to OPPAGA and the Auditor General within s. 11.40, F.S. with references to the Legislative Accountability Office.

³ The term “presiding officer” is defined to mean the President of the Senate or Speaker of the House.

⁴ See also, Joint Rule Four – Joint Legislative Auditing Committee.

Reports of Misuse, Waste or Fraud

The bill provides that an employee⁵ may report directly to the Legislative Accountability Office any act or suspected act of gross misuse, waste or fraud of public funds. Upon finding misuse or fraud of public funds in any agency after an investigation, or upon receipt of a final report from the Chief Inspector General demonstrating misuse or fraud, the Legislative Accountability Office must recommend an amount of an agency's appropriation to withhold to the Legislative Budget Commission, until the violation is remedied. The recommendation must not jeopardize the critical functions of the agency and reasonably relate to the amount of misuse or fraud. The Legislative Budget Commission may approve, disprove or modify the recommendation.

Administrative Procedures Committee

Section 11.60, F.S. creates the Administrative Procedures Committee, a joint standing committee of the Legislature. The section sets forth the composition of the committee, the appointment of the chair and the duties of the committee which generally relate to reviewing agency administrative rules. The section also provides for the appointment of an executive director and general counsel by a majority vote of the members of the committee.

The bill repeals section 11.60, F.S. and in a new section of statute, provides that the Administrative Procedures Committee means a committee designated by Joint Rule of the Legislature or by agreement between the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Office of Economic and Demographic Research

Legislative Joint Rule 3.1 provides that:

The Office of Economic and Demographic Research shall provide research support services, principally regarding forecasting economic and social trends that affect policymaking, revenues, and appropriations.

The Office of Economic and Demographic Research is referenced in several sections of statute but its duties are not set forth in statute. The bill amends s. 1.01 to provide that the term "Office of Economic and Demographic Research" means an entity designated by joint rule of the Legislature or by agreement between the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives.
