SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The bill amends several statutes relating to the detention of juvenile offenders. The bill:

- Permits a child to be taken into custody for violating the conditions of preadjudicatory release set by the court.
- Permits the detention of a child that absconds from home or nonsecure detention care or otherwise violates the terms of release while awaiting placement in a residential facility, or commits a new law violation, or that intentionally fails to appear for trial.
- Requires that a child be placed in secure detention care upon intake if alleged to have absconded from home or nonsecure detention or otherwise violated the terms of postadjudication release.
- Provides that the preadjudication and postadjudication time limits for holding a child in detention care do not apply to a child held in secure detention for absconding from home or nonsecure detention, committing a new law violation, or otherwise violating the terms of release after adjudication while awaiting placement in a residential facility; escaping or absconding from certain residential, probation or other programs; being charged with certain acts specified in current law; or intentionally failing to make a court appearance.
- Increases the length of time a child awaiting placement in a low or moderate risk residential program can be held in secure detention care and provides that the only detention option for a child committed to a high risk or maximum risk residential program is secure detention.
- Makes the court primarily responsible for determining the appropriate restrictiveness level for a child committed to a residential program.
- Provides counties with the option to levy a mandatory court cost of up to $50 to fund local juvenile crime initiatives.
- Provides a statement of legislative intent.

The bill has an indeterminate fiscal impact on state and county governments.

HOUSE PRINCIPLES

Members are encouraged to evaluate proposed legislation in light of the following guiding principles of the House of Representatives

- Balance the state budget.
- Create a legal and regulatory environment that fosters economic growth and job creation.
- Lower the tax burden on families and businesses.
- Reverse or restrain the growth of government.
- Promote public safety.
- Promote educational accountability, excellence, and choice.
- Foster respect for the family and for innocent human life.
- Protect Florida's natural beauty.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

This bill proposes numerous changes to state policy concerning the use and length of detention for juveniles. It covers all phases of the process, from custody and initial intake to adjudication, and to disposition through postcommitment placement.

The Legislature has defined "detention care"¹ to mean "the temporary care of a child in secure, nonsecure, or home detention, pending a court adjudication or disposition or execution of a court order."² There are three types of detention care, as follows:

- "Secure detention" means temporary custody of the child while the child is under the physical restriction of a detention center or facility pending adjudication, disposition, or placement.
- "Nonsecure detention" means temporary custody of the child while the child is in a residential home in the community in a physically nonrestrictive environment under the supervision of the Department of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) pending adjudication, disposition, or placement.
- "Home detention" means temporary custody of the child while the child is released to the custody of the parent, guardian, or custodian in a physically nonrestrictive environment under the supervision of the DJJ staff pending adjudication, disposition, or placement. For FY 2007-08, there were 19,929 youth admitted to home detention status.³

Most youth are not placed on detention care prior to adjudication, but are released to a parent or guardian.⁴

¹Statutory references to "detention" do not include postcommitment residential facilities even though being committed to a residential facility is a form of "detention." However, for purposes of state policy and, specifically, the changes in this bill, the two should not be confused.

² Section 985.03(18), F.S.

⁴ According to the Department of Juvenile Justice, for FY 2006-087, approximately 109,000 of the 146,000 referrals were releases. These included some youth charged with felonies.

The state and the counties, other than the fiscally constrained counties⁵ in certain circumstances, jointly fund detention care.⁶ In this context, "detention care" has been defined as limited to "secure detention."

Specifically, counties are required to pay for predisposition secure detention costs. The state pays for postdisposition secure detention costs. The counties' share of the overall cost of secure detention includes the number of predisposition youth in detention centers multiplied by their length of stay. As the percentage of predisposition youth and/or number of days increases, the counties' share of detention costs also increases.

PRE-ADJUDICATORY RELEASE

Current law permits a law enforcement officer to take a child into custody in four circumstances:

- pursuant to a custody order issued by a circuit judge,⁷
- for a delinquent act or violation of law,
- for failing to appear at a court hearing after being properly noticed, and
- when there is probable cause to believe the child has violated the conditions of probation, home detention, postcommitment probation or conditional release supervision, or has absconded or escaped from residential commitment.⁸

The bill permits a law enforcement officer to take a child into custody in an additional circumstance - when a child on release without any form of detention care violates the conditions of preadjudicatory release. The bill gives the court the authority to impose conditions for preadjudicatory release such as requiring the child to obey all laws, not possess or carry a weapon, abstain from using alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs, and attend school. The bill provides a child who is taken into custody for a violation of preadjudicatory release must appear before a judge within 24 hours.

USE OF DETENTION

Factors Affecting Detention

Current law requires the court to make certain findings before placing a child in secure, home, or nonsecure detention care.⁹ These findings include whether the child: presents a substantial risk of not appearing at a subsequent hearing, presents a substantial risk of causing bodily harm to others, has a history of committing property offenses, has been found to be in contempt of court, or requests protection from imminent bodily harm.¹⁰ Except when a child is charged with domestic violence, all determinations and court orders concerning placement of a child into detention care must be based on the risk assessment instrument that is prepared by the department prior to the detention hearing.¹¹

The bill amends s. 985.24, F.S. to add another factor the court may use in determining whether the child should be placed on secure, nonsecure, or home detention care: whether the child has been adjudicated delinquent and committed to a residential facility, but is on home or nonsecure detention care awaiting placement and the child:

⁵ "Fiscally constrained county" means "a county within a rural area of critical economic concern as designated by the Governor pursuant to s. 288.0656 or each county for which the value of a mill will raise no more than $5 million in revenue, based on the certified school taxable value certified pursuant to s. 1011.62(4)(a)1.a., from the previous July 1."

- commits a new law violation

Intake

Currently, the juvenile probation officer receives custody of a child who has been taken into custody by law enforcement and is required to review the facts in the law enforcement report or probable cause affidavit and make further inquiry as may be necessary to determine whether detention care is required.¹² From the time the child is taken into custody to the time the detention hearing is held, the initial placement decision is made by the juvenile probation officer.¹³ The juvenile probation officer must base any decision to detain the child on an assessment of risk using the risk assessment instrument developed by the DJJ under s. 985.245, F.S.¹⁴ A child must be placed into secure detention if the child is charged with possessing or discharging a firearm on school property.¹⁵

The bill amends s. 985.25, F.S. to add additional circumstances that require the child to be placed in secure detention after the child is taken into custody. The bill requires a child be placed in secure detention care upon intake if the child has been adjudicated delinquent and is awaiting placement in a residential facility in home or nonsecure detention care and the child:

- is alleged to have absconded from home or nonsecure detention care,
- violates the terms of post-adjudication release, or
- commits a new law violation

Continued Detention

Under certain circumstances, a court may continue to detain a child taken into custody and placed in home, nonsecure, or secure detention care prior to the detention hearing.¹⁶ These circumstances include when the child is:

- an escapee from a residential treatment program;
- wanted in another jurisdiction for a felony;
- charged with a delinquent act and seeks protection from imminent bodily harm;
- charged with possession or discharge of a firearm on school grounds;
- charged with a capital felony;
- alleged to have violated probation or conditional release supervision; or
- detained for failure to appear when the child has previously willfully failed to appear for a hearing on the same case.

The bill amends s. 985.255, F.S. to provide two additional circumstances where the court may detain a child who is taken into custody prior to the detention hearing. The bill provides the court may detain the child if:

- the child is alleged to have absconded from home or nonsecure detention care or otherwise violates the terms of release after adjudication, but while awaiting placement to a residential facility.

- there is probable cause to believe the child has committed a new violation of law while on home or nonsecure detention care after adjudication, but while awaiting placement in a residential facility.

Secure detention care authorized for failure to appear for trial

All determinations and court orders regarding the use of secure, nonsecure, or home detention care must be based primarily upon findings (relevant to failure to appear) that the child presents a substantial risk of not appearing at a subsequent hearing; or has committed contempt of court by intentionally disrupting the administration of the court or intentionally disobeying a court order.¹⁷ Determinations and orders placing a child in detention care must be based on a risk assessment.¹⁸ The risk assessment instrument must take into consideration any prior history of failure to appear.

A child taken into custody and placed into nonsecure, home detention or secure detention care prior to a detention hearing may continue to be detained by the court if the child is charged with any second or third degree felony involving a violation of chapter 893 (i.e., illegal drugs) or any third degree felony that is not also a crime of violence; and the child has a record of failure to appear at court hearings after being properly notified in accordance with the Rules of Juvenile Procedure.¹⁹

The bill amends s. 985.255(3)(a), F.S. to permit the court to have the child held in secure detention care until the conclusion of the adjudicatory hearing if the child fails to appear in court, runs away, or otherwise intentionally avoids a court appearance. The bill provides the court may commit the child to secure detention care regardless of the results of the risk assessment instrument. The bill also permits the court to hold the parent or legal guardian in contempt of court for knowingly and willfully failing to bring or otherwise preventing the child from appearing for trial.

Secure detention care permitted for violation of probation

Section 985.255(1)(h), F.S. provides that when a child is taken into custody for a violation of probation, the child must be placed in a consequence unit, if available. A consequence unit is a secure facility specifically designated by DJJ for children who are taken into custody for a violation of probation. Current law does not contain specific alternatives to placement in a consequence unit.

The bill amends s. 985.255(1)(h), F.S. to permit a child to be held in secure detention if the child is taken into custody for a violation of probation and a consequence unit is not available.

LENGTH OF DETENTION

Current law provides a child may not be held in secure, nonsecure, or home detention care under a special detention order for more than 21 days unless an adjudicatory hearing for the case has been commenced in good faith by the court.²⁰ However, upon good cause being shown that the nature of the charge requires additional time for the prosecution or defense of the case, the court may extend the length of detention for an additional nine days if the child is charged with an offense that would be, if committed by an adult, a capital felony, a life felony, a felony of the first degree, or a felony of the second degree involving violence against any individual.²¹ The time limits do not include periods of delay resulting from a continuance granted by the court for cause on motion of the child, the child's counsel, or the state. If the court grants a motion for continuance, the court must conduct a hearing at the end of each 72-hour period, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, to determine the need for continued detention of the child and the need for further continuance of the proceedings.²²

The bill amends s. 985.26, F.S. to provide that the preadjudication and postadjudication time limits for holding a child in detention care do not apply to a child held in secure detention for absconding from home or nonsecure detention, committing a new law violation, or otherwise violating the terms of release after adjudication while awaiting placement in a residential facility; escaping or absconding from certain residential, probation or other programs; or being charged with certain acts specified in current law; or intentionally failing to make a court appearance.

DETENTION FROM DISPOSITION TO PLACEMENT

Currently, there are different time frames for holding a child in detention between adjudication where a residential commitment is ordered and placement in the residential program. If awaiting placement into a residential program:

- In a low-risk residential program, the child must be removed from detention care within five days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays.²³ A child placed in home detention, nonsecure detention, or home or nonsecure detention care with electronic monitoring, may be held in secure detention care for an additional five days if the child violates the conditions of the home detention or the nonsecure detention care, or the electronic monitoring agreement.²⁴ For any subsequent violation, the court may impose an additional five days in secure detention care.²⁵
- In a moderate-risk program, the child must be removed from detention care within five days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays.²⁶ The court may order additional time in detention, not to exceed 15 days from the commitment order.²⁷ A child placed in home detention, nonsecure detention, or home or nonsecure detention care with electronic monitoring may be held in secure detention care for five days if the child violates the conditions of the home detention or nonsecure detention care, or the electronic monitoring agreement.²⁸ For any subsequent violation, the court may impose an additional five days in secure detention care.²⁹
- In a high or maximum-risk program, the child must be held in detention until placed, but detention care may be home, nonsecure, or secure.

The bill amends s. 985.27(1)(a), F.S. to increase the length of time a child awaiting placement in a low or minimum risk residential program could be held in secure detention care following commitment at disposition, and requires that the detention options of a child committed to a high risk or maximum risk residential program be limited to secure detention care.

For a child awaiting placement in a low risk program, the bill amends s. 985.27(1)(a), F.S. to provide the child could be held in secure detention for 15 additional days for a second or subsequent violation of the conditions of home or nonsecure detention care, the terms of any release, or the conditions of any electronic monitoring agreement.

For a child awaiting placement in a moderate risk program, the bill amends s. 985.27(1)(b) to provide the child could be held in secure detention for 15 days. The child is required to be held in secure detention if the child is alleged to have absconded from home or nonsecure detention care, violated the terms of release or electronic monitoring, or probable cause exists that the child committed a new law violation.

JUDICIAL ROLE IN RESIDENTIAL PLACEMENT DECISIONS

Currently, if the court determines that the child should be adjudicated as having committed a delinquent act and should be committed to the DJJ, such determination must be in writing or on the record of the hearing.³⁰ The determination must include a specific finding of the reasons for the decision to adjudicate the child delinquent and to commit the child to the DJJ. The juvenile probation officer then recommends the most appropriate placement and treatment plan, specifically identifying the restrictiveness level most appropriate for the child. The court must consider the juvenile probation officer's recommendation in making its commitment decision. The court may commit the child to the DJJ at the restrictiveness level identified by the juvenile placement officer, or may order placement at a different restrictiveness level. If the court orders placement at a restrictiveness level that is different from the recommendation of the juvenile probation officer, the court must make a special finding establishing its reasons for disregarding the recommendation by a preponderance of the evidence. Any party may appeal the court's findings resulting in a modified level of restrictiveness.

On January 30, 2009, the Supreme Court of Florida clarified the rationale the court must provide if the court decides to commit the child to a restrictiveness level different from that recommended by the juvenile probation officer.³¹ The Supreme Court held that the court must:

- "articulate an understanding of the respective characteristics of the opposing restrictiveness levels...;" and
- "explain logically and persuasively explain why, in light of these differing characteristics, one level is better suited to serving the rehabilitative needs of the juvenile...and the ability of the State to protect the public."³²

The Court held that reasons unconnected to the above analysis cannot be used to explain why one restrictiveness level is more appropriate than another.³³

The bill includes the legislative finding that the court is in the best position to determine whether or not to commit a child to the DJJ and determine the most appropriate restrictiveness level. The bill also gives the court primary authority to determine the appropriate restrictiveness level for secure residential placement. As a result, the bill changes the juvenile probation officer's role into an advisory position.³⁴ Specifically, it would eliminate the requirement that the court make a specific finding by a preponderance of the evidence in order to have a child placed at a restrictiveness level different than that recommended by the juvenile probation officer.

³⁴ In practice, this provision may produce a different result in a very limited number of cases. In an effort to examine judicial satisfaction with DJJ recommended restrictiveness levels, House staff recently asked the DJJ to identify, over the last three years, the percentage of cases in which judges agreed with the restrictiveness level recommended by the Department commitment manager. This data indicated that judges agreed with the recommendations of DJJ commitment managers in the overwhelming majority of cases, on average approximately 85 percent. However, there were several circuits, the 1st, 3rd, 8th and 17th, that had consistently and substantially lower rates of agreement. All but one of these circuits are in the North Region of the Department of Juvenile Justice. Data provided to House Juvenile Justice Staff by the Department of Juvenile Justice, October 2007.

COURT COST FOR COUNTIES FOR JUVENILE CRIME NEEDS

The bill creates s. 938.20, F.S. to provide counties with a new revenue source of a mandatory court cost of up to $50. Proceeds from this court cost can only be used to fund local juvenile crime prevention programs, the creation of consequence or suspension centers, truancy programs, and "other such areas of local concern relating to juvenile crime." The bill provides juvenile crime prevention funds may be administered by a nonprofit agency. The juvenile crime prevention fund must provide full accounting for all funds provided by the bill to the board of county commissioners on a yearly basis. The board of county commissioners in each county would have the option to levy the additional fee. The bill provides that the court may not assess this fee if a juvenile and the parents or legal guardian of a juvenile are found to be indigent. The bill provides the clerk of the circuit court must collect fees assessed by the bill and may withhold 3 percent of the fees collected for operations relating to the clerk of the circuit court.

LEGISLATIVE INTENT

The bill provides it is the intent of the Legislature to ensure public safety and to provide appropriate and effective treatment to address physical, social, and emotional needs of juveniles, including, but not limited to, substance abuse services, mental health services, family counseling, anger management, other behavioral services, and health care services.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

Indeterminate. See fiscal comments.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

Indeterminate. See fiscal comments.

2. Expenditures:

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

An identical bill was filed during the 2009 legislative session. The fiscal comments from that bill are as follows:

The bill is expected to have an indeterminate recurring fiscal impact. A provision that could or would likely generate increased detention bed utilization relates to the requirements that a child be placed in secure detention care upon intake if alleged to have absconded from home or nonsecure detention or otherwise violated the terms of post-adjudication release. Though this could have a significant bed day impact, any estimation would be highly speculative due to the number of assumptions that would comprise the estimation. Factors preventing a determinable fiscal impact of this bill may include, but are not limited to, the number of children ultimately placed in secure detention; any additional number of secure detention bed days; judicial actions; and the continuing trends of declining secure detention bed days in general.

However, the bill provides counties with a new revenue source in the form of a mandatory court cost of up to $50 that can be used to fund, among other things, the creation of consequence or suspension centers, and "such other areas of local concern relating to juvenile crime." (It is unclear if this includes county detention costs such that it could be applied to offset any increase in detention costs incurred by counties as a result of this bill.) This new revenue source could generate annual recurring revenues of at least $1.8 million based on the current 49% collection rate for similar assessments, or $3.5 million with a 100% collection rate.

The Florida Association of Counties (FAC) has noted some fiscal concerns with this legislation, as the counties in some cases, may be required to spend more resources housing juveniles than under current law. FAC is also concerned that the bill does not clearly specify that the fee can be used for the costs associated with the bill, or if it would offset potential costs.

Due to a possible increase in the number of cases processed, the courts may experience increased costs of an indeterminate amount at least initially but, over time, may find any increased costs offset by a reduction in the number of referrals. The State Courts System has reported it cannot accurately determine the judicial workload associated with the provisions in the bill.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

Several sections of the bill proposing changes to state policy relative to predisposition detention, both when it can be used and the length of detention, could have the effect of requiring counties to expend funds. As a result, the requirements of Article VII, Section 18(a) of the Florida Constitution may apply. This would include the requirement that the bill be approved by a 2/3rds vote of the membership of each house on final passage.

Assuming the bill requires counties to spend funds by increasing their share of total detention costs, the next step is to determine whether or not one of several possible exemptions apply. The two exemptions most relevant to this bill would be the exemption for a criminal law and the exemption due to an insignificant fiscal impact.

With regard to the criminal law exemption, on November 12, 2004, the Circuit Court for the 2nd Judicial Circuit declared s. 985.2155, F.S.,³⁵ unconstitutional because it violated the mandates provision of the Florida Constitution.³⁶ This section of law required counties to participate in funding the cost of juvenile detention. The court found that the law did not meet any of the constitutional exemptions or exceptions and, therefore, required a 2/3rds vote for passage. The court found that it was not a criminal law. The bill did not pass by the necessary vote. This decision was not appealed and the Legislature has not defined this term pursuant to the authority granted by Art. VII, Section 18(e).

With regard to the fiscal impact exemption, the impact will be considered "insignificant" if it does not exceed an amount equal to an average of $0.10 multiplied by the current state population, or approximately $1.9 million for FY 2007. While it can reasonably be expected to have a negative fiscal impact on counties, the amount of any impact is indeterminate.

³⁵ Later transferred to s. 985.686, F.S.

³⁶ Alachua County, Florida, et. al v. Anthony Schembri, in his capacity as Secretary of the State of Florida, Department of Juvenile Justice, et. al, (Fla. 2nd Cir. Ct.)

If the bill does not fall within one of the exemptions, it can nonetheless bind counties if it the Legislature finds that it fulfills an important state interest and meets one of several criteria. The bill does include this finding. As for meeting other criteria, the most relevant would be that the Legislature has authorized counties to enact a funding source that can be used to generate an amount of funds sufficient to fund any required expenditures. This bill does provide counties with an additional revenue source in the form of a mandatory court cost of up to $50 that could generate up to $3.5 million, depending on the assumptions utilized, to fund, among other things, the creation of consequence or suspension centers, and "such other areas of local concern relating to juvenile crime." It is unclear if this includes county detention costs such that it could be applied to offset any increase in detention costs incurred by counties as a result of this bill. If so, this could be construed as providing the necessary offsetting revenue, although the extent to which it does so depends upon the extent of any negative fiscal impact on counties as a result of this bill. (See Fiscal Comments, Section II.D., of this Analysis.)

2. Other:

None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

Section 13 of the bill requires the juvenile probation officer to make a recommendation to the court concerning placement and a proposed treatment plan. The court is required to consider the DJJ recommendation. The court may commit the child at the restrictiveness level at the level recommended by the DJJ or a level determined by the court. The court is specifically allowed to consider the same factors considered by the department and reach a different conclusion than reached by the DJJ. The bill eliminates the requirement in current law that the court state reasons that establish by a preponderance of the evidence why the court is disregarding the DJJ recommendation and instead only requires the court to state reasons for the disposition imposed and requires the DJJ to identify the extent to which the courts agree with the DJJ recommendation.

However, the bill maintains the current law that permits any party to appeal "the court's findings resulting in a modified level of restrictiveness." It is unclear what grounds an appellate court would use to review an appeal where a party is arguing that the modified restrictiveness level should be overturned.

70 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

72 Section 1. Section 985.031, Florida Statutes, is created
73 to read:

74 985.031 Preadjudicatory release; circuit court
75 authority.--The circuit court shall have the authority to set
76 reasonable conditions of preadjudicatory release for a child
77 charged with the commission of a delinquent act which 78 constitutes a felony or when the child has previously been 79 charged with or found to have committed, regardless of 80 adjudication, a delinquent act. The child shall comply with all
81 such preadjudicatory release conditions prior to an adjudicatory
82 hearing. Reasonable conditions of preadjudicatory release may 83 include, but are not limited to, the following:

84 (1) The child shall not engage in a violation of law.

HB 211

85 (2) The child shall not possess or carry any weapon.

86 (3) The child shall not possess or use any alcoholic 87 beverage or illegal drug or associate with those who are 88 currently possessing or using any alcoholic beverage or illegal
 89 drug.

90 (4) The child shall obey all reasonable household rules.

91 (5) The child shall attend school regularly, including all
 92 classes.

93 (6) The child shall abide by the curfew set by his or her
 94 parents or guardians, or as set by the court.

95 (7) The child shall have no contact with any codefendants,
 96 an alleged victim, or the family of any alleged victim.

97 (8) The child shall not return to the scene of the alleged
 98 crime, unless approved by the court.

99 Section 2. Paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section
 100 985.101, Florida Statutes, is amended, and subsection (5) is
 101 added to that section, to read:

102 985.101 Taking a child into custody; preadjudicatory
 103 release conditions.--

104 (1) A child may be taken into custody under the following
 105 circumstances:

106 (d) By a law enforcement officer who has probable cause to 107 believe that the child is in violation of the conditions of the 108 child's preadjudicatory release, conditions of the child's 109 probation, home detention, postcommitment probation, or 110 conditional release supervision; has absconded from 111 nonresidential commitment; or has escaped from residential 112 commitment.

 114 Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to allow the 115 detention of a child who does not meet the detention criteria in 116 part V.

117 (5) If a child is taken into custody under paragraph
 118 (1)(d) for a violation of the conditions of preadjudicatory
 119 release, the child must appear before a judge within 24 hours.

120 Section 3. Subsection (1) of section 985.24, Florida
 121 Statutes, is amended to read:

122 985.24 Use of detention; prohibitions.--

123 (1) All determinations and court orders regarding the use
 124 of secure, nonsecure, or home detention care shall be based 125 primarily upon findings that the child:

126 (a) Presents a substantial risk of not appearing at a
 127 subsequent hearing;

128 (b) Presents a substantial risk of inflicting bodily harm
 129 on others as evidenced by recent behavior;

130 (c) Presents a history of committing a property offense
 131 prior to adjudication, disposition, or placement;

132 (d) Has been adjudicated delinquent and committed to the 133 department in a residential facility, but is on home or 134 nonsecure detention care while awaiting placement, and:

135 1. Absconds from home or nonsecure detention care or 136 otherwise violates the terms of release; or

137 2. There is probable cause to believe that the child has 138 committed a new violation of law;

139 (e)(d) Has committed contempt of court by:

- 140 1. Intentionally disrupting the administration of the 141 court;
 142 2. Intentionally disobeying a court order; or
 143 3. Engaging in a punishable act or speech in the court's 144 presence which shows disrespect for the authority and dignity of 145 the court; or

146 (f) ~~(e)~~ Requests protection from imminent bodily harm.

147 Section 4. Subsection (1) of section 985.245, Florida
 148 Statutes, is amended to read:

149 985.245 Risk assessment instrument.--

150 (1) All determinations and court orders regarding 151 placement of a child into detention care shall comply with all
 152 requirements and criteria provided in this part and shall be 153 based on a risk assessment of the child, unless the child is 154 placed into detention care as provided in s. 985.255(2) or s.
 155 985.28.

156 Section 5. Paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section
 157 985.25, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

158 985.25 Detention intake.--

159 (1) The juvenile probation officer shall receive custody
 160 of a child who has been taken into custody from the law
 161 enforcement agency and shall review the facts in the law
 162 enforcement report or probable cause affidavit and make such 163 further inquiry as may be necessary to determine whether 164 detention care is required.

165 (b) The juvenile probation officer shall base the decision
 166 whether ~~or not~~ to place the child into secure detention care, 167 home detention care, or nonsecure detention care on an

168 assessment of risk in accordance with the risk assessment
 169 instrument and procedures developed by the department under s.
 170 985.245. However, a child shall be placed in secure detention 171 care if:

172 1. The child is charged with possessing or discharging a
 173 firearm on school property in violation of s. 790.115;

174 2. The child is alleged to have absconded from home or 175 nonsecure detention care or the child otherwise violates the 176 terms of release after adjudication and commitment to the 177 department but before placement in a residential facility; or

178 3. There is probable cause to believe the child has
 179 committed a new violation of law while on home or nonsecure
 180 detention care after adjudication and commitment but before
 181 placement in a residential facility ~~shall be placed in secure~~
 182 ~~detention care.~~

 184 Under no circumstances shall the juvenile probation officer or 185 the state attorney or law enforcement officer authorize the 186 detention of any child in a jail or other facility intended or 187 used for the detention of adults, without an order of the court.

188 Section 6. Subsections (1) and (3) of section 985.255,
 189 Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

190 985.255 Detention criteria; detention hearing.--

191 (1) Subject to s. 985.25(1), a child taken into custody
 192 and placed into nonsecure or home detention care or detained in 193 secure detention care prior to a detention hearing may continue
 194 to be detained by the court if:

HB 211

195 (a) The child is alleged to have absconded from home or 196 nonsecure detention care or otherwise violates the terms of 197 release after adjudication and commitment but while awaiting
 198 placement in a residential facility.

199 (b) There is probable cause to believe the child has
 200 committed a new violation of law while on home or nonsecure
 201 detention care after adjudication and commitment but while 202 awaiting placement in a residential facility.

203 (c)~~(a)~~ The child is alleged to be an escapee from a
 204 residential commitment program; or an absconder from a
 205 nonresidential commitment program, a probation program, or
 206 conditional release supervision; or is alleged to have escaped
 207 while being lawfully transported to or from a residential
 208 commitment program.

209 (d)~~(b)~~ The child is wanted in another jurisdiction for an
 210 offense which, if committed by an adult, would be a felony.

211 (e)~~(c)~~ The child is charged with a delinquent act or
 212 violation of law and requests in writing through legal counsel
 213 to be detained for protection from an imminent physical threat
 214 to his or her personal safety.

215 (f)~~(d)~~ The child is charged with committing an offense of 216 domestic violence as defined in s. 741.28 and is detained as 217 provided in subsection (2).

218 (g)~~(e)~~ The child is charged with possession or discharging
 219 a firearm on school property in violation of s. 790.115.

220 (h)~~(f)~~ The child is charged with a capital felony, a life
 221 felony, a felony of the first degree, a felony of the second
 222 degree that does not involve a violation of chapter 893, or a

223 felony of the third degree that is also a crime of violence,
224 including any such offense involving the use or possession of a
225 firearm.

226 ~~(i)(g)~~ The child is charged with any second degree or 227 third degree felony involving a violation of chapter 893 or any 228 third degree felony that is not also a crime of violence, and 229 the child:

- 230 1. Has a record of failure to appear at court hearings
231 after being properly notified in accordance with the Rules of 232 Juvenile Procedure;
- 233 2. Has a record of law violations prior to court hearings;
- 234 3. Has already been detained or has been released and is 235 awaiting final disposition of the case;
- 236 4. Has a record of violent conduct resulting in physical 237 injury to others; or
- 238 5. Is found to have been in possession of a firearm.

239 ~~(j)(h)~~ The child is alleged to have violated the 240 conditions of the child's probation or conditional release
241 supervision. However, a child detained under this paragraph may 242 be held only in a consequence unit as provided in s. 985.439. If 243 a consequence unit is not available, the child may be placed in 244 secure detention care, home detention care, or home detention
245 care with electronic monitoring ~~shall be placed on home~~
246 ~~detention with electronic monitoring.~~

247 ~~(k)(i)~~ The child is detained on a judicial order for
248 failure to appear and has previously willfully failed to appear,
249 after proper notice, for an adjudicatory hearing on the same
250 case regardless of the results of the risk assessment

251 instrument. A child may be held in secure detention for up to 72
 252 hours in advance of the next scheduled court hearing pursuant to 253 this paragraph. The child's failure to keep the clerk of court
 254 and defense counsel informed of a current and valid mailing
 255 address where the child will receive notice to appear at court
 256 proceedings does not provide an adequate ground for excusal of 257 the child's nonappearance at the hearings.

258 (1)~~(j)~~ The child is detained on a judicial order for
 259 failure to appear and has previously willfully failed to appear,
 260 after proper notice, at two or more court hearings of any nature
 261 on the same case regardless of the results of the risk
 262 assessment instrument. A child may be held in secure detention
 263 for up to 72 hours in advance of the next scheduled court
 264 hearing pursuant to this paragraph. The child's failure to keep 265 the clerk of court and defense counsel informed of a current and 266 valid mailing address where the child will receive notice to 267 appear at court proceedings does not provide an adequate ground
 268 for excusal of the child's nonappearance at the hearings.

269 (3) (a) A child who meets any of the criteria in subsection
 270 (1) and who is ordered to be detained under that subsection
 271 shall be given a hearing within 24 hours after being taken into 272 custody. The purpose of the detention hearing is to determine
 273 the existence of probable cause that the child has committed the
 274 delinquent act or violation of law that he or she is charged
 275 with and the need for continued detention. Unless a child is 276 detained under paragraph (1) (a), paragraph (1) (b), paragraph 277 (1) (f)~~(d)~~, or paragraph (1) (g)~~(e)~~, the court shall use the 278 results of the risk assessment performed by the juvenile

279 probation officer and, based on the criteria in subsection (1),
280 shall determine the need for continued detention. A child placed 281 into secure, nonsecure, or home detention care may continue to 282 be so detained by the court. A child detained under paragraph
283 (1)(a) or paragraph (1)(b) may be placed into secure detention
284 care pending placement in a residential facility.

285 (c) Except as provided in paragraph (1)(a), paragraph 286 (1)(b), s. 790.22(8), or in s. 985.27, when a child is placed
287 into secure or nonsecure detention care, or into a respite home
288 or other placement pursuant to a court order following a
289 hearing, the court order must include specific instructions that 290 direct the release of the child from such placement no later
291 than 5 p.m. on the last day of the detention period specified in 292 s. 985.26 or s. 985.27, whichever is applicable, unless the 293 requirements of such applicable provision have been met or an 294 order of continuance has been granted under s. 985.26(4).

295 Section 7. Section 985.26, Florida Statutes, is amended to 296 read:

297 985.26 Length of detention.--

298 (1) A child may not be placed into or held in secure,
299 nonsecure, or home detention care for longer than 24 hours
300 unless the court orders such detention care, and the order
301 includes specific instructions that direct the release of the 302 child from such detention care, in accordance with s. 985.255.
303 The order shall be a final order, reviewable by appeal under s.
304 985.534 and the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure. Appeals of 305 such orders shall take precedence over other appeals and other
306 pending matters.

2010

307 (2) A child may not be held in secure, nonsecure, or home
308 detention care under a special detention order for more than 21
309 days unless an adjudicatory hearing for the case has been 310 commenced in good faith by the court. However, upon good cause
311 being shown that the nature of the charge requires additional 312 time for the prosecution or defense of the case, the court may 313 extend the length of detention for an additional 9 days if the 314 child is charged with an offense that would be, if committed by 315 an adult, a capital felony, a life felony, a felony of the first
316 degree, or a felony of the second degree involving violence
317 against any individual. For purposes of this subsection, if a 318 child is released, the child must comply with all conditions of 319 preadjudicatory release set by the circuit court.

320 (3) Except as provided in subsection (2), a child may not 321 be held in secure, nonsecure, or home detention care for more
322 than 15 days following the entry of an order of adjudication.

323 (4) The time limits in subsections (2) and (3) do not 324 include periods of delay resulting from a continuance granted by 325 the court for cause on motion of the child or his or her counsel
326 or of the state. Upon the issuance of an order granting a 327 continuance for cause on a motion by either the child, the 328 child's counsel, or the state, the court shall conduct a hearing
329 at the end of each 72-hour period, excluding Saturdays, Sundays,
330 and legal holidays, to determine the need for continued
331 detention of the child and the need for further continuance of 332 proceedings for the child or the state.

333 (5) The time limits required under this section do not 334 apply to children held in secure detention care pursuant to ss.
 335 985.255(1)(a) and (b) and (3), 985.27(1)(a) and (b), and 985.28.

336 ~~(6)(5)~~ A child who was not in secure detention care at the 337 time of the adjudicatory hearing, but for whom residential
 338 commitment is anticipated or recommended, may be placed under a
 339 special detention order for a period not to exceed 72 hours,
 340 excluding weekends and legal holidays, for the purpose of 341 conducting a comprehensive evaluation as provided in s. 985.185.
 342 Motions for the issuance of such special detention order may be 343 made subsequent to a finding of delinquency. Upon said motion, 344 the court shall conduct a hearing to determine the 345 appropriateness of such special detention order and shall order
 346 the least restrictive level of detention care necessary to 347 complete the comprehensive evaluation process that is consistent
 348 with public safety. Such special detention order may be extended 349 for an additional 72 hours upon further order of the court.

350 ~~(7)(6)~~ If a child is detained and a petition for 351 delinquency is filed, the child shall be arraigned in accordance 352 with the Florida Rules of Juvenile Procedure within 48 hours
 353 after the filing of the petition for delinquency.

354 Section 8. Subsection (1) of section 985.265, Florida
 355 Statutes, is amended to read:

356 985.265 Detention transfer and release; education; adult
 357 jails.--

358 (1) If a child is detained under this part, the department
 359 may transfer the child from nonsecure or home detention care to 360 secure detention care only if significantly changed

361 | circumstances warrant such transfer. Such circumstances include,
 362 | but are not limited to:

363 | (a) Where a child is alleged to have absconded from home
 364 | or nonsecure detention care or otherwise violates the terms of
 365 | release after adjudication and commitment but while awaiting
 366 | placement in a residential facility; or

367 | (b) Where probable cause exists that a child has committed
 368 | a new violation of law while on home or nonsecure detention care
 369 | after adjudication and commitment but while awaiting placement
 370 | in a residential facility.

371 | Section 9. Subsection (1) of section 985.27, Florida
 372 | Statutes, is amended to read:

373 | 985.27 Postcommitment detention while awaiting
 374 | placement.--

375 | (1) The court must place all children who are adjudicated
 376 | and awaiting placement in a commitment program in secure
 377 | detention care, home detention care, or nonsecure detention
 378 | care. Children who are in home detention care or nonsecure
 379 | detention care may be placed on electronic monitoring.

380 | (a) A child who is awaiting placement in a low-risk
 381 | residential program must be removed from detention within 5
 382 | days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays. Any
 383 | child held in secure detention during the 5 days must meet
 384 | detention admission criteria under this part. A child who is
 385 | placed in home detention care, nonsecure detention care, or home
 386 | or nonsecure detention care with electronic monitoring, while
 387 | awaiting placement in a minimum-risk or low-risk program, may be
 388 | held in secure detention care for 5 days, if the child violates

389 the conditions of the home detention care, the nonsecure
 390 detention care, or the electronic monitoring agreement. For any 391 subsequent violation, the court may impose an additional 15 ~~5~~
 392 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, in 393 secure detention care.

394 (b)1. A child who is awaiting placement in a moderate-risk
 395 residential program must be placed in secure detention care,
 396 home detention care, or nonsecure detention care. Any child held
 397 in secure detention care must meet detention admission criteria
 398 under this part.

399 2. A child may not be held in secure detention care longer
 400 than 15 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays,
 401 while awaiting placement in a moderate-risk residential
 402 facility, except that any child shall be held in secure
 403 detention care until placed in a residential facility if:

404 a. The child is alleged to have absconded from home
 405 detention care or nonsecure detention care or otherwise violated
 406 the terms of release or electronic monitoring; or

407 b. Probable cause exists that a child committed a new 408 violation of law while on home detention care, nonsecure
 409 detention care, or electronic monitoring and the child is 410 awaiting placement in a residential program ~~A child who is~~ 411 ~~awaiting placement in a moderate risk residential program must~~
 412 ~~be removed from detention within 5 days, excluding Saturdays,~~
 413 ~~Sundays, and legal holidays. Any child held in secure detention~~
 414 ~~during the 5 days must meet detention admission criteria under~~
 415 ~~this part. The department may seek an order from the court~~
 416 ~~authorizing continued detention for a specific period of time~~

417 ~~necessary for the appropriate residential placement of the~~ 418 ~~child. However, such continued detention in secure detention~~
 419 ~~care may not exceed 15 days after entry of the commitment order,~~
 420 ~~excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, and except as~~ 421 ~~otherwise provided in this section. A child who is placed in~~ 422 ~~home detention care, nonsecure detention care, or home or~~ 423 ~~nonsecure detention care with electronic monitoring, while~~ 424 ~~awaiting placement in a moderate risk program, may be held in~~ 425 ~~secure detention care for 5 days, if the child violates the~~
 426 ~~conditions of the home detention care, the nonsecure detention~~
 427 ~~care, or the electronic monitoring agreement. For any subsequent~~ 428 ~~violation, the court may impose an additional 5 days in secure~~
 429 ~~detention care.~~

430 (c) If the child is committed to a high-risk residential 431 program, the child must be held in secure detention care until 432 placement or commitment is accomplished.

433 (d) If the child is committed to a maximum-risk
 434 residential program, the child must be held in secure detention
 435 care until placement or commitment is accomplished.

436 Section 10. Section 985.28, Florida Statutes, is created
 437 to read:

438 985.28 Appearance in court; preadjudicatory detention;
 439 contempt.--

440 (1) A child may be held in secure detention care if, after 441 proper notice, the child fails to appear in court because the 442 child refuses to appear, runs away, or otherwise intentionally
 443 avoids his or her appearance. The court may hold the child in

HB 211

444 secure detention care until the trial concludes, regardless of 445 the results of the risk assessment instrument.

446 (2) A parent or legal guardian, after being properly
447 noticed, who knowingly and willfully fails to bring or otherwise 448 prevents a child from appearing for trial may be held in 449 contempt of court.

450 Section 11. Subsection (1) of section 985.35, Florida
451 Statutes, is amended to read:

452 985.35 Adjudicatory hearings; withheld adjudications;
453 orders of adjudication.--

454 (1) The adjudicatory hearing must be held as soon as 455 practicable after the petition alleging that a child has 456 committed a delinquent act or violation of law is filed and in 457 accordance with the Florida Rules of Juvenile Procedure; but 458 reasonable delay for the purpose of investigation, discovery, or 459 procuring counsel or witnesses shall be granted. If the child is 460 being detained, the time limitations in s. 985.26(2) ~~and (3)~~
461 apply.

462 Section 12. Paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section
463 985.43, Florida Statutes, is amended, and subsection (4) is 464 added to that section, to read:

465 985.43 Predisposition reports; other evaluations.--

466 (1) Upon a finding that the child has committed a
467 delinquent act:

468 (c) A child who was not in secure detention at the time of 469 the adjudicatory hearing, but for whom residential commitment is 470 anticipated or recommended, may be placed under a special

471 detention order, as provided in s. 985.26(6)~~(5)~~, for the purpose
 472 of conducting a comprehensive evaluation.

473 (4) The Legislature finds that the court is in the best
 474 position to weigh all facts and circumstances to determine 475 whether or not to commit a juvenile to the department and to 476 determine the most appropriate restrictiveness level for a
 477 juvenile committed to the department.

478 Section 13. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (7) of 479 section 985.433, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

480 985.433 Disposition hearings in delinquency cases.--When a 481 child has been found to have committed a delinquent act, the 482 following procedures shall be applicable to the disposition of 483 the case:

484 (7) If the court determines that the child should be 485 adjudicated as having committed a delinquent act and should be 486 committed to the department, such determination shall be in 487 writing or on the record of the hearing. The determination shall 488 include a specific finding of the reasons for the decision to 489 adjudicate and to commit the child to the department, including 490 any determination that the child was a member of a criminal 491 gang.

492 (a) The juvenile probation officer shall make a

499 weight in identifying the most appropriate restrictiveness level
500 for the child. The court shall consider the department's 501 recommendation in making its commitment decision.

502 (b) The court may ~~shall~~ commit the child to the department
503 at the restrictiveness level identified by the department, or 504 the court may order placement at a different restrictiveness
505 level. The court may determine the disposition on the same
506 factors as the department considered in the department's 507 predisposition report and placement recommendation even if the 508 court reaches a different conclusion. The court may commit the 509 child to a different restrictiveness level than recommended by 510 the department. The court shall state for the record the reasons
511 for the disposition imposed ~~that establish by a preponderance of~~ 512 ~~the evidence why the court is disregarding the assessment of the~~ 513 ~~child and the restrictiveness level recommended by the~~ 514 ~~department.~~ Any party may appeal the court's findings resulting 515 in a modified level of restrictiveness under this paragraph. The 516 department shall maintain data to identify the extent to which 517 the courts agree with the department's recommendation.

518 Section 14. Subsection (2) of section 985.439, Florida
519 Statutes, is amended to read:

520 985.439 Violation of probation or postcommitment
521 probation.--

522 (2) A child taken into custody under s. 985.101 for 523 violating the conditions of probation or postcommitment
524 probation shall be held in a consequence unit if such a unit is 525 available or may be detained under part V in a facility other 526 than a consequence unit if one is not available. The child shall

527 | be afforded a hearing within 24 hours after being taken into
 528 | custody to determine the existence of probable cause that the
 529 | child violated the conditions of probation or postcommitment
 530 | probation. A consequence unit is a secure facility specifically
 531 | designated by the department for children who are taken into
 532 | custody under s. 985.101 for violating probation or
 533 | postcommitment probation, or who have been found by the court to
 534 | have violated the conditions of probation or postcommitment
 535 | probation. If the violation involves a new charge of
 536 | delinquency, the child may be detained under part V in a
 537 | facility other than a consequence unit. If the child is not
 538 | eligible for detention for the new charge of delinquency, the
 539 | child may be held in the consequence unit pending a hearing and
 540 | is subject to the time limitations specified in part V.

541 | Section 15. Section 938.20, Florida Statutes, is created
 542 | to read:

543 | 938.20 County juvenile crime prevention fund.--

544 | (1) Notwithstanding s. 318.121, and in addition to ss.
 545 | 938.19 and 939.185, in each county the board of county
 546 | commissioners may adopt a mandatory court cost to be assessed in
 547 | specific cases by incorporating by reference the provisions of
 548 | this section in a county ordinance. Assessments collected by the
 549 | clerk of the circuit court under this section shall be deposited
 550 | into an account specifically for the administration of the
 551 | county's juvenile crime prevention fund. The proceeds of the
 552 | county's juvenile crime prevention fund shall only be used to
 553 | fund local programs whose principal focus is the prevention of
 554 | juvenile crime, the creation of consequence or suspension

HB 211

555 centers, and truancy programs and such other areas of local 556 concern relating to juvenile crime.

557 (2) A sum of up to $50 shall be assessed as a court cost
558 in the circuit court in the county against each juvenile who 559 pleads guilty or nolo contendere to, or is found guilty of,
560 regardless of adjudication, a delinquent act. A juvenile may not 561 be assessed court costs under this section if the juvenile and 562 the juvenile's parents or other legal guardian are found to be 563 indigent.

564 (3) The assessment for court costs under this section
565 shall be assessed in addition to any other cost or fee and may 566 not be deducted from the proceeds of any other cost that is 567 received by the county.

568 (4) (a) The clerk of the circuit court shall collect the 569 assessments for court costs under this section and shall remit
570 the assessments to the county's juvenile crime prevention fund
571 monthly.

572 (b) The clerk of the circuit court shall withhold 3
573 percent of the assessments collected, which shall be retained as 574 fee income of the office of the clerk of the circuit court.

575 (5) A county's juvenile crime prevention fund must account
576 for all funds received and disbursed under this section in a
577 written report to the board of county commissioners of that 578 county. The report must be given to the commissioners by August 579 1 of each year unless a different date is required by the 580 commissioners.

581 (6) A county's juvenile crime prevention fund may be 582 administered by a nonprofit organization, a law enforcement

583 agency, the court administrator, the clerk of the circuit court, 584 a county agency, or another similar agency authorized by the 585 board of county commissioners of that county.

586 Section 16. Subsection (8) of section 790.22, Florida
587 Statutes, is amended to read:

588 790.22 Use of BB guns, air or gas-operated guns, or 589 electric weapons or devices by minor under 16; limitation;
590 possession of firearms by minor under 18 prohibited;
591 penalties.--

592 (8) Notwithstanding s. 985.24 or s. 985.25(1), if a minor
593 under 18 years of age is charged with an offense that involves 594 the use or possession of a firearm, as defined in s. 790.001,
595 including a violation of subsection (3), or is charged for any 596 offense during the commission of which the minor possessed a 597 firearm, the minor shall be detained in secure detention, unless 598 the state attorney authorizes the release of the minor, and 599 shall be given a hearing within 24 hours after being taken into 600 custody. At the hearing, the court may order that the minor
601 continue to be held in secure detention in accordance with the 602 applicable time periods specified in s. 985.26(1)-(6)~~(1)-(5)~~, if 603 the court finds that the minor meets the criteria specified in 604 s. 985.255, or if the court finds by clear and convincing
605 evidence that the minor is a clear and present danger to himself
606 or herself or the community. The Department of Juvenile Justice
607 shall prepare a form for all minors charged under this
608 subsection that states the period of detention and the relevant
609 demographic information, including, but not limited to, the sex, 610 age, and race of the minor; whether or not the minor was

611 represented by private counsel or a public defender; the current 612 offense; and the minor's complete prior record, including any 613 pending cases. The form shall be provided to the judge to be 614 considered when determining whether the minor should be
 615 continued in secure detention under this subsection. An order
 616 placing a minor in secure detention because the minor is a clear 617 and present danger to himself or herself or the community must 618 be in writing, must specify the need for detention and the 619 benefits derived by the minor or the community by placing the 620 minor in secure detention, and must include a copy of the form
 621 provided by the department. The Department of Juvenile Justice
 622 must send the form, including a copy of any order, without 623 client-identifying information, to the Office of Economic and 624 Demographic Research.

625 Section 17. The Legislature determines and declares that 626 this act fulfills an important state interest.

627 Section 18. It is the intent of the Legislature with this 628 act to ensure public safety and to provide appropriate and 629 effective treatment to address physical, social, and emotional
 630 needs of juveniles, including, but not limited to, substance
 631 abuse services, mental health services, family counseling, anger
 632 management, other behavioral services, and health care services.

633 Section 19. This act shall take effect July 1, 2010.

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

When a criminal history record is expunged, criminal justice agencies other than the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) must physically destroy the record. Records that have been expunged are confidential and exempt from the public records law. Persons who have had their criminal history records sealed or expunged may lawfully deny or fail to acknowledge the arrests covered by their record, except in specific instances.

Contrary to current law, HB 541 will allow multiple, automatic expunctions of criminal history records that will not require a certificate of eligibility from FDLE or a $75 processing fee.

A person is eligible for this type of expunction if they were found not guilty or acquitted by a judge or jury; or the indictment, information, or other charging document was:

- Not filed or issued in the case; or
- Filed and was dismissed or nolle prosequi by the state attorney or statewide prosecutor or was dismissed by a court of competent jurisdiction.

If a person was adjudicated guilty or delinquent for committing any of the acts stemming from the arrest or alleged criminal activity or delinquent act, the record does not qualify for the automatic expunction.

The bill creates cross-references in various statutes related to eligibility for expunction.

The bill has a significant negative fiscal impact on FDLE.

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2010.

HOUSE PRINCIPLES

Members are encouraged to evaluate proposed legislation in light of the following guiding principles of the House of Representatives

- Balance the state budget.
- Create a legal and regulatory environment that fosters economic growth and job creation.
- Lower the tax burden on families and businesses.
- Reverse or restrain the growth of government.
- Promote public safety.
- Promote educational accountability, excellence, and choice.
- Foster respect for the family and for innocent human life.
- Protect Florida's natural beauty.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

Sealing and Expunction of Criminal History Records

Sections 943.0585 and 943.059, F.S., set forth procedures for sealing and expunging criminal history records. The courts have jurisdiction over their own judicial records containing criminal history information and over their procedures for maintaining and destroying those records. The Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) can administratively expunge non-judicial records of arrest that are made contrary to law or by mistake.¹

When a criminal history record is expunged, criminal justice agencies other than FDLE must physically destroy the record. Criminal justice agencies are allowed to make a notation indicating compliance with an expunction order. The FDLE, on the other hand, is required to retain expunged records. When a record is sealed, it is not destroyed, but access is limited to the subject of the record, his or her attorney, law enforcement agencies for their respective criminal justice purposes, and certain other specified agencies for their respective licensing and employment purposes.²

Records that have been sealed or expunged are confidential and exempt from the public records law. It is a first-degree misdemeanor to divulge their existence, except to specified entities for licensing or employment purposes.³

A person who has had their criminal history records sealed or expunged may lawfully deny or fail to acknowledge the arrests covered by their sealed or expunged record, except when they are applying for certain types of employment,⁴ petitioning the court for a record sealing or expunction, or are a defendant in a criminal prosecution.⁵

³ Section 943.0585(4)(c), F.S.

⁴ These types of employment include: law enforcement, the Florida Bar, working with children, the developmentally disabled, or the elderly through the Department of Children and Families, the Department of Juvenile Justice, the Department of Education, any district school board, or local governmental entity licensing child care facilities, or a Florida seaport.

⁵ Section 943.0585(4)(a), F.S.

In 1992, the Legislature amended the sealing and expunction statutes to require a person seeking a sealing or expunction to first obtain a certificate of eligibility (certificate) from FDLE. Before a person can petition the court to seal or expunge a criminal history record, they must receive a certificate of eligibility from FDLE. In order to receive a certificate, a person must:

(1) Submit to FDLE a written, certified statement from the appropriate state attorney or statewide prosecutor that indicates an indictment, information, or other charging document was not filed or issued in the case or if filed and was dismissed or nolle prosequi by the state attorney or statewide prosecutor or was dismissed by a court of competent jurisdiction. Charges related to the record the person wishes to expunge cannot have resulted in a trial, without regard to whether the outcome of the trial was other than an adjudication of guilt.

Criminal history records relating to certain offenses⁶ in which a defendant (adult or juvenile) has been found guilty or has pled guilty or nolo contendere, regardless of whether adjudication is withheld,⁷ may not be sealed or expunged.⁸

(2) Pay a $75 processing fee.

(3) Submit a certified copy of the disposition of the record they wish to have expunged.

(4) Have never been adjudicated guilty or delinquent for committing a felony or misdemeanor specified in 943.051(3)(b), F.S.,⁹ prior to the date of their application for the certificate.¹⁰

(5) Have never been adjudicated guilty or delinquent for committing any of the acts stemming from the arrest or alleged criminal activity of the record they wish to have expunged.

(6) Have never had a prior sealing or expunction of criminal history record unless an expunction is sought for a record previously sealed for 10 years and the record is otherwise eligible for expunction. A record must have been sealed for 10 years before it can be expunged, unless charges were not filed or were dismissed by the prosecutor or court.¹¹

This requirement does not apply when a plea was not entered or all charges relating to the arrest or alleged criminal activity to which the petition to expunge pertains were dismissed prior to trial.¹²

⁷ A withhold of adjudication is a manner of disposition in which the court does not pronounce a formal judgment of conviction. http://www.flcourts.org/gen_public/pubs/bin/srsmanual/Glossary_2002.pdf (Last visited March 12, 2010).

(7) No longer be under any court supervision related to the disposition of the record they wish to have expunged.

In addition to the certificate, the petitioner must also submit a sworn statement that they:

- have not previously been adjudicated guilty of any offense or adjudicated delinquent for certain offenses;
- have not been adjudicated guilty or delinquent for any of the charges they are currently trying to have sealed or expunged;
- have not obtained a prior sealing or expunction; and
- are eligible to the best of their knowledge and has no other pending expunction or sealing petitions before the court.¹³

Any person knowingly providing false information on the sworn statement commits a felony of the third degree.¹⁴

If the person meets the statutory criteria based on FDLE's criminal history check and receives a certificate, he or she can petition the court for a record sealing or expunction.¹⁵ It is then up to the court to decide whether the sealing or expunction is appropriate.¹⁶

FDLE currently processes about 1,000 court orders per month that meet the sealing and expunging criteria.¹⁷

Sealing and Expunging Juvenile Records

Juveniles have a few more options than adults do when choosing to have a record expunged. If a juvenile successfully completes a prearrest, postarrest, or teen court diversion program after being arrested for a nonviolent misdemeanor, he or she is eligible to have the arrest expunged providing there is no other past criminal history. This expunction does not prohibit the juvenile from requesting a regular sealing or expunction under s. 943.0585 or s. 943.059, F.S., if he or she is otherwise eligible.¹⁸

Juvenile delinquency criminal history records maintained by the FDLE are also expunged automatically when the juvenile turns 24 years of age (if he or she is not a serious or habitual juvenile offender or committed to a juvenile prison) or 26 years of age (if he or she was a serious or habitual juvenile offender or was in a juvenile prison), as long as the juvenile is not arrested as an adult or adjudicated as an adult for a forcible felony.¹⁹ This automatic expunction does not prohibit the juvenile from requesting a sealing or expunction under s. 943.0585 or s. 943.095, F.S., if he or she is otherwise eligible.

Criminal history records are public records under Florida law and must be disclosed unless they have been sealed or expunged or have otherwise been exempted or made confidential.²⁰ Fingerprints are exempt and are not disclosed by the FDLE. Juvenile criminal history information that has been compiled and maintained by the FDLE since July 1, 1996, is also considered by the department to be a public record, including felony and misdemeanor criminal history information.²¹ However, an ongoing lawsuit was filed by the Public Defender's Office in the Eleventh Judicial Circuit Court in Miami-Dade

Effect of Proposed Changes

HB 541 allows for an automatic expunction of criminal history records if the person was found not guilty or acquitted by a judge or jury; or the indictment, information, or other charging document was:

- Not filed or issued in the case; or
- Filed and was dismissed or nolle prosequi by the state attorney or statewide prosecutor or was dismissed by a court of competent jurisdiction.

If a person was adjudicated guilty or delinquent for committing any of the acts stemming from the arrest or alleged criminal activity or delinquent act, the record does not qualify for expunction.

The petition a person would file for the automatic expunction of a criminal record only requires a certified copy of the disposition of the offense sought to be sealed. There is no requirement for a certificate of eligibility through FDLE or a sworn statement by the petitioner.

Any court of competent jurisdiction may order a criminal justice agency to expunge the criminal history record of a minor or adult who qualifies for the automatic expunction.

The petition will be served upon the appropriate state attorney or the statewide prosecutor and upon the arresting agency. The appropriate statewide prosecutor or arresting agency may respond to the court regarding the completed petition.

The court may order the expunction of a criminal history that pertains to more than one arrest or one incident of alleged criminal activity if a person has not been adjudicated guilty or delinquent for committing any of the acts stemming from the arrest or alleged criminal activity or delinquent act they are seeking to have expunged.

If the petitioner is granted relief, the clerk of the court will certify copies of the order to the appropriate state attorney or statewide prosecutor, to the county, and to the arresting agency. Each of these entities must forward the order to other entities to which they have disseminated the now expunged criminal history record.

FDLE or other criminal justice agencies are not required to act on orders to expunge entered by the court when the order does not comply with the requirements of this section. When such an order is received, FDLE must notify the issuing court, the prosecutor or statewide prosecutor, the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney and the arresting agency within 5 business days. The state attorney or statewide prosecutor will take action within 60 days to correct the record and petition the court to void the order. No cause of action, including contempt of court, will be filed against any criminal justice agency for failure to comply with an order when such an order to expunge does not comply with the requirements of this section.

Any expunctions granted under this section will not prevent a person from petitioning for a sealing or expunction provided in ss. 943.0585 or 943.059, F.S., if they are otherwise eligible.

The bill provides that a minor who participates in a prearrest, postarrest, or teen court diversion is eligible to have the related record expunged by the automatic expunction process created by this bill. In addition, a person who has their charges dismissed after participation in a treatment-based drug court program is also eligible to have the record expunged through automatic expunction.

²² G.G. v. FDLE, Case No.: 07-00599 CA 21 (Miami-Dade Circuit Court); Section 985.04(1), F.S., provides that juvenile records are confidential, subject to specified exceptions, and limited disclosure to certain enumerated entities or upon court order. Subsection (2) generally allows for the disclosure of an arrest report for a juvenile arrested for a felony or an arrest report for a juvenile found by a court to have committed three or more misdemeanor offenses.

The bill also provides that if a person is petitioning to have a record sealed or expunged under ss. 943.0585 or 943.059, F.S., it is unlawful to deny or fail to acknowledge arrests covered by the record sought to have sealed or expunged if the subject of the record concurrently or subsequently petitions for the automatic expunction of a criminal history record.

Finally, the bill states that the automatic expunction statute it creates will not affect any administrative expunction of a person's criminal record resulting from a wrongful arrest, conviction, and incarceration.

B. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1. Creates s. 943.095, F.S., relating to automatic qualification for expunction of criminal history record if no finding of guilt.

Section 2. Amends s. 943.0582, F.S., relating to prearrest, postarrest, or teen court diversion program expunction.

Section 3. Amends s. 943.0585, F.S., relating to court-ordered expunction of criminal history records.

Section 4. Amends s. 943.059, F.S., relating to court-ordered sealing of criminal history records.

Section 5. Amends s. 948.08, F.S., relating to pretrial intervention program.

Section 6. Amends s. 948.16, F.S., relating to misdemeanor pretrial substance abuse education and treatment intervention program.

Section 7. Amends s. 961.06, F.S., relating to compensation for wrongful incarceration.

Section 8. Amends s. 985.345, F.S., relating to delinquency pretrial intervention program.

Section 9. Provides an effective date of July 1, 2010.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

See "Fiscal Comments."

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

See "Fiscal Comments."

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

This bill may require local and county criminal justice agencies to process additional court orders generated by the automatic expunction of criminal history records. State attorneys may have extensive new workloads in determining eligibility prior to court actions. Legal staff will have to address cases where FDLE notifies them that an order was issued in error.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

FDLE reports that based on an analysis of subjects in the Computerized Criminal History (CCH) file with one or more arrest records which would qualify for automatic expunction, approximately 1,893,440 individuals could potentially petition for an “automatic” expunction under this bill. Of these, about 6% (106,570) subjects have applied for a Certificate of Eligibility under the current law. This leaves 1,787,407 additional subjects that could be eligible to request an expunction without receiving a prior Certificate of Eligibility from FDLE.

FDLE further analyzes that while it is not likely that all 1,787,407 of the subjects would apply to a court for an expunction, a significant number can be expected to. If only 5% of the potential is realized over a year, the total estimated workload would increase by 89,370.

Based on the 5% potential increase:

- 17 additional Criminal Justice Customer Service Specialist (CJCSS) positions would be required to complete the evaluation and affect the expunctions in the state criminal history file, and
- 2 additional Government Analysts would be required to contact the courts and the state attorney in regards to court orders issued in error and other issues and questions.

Because there is no certificate of eligibility, there is no revenue to cover this new workload.

FDLE estimates that revenues can be expected to decrease, an estimated 6% the first year, and decreasing additionally by about 8% each subsequent year as the number of subjects who are eligible under this bill will no longer need to pay the fee for the certificate of eligibility.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

The bill does not appear to require counties or municipalities to spend funds or take any action requiring the expenditure of funds; reduce the authority that municipalities or counties have to raise revenue in the aggregate; or reduce the percentage of a state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

2. Other:

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

The bill requires "the county" to forward the court's order to expunge a criminal history record to any agency, organization, or company to which the county has disseminated said record. It is unclear which agency "the county" may refer to. In addition, it is unclear if the intent of the court's order is to bind private companies or parties, which may include LexisNexis or Google.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL OR COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

1 A bill to be entitled
2 An act relating to expunging criminal history records;
3 creating s. 943.0595, F.S.; permitting automatic
4 expunction of criminal history records in specified
5 circumstances; providing procedures; providing for effect
6 of expunction; providing for treatment of certain
7 statutory cross-references; amending ss. 943.0582,
8 943.0585, 943.059, 948.08, 948.16, 961.06, and 985.345,
9 F.S.; conforming provisions; providing an effective date.

10
11 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

12
13 Section 1. Section 943.0595, Florida Statutes, is created
14 to read:

15 943.0595 Automatic qualification for expunction of 16 criminal history record if no finding of guilt.-

17 (1) QUALIFICATION.-

18 (a) Notwithstanding any law dealing generally with the 19 preservation and destruction of public records, a criminal 20 history record relating to a person who has not been found
21 guilty of, or not pled guilty or nolo contendere to, an offense
22 automatically qualifies for expunction. The record shall be 23 expunged if:

24 1. An indictment, information, or other charging document
25 was not filed or issued in the case;

26 2. An indictment, information, or other charging document
27 was filed or issued in the case and was dismissed or nolle

28 prosecui by the state attorney or statewide prosecutor or was 29 dismissed by a court of competent jurisdiction; or

30 3. The person was found not guilty or acquitted by a judge
 31 or jury.

32 (b) If the person was adjudicated guilty of or adjudicated
 33 delinquent for committing any of the acts stemming from the 34 arrest or alleged criminal activity or delinquent act, the 35 record does not qualify for automatic expunction.

36 (2) PETITION.—Each petition to a court to expunge a
 37 criminal history record is complete only when accompanied by a 38 certified copy of the disposition of the offenses sought to be 39 sealed.

40 (3) PROCESSING OF PETITION.—

41 (a) A certificate of eligibility for expunction from the 42 department shall not be required under this section.

43 (b) Any court of competent jurisdiction may order a
 44 criminal justice agency to expunge the criminal history record
 45 of a minor or an adult whose record qualifies for automatic
 46 expunction under this section.

47 (c) In judicial proceedings under this section, a copy of 48 the completed petition to expunge shall be served upon the 49 appropriate state attorney or the statewide prosecutor and upon
 50 the arresting agency; however, it is not necessary to make any 51 agency other than the state a party. The appropriate state
 52 attorney or the statewide prosecutor and the arresting agency
 53 may respond to the court regarding the completed petition to 54 expunge.

55 (d) Notwithstanding ss. 943.0585 and 943.059 and any other
56 provision of law, the court may order expunction of a criminal
57 history record pertaining to more than one arrest or one
58 incident of alleged criminal activity if the person has not been 59 adjudicated guilty of or adjudicated delinquent for committing
60 any of the acts stemming from the arrest or alleged criminal 61 activity or delinquent act to which the petition to expunge
62 pertains.

63 (e) If relief is granted by the court, the clerk of the 64 court shall certify copies of the order to the appropriate state
65 attorney or the statewide prosecutor, to the county, and to the 66 arresting agency. The arresting agency is responsible for 67 forwarding the order to any other agency to which the arresting 68 agency disseminated the criminal history record information to 69 which the order pertains. The department shall forward the order
70 to expunge to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The clerk of 71 the court shall certify a copy of the order to any other agency
72 that court records indicate has received the criminal history
73 record from the court. The county is responsible for forwarding 74 the order to any agency, organization, or company to which the 75 county disseminated the criminal history information to which 76 the order pertains.

77 (f) The department or any other criminal justice agency is
78 not required to act on an order to expunge entered by a court
79 when such order does not comply with the requirements of this 80 section. Upon receipt of such an order, the department must 81 notify the issuing court, the appropriate state attorney or the 82 statewide prosecutor, the petitioner or the petitioner's

83 attorney, and the arresting agency within 5 business days after 84 determining that the department or the agency cannot comply with 85 the court order. The appropriate state attorney or the statewide 86 prosecutor shall take action within 60 days to correct the 87 record and petition the court to void the order. No cause of 88 action, including contempt of court, shall arise against any 89 criminal justice agency for failure to comply with an order to 90 expunge when such order does not comply with the requirements of 91 this section.

92 (g) An order expunging a criminal history record pursuant
93 to this section does not require that such record be surrendered
94 to the court, and such record shall continue to be maintained by 95 the department and other criminal justice agencies.

96 (4) SECTION NOT EXCLUSIVE.—Expunction granted under this
97 section does not prevent the person who receives such relief
98 from petitioning for the expunction or sealing of a criminal
99 history record as provided for in ss. 943.0585 and 943.059 if 100 the person is otherwise eligible under those sections.

101 (5) STATUTORY REFERENCES.—Any reference to any other
102 chapter, section, or subdivision of the Florida Statutes in this 103 section constitutes a general reference under the doctrine of 104 incorporation by reference.

105 Section 2. Subsection (6) of section 943.0582, Florida
106 Statutes, is amended to read:

107 943.0582 Prearrest, postarrest, or teen court diversion
108 program expunction.—

109 (6) Expunction or sealing granted under this section does
110 not prevent the minor who receives such relief from petitioning

111 for the expunction or sealing of a later criminal history record
112 as provided for in ss. 943.0585, ~~and~~ 943.059, and 943.0595 if 113 the minor is otherwise eligible under those sections.

114 Section 3. Paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of section
115 943.0585, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

116 943.0585 Court-ordered expunction of criminal history
117 records.—The courts of this state have jurisdiction over their 118 own procedures, including the maintenance, expunction, and
119 correction of judicial records containing criminal history
120 information to the extent such procedures are not inconsistent
121 with the conditions, responsibilities, and duties established by
122 this section. Any court of competent jurisdiction may order a
123 criminal justice agency to expunge the criminal history record
124 of a minor or an adult who complies with the requirements of 125 this section. The court shall not order a criminal justice
126 agency to expunge a criminal history record until the person
127 seeking to expunge a criminal history record has applied for and 128 received a certificate of eligibility for expunction pursuant to
129 subsection (2). A criminal history record that relates to a
130 violation of s. 393.135, s. 394.4593, s. 787.025, chapter 794,
131 s. 796.03, s. 800.04, s. 810.14, s. 817.034, s. 825.1025, s.
132 827.071, chapter 839, s. 847.0133, s. 847.0135, s. 847.0145, s.
133 893.135, s. 916.1075, a violation enumerated in s. 907.041, or
134 any violation specified as a predicate offense for registration
135 as a sexual predator pursuant to s. 775.21, without regard to 136 whether that offense alone is sufficient to require such 137 registration, or for registration as a sexual offender pursuant 138 to s. 943.0435, may not be expunged, without regard to whether

139 adjudication was withheld, if the defendant was found guilty of 140 or pled guilty or nolo contendere to the offense, or if the
 141 defendant, as a minor, was found to have committed, or pled
 142 guilty or nolo contendere to committing, the offense as a
 143 delinquent act. The court may only order expunction of a
 144 criminal history record pertaining to one arrest or one incident
 145 of alleged criminal activity, except as provided in this
 146 section. The court may, at its sole discretion, order the 147 expunction of a criminal history record pertaining to more than 148 one arrest if the additional arrests directly relate to the 149 original arrest. If the court intends to order the expunction of 150 records pertaining to such additional arrests, such intent must 151 be specified in the order. A criminal justice agency may not 152 expunge any record pertaining to such additional arrests if the 153 order to expunge does not articulate the intention of the court
 154 to expunge a record pertaining to more than one arrest. This
 155 section does not prevent the court from ordering the expunction
 156 of only a portion of a criminal history record pertaining to one
 157 arrest or one incident of alleged criminal activity.
 158 Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a criminal justice
 159 agency may comply with laws, court orders, and official requests
 160 of other jurisdictions relating to expunction, correction, or
 161 confidential handling of criminal history records or information
 162 derived therefrom. This section does not confer any right to the 163 expunction of any criminal history record, and any request for 164 expunction of a criminal history record may be denied at the 165 sole discretion of the court.

166 (4) EFFECT OF CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD EXPUNCTION.—Any

167 criminal history record of a minor or an adult which is ordered
168 expunged by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to this 169 section must be physically destroyed or obliterated by any 170 criminal justice agency having custody of such record; except 171 that any criminal history record in the custody of the 172 department must be retained in all cases. A criminal history
173 record ordered expunged that is retained by the department is 174 confidential and exempt from the provisions of s. 119.07(1) and 175 s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution and not available to 176 any person or entity except upon order of a court of competent
177 jurisdiction. A criminal justice agency may retain a notation
178 indicating compliance with an order to expunge.

179 (a) The person who is the subject of a criminal history
180 record that is expunged under this section or under other
181 provisions of law, including former s. 893.14, former s. 901.33,
182 and former s. 943.058, may lawfully deny or fail to acknowledge 183 the arrests covered by the expunged record, except when the 184 subject of the record:

- 185 1. Is a candidate for employment with a criminal justice
186 agency;
- 187 2. Is a defendant in a criminal prosecution;
- 188 3. Concurrently or subsequently petitions for relief under 189 this section, ~~or~~ s. 943.059, or s. 943.0595;
- 190 4. Is a candidate for admission to The Florida Bar;
- 191 5. Is seeking to be employed or licensed by or to contract
192 with the Department of Children and Family Services, the Agency
193 for Health Care Administration, the Agency for Persons with
194 Disabilities, or the Department of Juvenile Justice or to be

195 employed or used by such contractor or licensee in a sensitive
 196 position having direct contact with children, the 197 developmentally disabled, the aged, or the elderly as provided
 198 in s. 110.1127(3), s. 393.063, s. 394.4572(1), s. 397.451, s.
 199 402.302(3), s. 402.313(3), s. 409.175(2)(i), s. 415.102(4),
 200 chapter 916, s. 985.644, chapter 400, or chapter 429;

201 6. Is seeking to be employed or licensed by the Department
 202 of Education, any district school board, any university
 203 laboratory school, any charter school, any private or parochial 204 school, or any local governmental entity that licenses child
 205 care facilities; or

206 7. Is seeking authorization from a seaport listed in s.
 207 311.09 for employment within or access to one or more of such 208 seaports pursuant to s. 311.12.

209 Section 4. Paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of section
 210 943.059, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

211 943.059 Court-ordered sealing of criminal history
 212 records.—The courts of this state shall continue to have 213 jurisdiction over their own procedures, including the
 214 maintenance, sealing, and correction of judicial records
 215 containing criminal history information to the extent such
 216 procedures are not inconsistent with the conditions,
 217 responsibilities, and duties established by this section. Any
 218 court of competent jurisdiction may order a criminal justice
 219 agency to seal the criminal history record of a minor or an 220 adult who complies with the requirements of this section. The 221 court shall not order a criminal justice agency to seal a
 222 criminal history record until the person seeking to seal a

223 criminal history record has applied for and received a
224 certificate of eligibility for sealing pursuant to subsection
225 (2). A criminal history record that relates to a violation of s.
226 393.135, s. 394.4593, s. 787.025, chapter 794, s. 796.03, s.
227 800.04, s. 810.14, s. 817.034, s. 825.1025, s. 827.071, chapter
228 839, s. 847.0133, s. 847.0135, s. 847.0145, s. 893.135, s.
229 916.1075, a violation enumerated in s. 907.041, or any violation
230 specified as a predicate offense for registration as a sexual
231 predator pursuant to s. 775.21, without regard to whether that 232 offense alone is sufficient to require such registration, or for 233 registration as a sexual offender pursuant to s. 943.0435, may 234 not be sealed, without regard to whether adjudication was 235 withheld, if the defendant was found guilty of or pled guilty or
236 nolo contendere to the offense, or if the defendant, as a minor,
237 was found to have committed or pled guilty or nolo contendere to 238 committing the offense as a delinquent act. The court may only
239 order sealing of a criminal history record pertaining to one
240 arrest or one incident of alleged criminal activity, except as 241 provided in this section. The court may, at its sole discretion,
242 order the sealing of a criminal history record pertaining to 243 more than one arrest if the additional arrests directly relate
244 to the original arrest. If the court intends to order the 245 sealing of records pertaining to such additional arrests, such
246 intent must be specified in the order. A criminal justice agency
247 may not seal any record pertaining to such additional arrests if
248 the order to seal does not articulate the intention of the court
249 to seal records pertaining to more than one arrest. This section
250 does not prevent the court from ordering the sealing of only a

251 | portion of a criminal history record pertaining to one arrest or
252 | one incident of alleged criminal activity. Notwithstanding any
253 | law to the contrary, a criminal justice agency may comply with
254 | laws, court orders, and official requests of other jurisdictions
255 | relating to sealing, correction, or confidential handling of
256 | criminal history records or information derived therefrom. This
257 | section does not confer any right to the sealing of any criminal
258 | history record, and any request for sealing a criminal history
259 | record may be denied at the sole discretion of the court.

260 | (4) EFFECT OF CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD SEALING.—A criminal
261 | history record of a minor or an adult which is ordered sealed by
262 | a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to this section is
263 | confidential and exempt from the provisions of s. 119.07(1) and
264 | s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution and is available only
265 | to the person who is the subject of the record, to the subject's
266 | attorney, to criminal justice agencies for their respective
267 | criminal justice purposes, which include conducting a criminal
268 | history background check for approval of firearms purchases or
269 | transfers as authorized by state or federal law, to judges in
270 | the state courts system for the purpose of assisting them in
271 | their case-related decisionmaking responsibilities, as set forth
272 | in s. 943.053(5), or to those entities set forth in
273 | subparagraphs (a)1., 4., 5., 6., and 8. for their respective
274 | licensing, access authorization, and employment purposes.

275 | (a) The subject of a criminal history record sealed under
276 | this section or under other provisions of law, including former
277 | s. 893.14, former s. 901.33, and former s. 943.058, may lawfully

278 deny or fail to acknowledge the arrests covered by the sealed
 279 record, except when the subject of the record:
 280 1. Is a candidate for employment with a criminal justice
 281 agency;
 282 2. Is a defendant in a criminal prosecution;
 283 3. Concurrently or subsequently petitions for relief under
 284 this section, ~~or~~ s. 943.0585, or s. 943.0595;
 285 4. Is a candidate for admission to The Florida Bar;
 286 5. Is seeking to be employed or licensed by or to contract
 287 with the Department of Children and Family Services, the Agency
 288 for Health Care Administration, the Agency for Persons with
 289 Disabilities, or the Department of Juvenile Justice or to be
 290 employed or used by such contractor or licensee in a sensitive
 291 position having direct contact with children, the
 292 developmentally disabled, the aged, or the elderly as provided
 293 in s. 110.1127(3), s. 393.063, s. 394.4572(1), s. 397.451, s.
 294 402.302(3), s. 402.313(3), s. 409.175(2)(i), s. 415.102(4), s.
 295 415.103, chapter 916, s. 985.644, chapter 400, or chapter 429;
 296 6. Is seeking to be employed or licensed by the Department
 297 of Education, any district school board, any university
 298 laboratory school, any charter school, any private or parochial
 299 school, or any local governmental entity that licenses child
 300 care facilities;
 301 7. Is attempting to purchase a firearm from a licensed
 302 importer, licensed manufacturer, or licensed dealer and is 303 subject to a criminal history check under state or federal law;
 304 or

305 8. Is seeking authorization from a Florida seaport
 306 identified in s. 311.09 for employment within or access to one
 307 or more of such seaports pursuant to s. 311.12.

308 Section 5. Paragraph (b) of subsection (6) of section
 309 948.08, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

310 948.08 Pretrial intervention program.—

311 (6)

312 (b) While enrolled in a pretrial intervention program
 313 authorized by this subsection, the participant is subject to a
 314 coordinated strategy developed by a drug court team under s.
 315 397.334(4). The coordinated strategy may include a protocol of 316 sanctions that may be imposed upon the participant for 317 noncompliance with program rules. The protocol of sanctions may
 318 include, but is not limited to, placement in a substance abuse
 319 treatment program offered by a licensed service provider as 320 defined in s. 397.311 or in a jail-based treatment program or
 321 serving a period of incarceration within the time limits
 322 established for contempt of court. The coordinated strategy must 323 be provided in writing to the participant before the participant
 324 agrees to enter into a pretrial treatment-based drug court
 325 program or other pretrial intervention program. Any person whose 326 charges are dismissed after successful completion of the
 327 treatment-based drug court program, if otherwise eligible, may 328 have his or her arrest record and plea of nolo contendere to the 329 dismissed charges expunged under s. 943.0585 or s. 943.0595.

330 Section 6. Paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section
 331 948.16, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

332 948.16 Misdemeanor pretrial substance abuse education and 333 treatment intervention program.—

334 (1)

335 (b) While enrolled in a pretrial intervention program
 336 authorized by this section, the participant is subject to a
 337 coordinated strategy developed by a drug court team under s.
 338 397.334(4). The coordinated strategy may include a protocol of 339 sanctions that may be imposed upon the participant for
 340 noncompliance with program rules. The protocol of sanctions may
 341 include, but is not limited to, placement in a substance abuse
 342 treatment program offered by a licensed service provider as 343 defined in s. 397.311 or in a jail-based treatment program or
 344 serving a period of incarceration within the time limits
 345 established for contempt of court. The coordinated strategy must 346 be provided in writing to the participant before the participant
 347 agrees to enter into a pretrial treatment-based drug court
 348 program or other pretrial intervention program. Any person whose 349 charges are dismissed after successful completion of the
 350 treatment-based drug court program, if otherwise eligible, may 351 have his or her arrest record and plea of nolo contendere to the 352 dismissed charges expunged under s. 943.0585 or s. 943.0595.

353 Section 7. Paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of section
 354 961.06, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

355 961.06 Compensation for wrongful incarceration.—

356 (1) Except as otherwise provided in this act and subject
 357 to the limitations and procedures prescribed in this section, a 358 person who is found to be entitled to compensation under the 359 provisions of this act is entitled to:

360 (e) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in s.
 361 943.0585 or s. 943.0595, immediate administrative expunction of 362 the person's criminal record resulting from his or her wrongful 363 arrest, wrongful conviction, and wrongful incarceration. The 364 Department of Legal Affairs and the Department of Law
 365 Enforcement shall, upon a determination that a claimant is 366 entitled to compensation, immediately take all action necessary
 367 to administratively expunge the claimant's criminal record
 368 arising from his or her wrongful arrest, wrongful conviction,
 369 and wrongful incarceration. All fees for this process shall be 370 waived.

 372 The total compensation awarded under paragraphs (a), (c), and 373 (d) may not exceed $2 million. No further award for attorney's 374 fees, lobbying fees, costs, or other similar expenses shall be 375 made by the state.

376 Section 8. Subsection (2) of section 985.345, Florida
 377 Statutes, is amended to read:

378 985.345 Delinquency pretrial intervention program.—

379 (2) While enrolled in a delinquency pretrial intervention
 380 program authorized by this section, a child is subject to a
 381 coordinated strategy developed by a drug court team under s.
 382 397.334(4). The coordinated strategy may include a protocol of 383 sanctions that may be imposed upon the child for noncompliance
 384 with program rules. The protocol of sanctions may include, but 385 is not limited to, placement in a substance abuse treatment
 386 program offered by a licensed service provider as defined in s.
 387 397.311 or serving a period of secure detention under this

388 chapter. The coordinated strategy must be provided in writing to 389 the child before the child agrees to enter the pretrial
390 treatment-based drug court program or other pretrial

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

HB 761 removes requirements that state attorneys document in the case file why a defendant did not receive the minimum mandatory sentence pursuant to various criminal statutes and report to the Legislature and Governor about such deviations. Specifically, the bill:

- Removes the requirement that state attorneys document in the case file why a defendant did not receive the minimum mandatory sentence pursuant to the "10-20-Life" statute and eliminates the requirement that state attorneys submit an annual report to the Speaker, the President of the Senate, and the Executive Office of the Governor regarding the prosecution and sentencing of defendants pursuant to that statute;
- Removes the requirement that state attorneys document in the case file why certain prison releasee reoffenders did not receive the minimum mandatory sentence and report such information to the Florida Prosecuting Attorneys Association;
- Repeals a statute requiring state attorneys to adopt uniform criteria when deciding to pursue habitual felony offender, habitual violent felony offender, or violent career criminal sanctions and to report such criteria to the Florida Prosecuting Attorneys Association; and
- Repeals a statute require state attorneys to develop written policies and guidelines to govern determinations for filing an information on a juvenile and submit those guidelines to the Speaker, Executive Office of the Governor, and the President of the Senate.

Current law requires the clerks of court to withhold sufficient funds to pay unpaid court fees, court costs, and criminal penalties from the return of a cash bond posted on behalf of a defendant. The bill requires clerks of the court to withhold costs of prosecution in addition to the other costs and penalties.

Current law provides that persons convicted of crimes or found to have violated probation or community control are liable for the costs of prosecution. This bill provides that persons whose cases are disposed of by diversionary alternatives are also liable for costs of prosecution. The bill requires that costs of prosecution be assessed in each case number before the court.

The bill requires a person seeking to have a criminal history record expunged or sealed to pay a $75 processing fee to the state attorney.

This bill may have a positive fiscal impact and becomes effective on July 1, 2010. See "Fiscal Analysis."

HOUSE PRINCIPLES

Members are encouraged to evaluate proposed legislation in light of the following guiding principles of the House of Representatives

- Balance the state budget.
- Create a legal and regulatory environment that fosters economic growth and job creation.
- Lower the tax burden on families and businesses.
- Reverse or restrain the growth of government.
- Promote public safety.
- Promote educational accountability, excellence, and choice.
- Foster respect for the family and for innocent human life.
- Protect Florida's natural beauty.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Changes in Requirements Relating to Reports Created by State Attorneys

Current law requires the state attorneys to create reports for the Legislature and the governor relating to deviations from minimum mandatory sentences in certain habitual offender, releasee reoffender, and firearm statutes. The state attorneys are also required to establish procedures when juveniles can be prosecuted as adults. This bill repeals or modifies some of these requirements.

Section 775.087, Florida Statutes, contains mandatory minimum sentences when a criminal possesses or uses a firearm during the commission of certain crimes.¹ Section 27.366, Florida Statutes, requires the state attorneys to explain in writing each case where an offender qualifies for enhanced sentencing under section 775.087 but does not receive the minimum mandatory sentence. A similar requirement that the state attorney create memoranda to explain why an offender did not receive the minimum mandatory sentence is also contained in subsection 775.087(5), Florida Statutes. The state attorney must supply copies of these memoranda to the Florida Prosecuting Attorneys Association ("Association"). This bill eliminates the requirement that the state attorney create the memoranda and file them with the Association.

Section 27.366, Florida Statutes, also requires the state attorneys to prepare a report relating to age, gender, race, and ethnicity of offenders who met the criteria in sections 775.087(2) and 775.087(3) and supply that report to the Speaker, the President of the Senate, and the Executive Office of the Governor. This bill eliminates the requirement that this report be prepared and filed. Representatives of the Association have stated that such information will continue to be available but the bill will eliminate the necessity of yearly reports.²

Subsection 775.082(9), Florida Statutes, provides for enhanced sentencing for prison releasee reoffenders³, including minimum mandatory sentences. Paragraph 775.082(9)(d) requires the state attorney to place memoranda in the files of cases where an offender meets the criteria to be sentenced as a prison releasee reoffender but does not receive the minimum mandatory sentence and provide copies of the memoranda to the Florida Prosecuting Attorneys Association. This bill eliminates the requirement that the state attorney create the memoranda and file them with the Association.

¹ This provision is commonly known as the "10-20-Life" law.

² Interview with staff of the Public Safety and Domestic Security Policy Committee, March 9, 2010.

³ Persons who commit specified crimes within 3 years of being released from prison.

Section 775.08401, Florida Statutes, requires the state attorneys to adopt criteria to determine when to pursue habitual felony offender sanctions, habitual violent felony offender sanctions, and violent career criminal sanctions and report these criteria to the Association. Deviations from the criteria must be documented by the state attorney. This bill repeals section 775.08401.

Subsection 985.557(4), Florida Statutes, requires a state attorney to develop written policies to govern determinations for filing an information on a juvenile and submit those policies to the Speaker, the President of the Senate, and the Executive Office of the Governor each year. This bill repeals subsection 985.557(4), Florida Statutes.

Collection of Costs of Prosecution

Section 903.286, Florida Statutes, requires the clerk of the court to withhold funds to cover unpaid court fees, court costs, and criminal penalties from the return of a cash bond posted on behalf of a criminal defendant by persons other than bail bond agents. This bill requires the clerk to withhold costs of prosecution in addition to the other costs and fees.

This bill requires the clerk of the court to separately record each assessment and each payment of the costs of prosecution. The clerk of the court must provide monthly reports to the state attorney's office of the assessments and payments recorded.

Persons convicted of crimes or found to have violated probation or community control are liable for payment of the costs of prosecution pursuant to section 938.27, Florida Statutes. Costs include investigative costs incurred by law enforcement agencies, by fire departments, and by investigations by the Department of Financial Services and the Office of Financial Regulation.⁴ This bill makes persons whose cases are disposed of through diversionary alternatives to prosecution liable for costs as well. It requires the clerk of the court to assess costs in all cases before the court.

Sealing and Expunging Criminal History Records

Sections 943.0585 and 943.059, Florida Statutes, set forth procedures for sealing and expunging criminal history records. When a record is expunged, it is physically destroyed and no longer exists if it is in the custody of a criminal justice agency other than the Florida Department of Law Enforcement ("FDLE").⁵ When a record is sealed it is not destroyed, but access is limited to the subject of the record, his or her attorney, law enforcement agencies for their respective criminal justice purposes, and certain other specified agencies for their respective licensing and employment purposes.⁶ Records that have been sealed or expunged are confidential and exempt from the public records law in many circumstances.⁷

Persons who have had their criminal history records sealed or expunged may lawfully deny or fail to acknowledge the arrests covered by their record, except when they are applying for certain types of employment, petitioning the court for a record sealing or expunction, or are a defendant in a criminal prosecution.⁸

In order to obtain seal or expunge criminal history records, a person must obtain a certificate of eligibility from the FDLE and file a petition with the court. It currently costs $75 to obtain a certificate of eligibility from the FDLE. This bill would require persons seeking to seal or expunge criminal history records to pay an additional $75 to the state attorney's grants and donations trust fund unless the fee is waived by the state attorney.

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2010.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

The bill provides that each person filing to have a criminal history record sealed or expunged pay a $75 fee to the state attorney for deposit in the state attorney's grants and donations fund unless the fee is waived by the state attorney. In FY 2008-2009, the court processed 14,851 petitions to seal or expunge criminal history records.⁹ If a $75 fee were imposed, this would have generated $1,113,825 for the grants and donations trust fund.

The bill provides that persons whose cases are disposed of under diversionary alternatives would be assessed costs of prosecution. The amount of revenue generated by this change is not known.

2. Expenditures:

None.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

None.

⁹ Information provided by the FDLE (on file with the Committee on Public Safety and Domestic Security).

2. Expenditures:

None.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

Persons seeking to have criminal records sealed or expunged will have to pay an additional $75 fee unless the fee is waived by the state attorney.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

The bill would relieve the state attorneys of duties relating to preparing reports and documenting some charging and sentencing information in the file. The fiscal impact, if any, of this change is not known.

The bill requires that costs of prosecution be assessed in all cases before the court. It is not known how much revenue this provision would generate.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

This bill does not appear to require counties or municipalities to take an action requiring the expenditure of funds, reduce the authority that counties or municipalities have to raise revenue in the aggregate, nor reduce the percentage of state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

2. Other:

None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

None.

48 27.366 Legislative intent and policy in cases meeting
 49 criteria of s. 775.087(2) and (3), ~~report.~~-

50 ~~(1)~~ It is the intent of the Legislature that convicted 51 criminal offenders who meet the criteria in s. 775.087(2) and 52 (3) be sentenced to the minimum mandatory prison terms provided
 53 therein ~~herein~~. It is the intent of the Legislature to establish 54 zero tolerance of criminals who use, threaten to use, or avail
 55 themselves of firearms in order to commit crimes and thereby
 56 demonstrate their lack of value for human life. It is also the

86 (9)

87 (d)~~1~~. It is the intent of the Legislature that offenders
88 previously released from prison who meet the criteria in 89 paragraph (a) be punished to the fullest extent of the law and 90 as provided in this subsection, unless the state attorney
91 determines that extenuating circumstances exist which preclude 92 the just prosecution of the offender, including whether the 93 victim recommends that the offender not be sentenced as provided
94 in this subsection.

95 ~~2. For every case in which the offender meets the criteria~~

106 Section 3. Section 775.08401, Florida Statutes, is 107 repealed.

108 Section 4. Subsection (5) of section 775.087, Florida
109 Statutes, is repealed.

110 Section 5. Subsection (1) of section 903.286, Florida
111 Statutes, is amended to read:

112 903.286 Return of cash bond; requirement to withhold

113 unpaid fines, fees, court costs; cash bond forms.—

114 (1) Notwithstanding s. 903.31(2), the clerk of the court
 115 shall withhold from the return of a cash bond posted on behalf
 116 of a criminal defendant by a person other than a bail bond agent
 117 licensed pursuant to chapter 648 sufficient funds to pay any 118 unpaid court fees, court costs, costs of prosecution, and 119 criminal penalties. If sufficient funds are not available to pay
 120 all unpaid court fees, court costs, costs of prosecution, and 121 criminal penalties, the clerk of the court shall immediately
 122 obtain payment from the defendant or enroll the defendant in a
 123 payment plan pursuant to s. 28.246.

124 Section 6. Section 938.27, Florida Statutes, is amended to 125 read:

126 938.27 Judgment for costs on conviction and disposition.—

127 (1) In all criminal and violation-of-probation or 128 community-control cases, convicted persons and persons whose 129 cases are disposed of under any diversionary alternative are 130 liable for payment of the costs of prosecution, including 131 investigative costs incurred by law enforcement agencies, by 132 fire departments for arson investigations, and by investigations
 133 of the Department of Financial Services or the Office of 134 Financial Regulation of the Financial Services Commission, ~~if~~
 135 ~~requested by such agencies~~. The court shall include these costs
 136 in every judgment rendered against the convicted person. For 137 purposes of this section, "convicted" means a determination of 138 guilt, or of violation of probation or community control, which 139 is a result of a plea, trial, or violation proceeding,
 140 regardless of whether adjudication is withheld.

141 (2) (a) The court shall impose the costs of prosecution and 142 investigation notwithstanding the defendant's present ability to 143 pay. The court shall require the defendant to pay the costs
 144 within a specified period or in specified installments.

145 (b) The end of such period or the last such installment
 146 shall not be later than:

147 1. The end of the period of probation or community
 148 control, if probation or community control is ordered;

149 2. Five years after the end of the term of imprisonment
 150 imposed, if the court does not order probation or community
 151 control; or

152 3. Five years after the date of sentencing in any other 153 case.

 155 However, in no event shall the obligation to pay any unpaid
 156 amounts expire if not paid in full within the period specified
 157 in this paragraph.

158 (c) If not otherwise provided by the court under this 159 section, costs shall be paid immediately.

160 (3) If a defendant is placed on probation or community
 161 control, payment of any costs under this section shall be a
 162 condition of such probation or community control. The court may 163 revoke probation or community control if the defendant fails to 164 pay these costs.

165 (4) Any dispute as to the proper amount or type of costs
 166 shall be resolved by the court by the preponderance of the 167 evidence. The burden of demonstrating the amount of costs
 168 incurred is on the state attorney. ~~The burden of demonstrating~~

169 ~~the financial resources of the defendant and the financial needs~~
170 ~~of the defendant is on the defendant. The burden of~~ 171 ~~demonstrating such other matters as the court deems appropriate~~
172 ~~is upon the party designated by the court as justice requires.~~

173 (5) Any default in payment of costs may be collected by 174 any means authorized by law for enforcement of a judgment.

175 (6) The clerk of the court shall collect and dispense cost
176 payments in any case. The clerk of court shall separately record
177 each assessment and the payment of costs of prosecution. Costs
178 of prosecution must be assessed with respect to each case number
179 before the court. The clerk shall provide a monthly report to 180 the state attorney's office of the assessments and payments
181 recorded.

182 (7) Investigative costs that are recovered shall be 183 returned to the appropriate investigative agency that incurred
184 the expense. Such costs include actual expenses incurred in 185 conducting the investigation and prosecution of the criminal 186 case; however, costs may also include the salaries of permanent
187 employees. Any investigative costs recovered on behalf of a 188 state agency must be remitted to the Department of Revenue for 189 deposit in the agency operating trust fund, and a report of the 190 payment must be sent to the agency, except that any 191 investigative costs recovered on behalf of the Department of Law
192 Enforcement shall be deposited in the department's Forfeiture
193 and Investigative Support Trust Fund under s. 943.362.

194 (8) Costs for the state attorney shall be set in all cases
195 at no less than $50 per case when a misdemeanor or criminal
196 traffic offense is charged and no less than $100 per case when a

197 felony offense is charged, including a proceeding in which the 198 underlying offense is a violation of probation or community
 199 control. The court may set a higher amount upon a showing of 200 sufficient proof of higher costs incurred. Costs recovered on 201 behalf of the state attorney under this section shall be
 202 deposited into the state attorney's grants and donations trust
 203 fund to be used during the fiscal year in which the funds are 204 collected, or in any subsequent fiscal year, for actual expenses
 205 incurred in investigating and prosecuting criminal cases, which 206 may include the salaries of permanent employees, or for any 207 other purpose authorized by the Legislature.

208 Section 7. Paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section
 209 943.0585, Florida Statutes, is amended, present paragraphs (c)
 210 through (h) of subsection (2) of that section are redesignated
 211 as paragraphs (d) through (i), respectively, a new paragraph (c)
 212 is added to that subsection, and present paragraph (f) of that 213 subsection is amended, to read:

214 943.0585 Court-ordered expunction of criminal history
 215 records.—The courts of this state have jurisdiction over their
 216 own procedures, including the maintenance, expunction, and
 217 correction of judicial records containing criminal history
 218 information to the extent such procedures are not inconsistent
 219 with the conditions, responsibilities, and duties established by
 220 this section. Any court of competent jurisdiction may order a
 221 criminal justice agency to expunge the criminal history record
 222 of a minor or an adult who complies with the requirements of
 223 this section. The court shall not order a criminal justice
 224 agency to expunge a criminal history record until the person

225 seeking to expunge a criminal history record has applied for and 226 received a certificate of eligibility for expunction pursuant to
227 subsection (2). A criminal history record that relates to a
228 violation of s. 393.135, s. 394.4593, s. 787.025, chapter 794,
229 s. 796.03, s. 800.04, s. 810.14, s. 817.034, s. 825.1025, s.
230 827.071, chapter 839, s. 847.0133, s. 847.0135, s. 847.0145, s.
231 893.135, s. 916.1075, a violation enumerated in s. 907.041, or
232 any violation specified as a predicate offense for registration
233 as a sexual predator pursuant to s. 775.21, without regard to 234 whether that offense alone is sufficient to require such 235 registration, or for registration as a sexual offender pursuant 236 to s. 943.0435, may not be expunged, without regard to whether 237 adjudication was withheld, if the defendant was found guilty of 238 or pled guilty or nolo contendere to the offense, or if the
239 defendant, as a minor, was found to have committed, or pled
240 guilty or nolo contendere to committing, the offense as a
241 delinquent act. The court may only order expunction of a
242 criminal history record pertaining to one arrest or one incident
243 of alleged criminal activity, except as provided in this
244 section. The court may, at its sole discretion, order the 245 expunction of a criminal history record pertaining to more than 246 one arrest if the additional arrests directly relate to the 247 original arrest. If the court intends to order the expunction of 248 records pertaining to such additional arrests, such intent must 249 be specified in the order. A criminal justice agency may not
250 expunge any record pertaining to such additional arrests if the 251 order to expunge does not articulate the intention of the court
252 to expunge a record pertaining to more than one arrest. This

253 section does not prevent the court from ordering the expunction
 254 of only a portion of a criminal history record pertaining to one
 255 arrest or one incident of alleged criminal activity.

256 Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a criminal justice
 257 agency may comply with laws, court orders, and official requests
 258 of other jurisdictions relating to expunction, correction, or
 259 confidential handling of criminal history records or information
 260 derived therefrom. This section does not confer any right to the 261 expunction of any criminal history record, and any request for 262 expunction of a criminal history record may be denied at the
 263 sole discretion of the court.

264 (1) PETITION TO EXPUNGE A CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD.—Each
 265 petition to a court to expunge a criminal history record is 266 complete only when accompanied by:

267 (b) The petitioner's sworn statement attesting that the 268 petitioner:

269 1. Has never, prior to the date on which the petition is 270 filed, been adjudicated guilty of a criminal offense or 271 comparable ordinance violation, or been adjudicated delinquent
 272 for committing any felony or a misdemeanor specified in s.
 273 943.051(3)(b).

274 2. Has not been adjudicated guilty of, or adjudicated
 275 delinquent for committing, any of the acts stemming from the 276 arrest or alleged criminal activity to which the petition
 277 pertains.

278 3. Has never secured a prior sealing or expunction of a
 279 criminal history record under this section, former s. 893.14,
 280 former s. 901.33, or former s. 943.058, or from any jurisdiction

281 outside the state, unless expunction is sought of a criminal 282 history record previously sealed for 10 years pursuant to 283 paragraph (2) (i) ~~(h)~~ and the record is otherwise eligible for 284 expunction.

285 4. Is eligible for such an expunction to the best of his 286 or her knowledge or belief and does not have any other petition
287 to expunge or any petition to seal pending before any court.

288

289 Any person who knowingly provides false information on such 290 sworn statement to the court commits a felony of the third
291 degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s.
292 775.084.

293 (2) CERTIFICATE OF ELIGIBILITY FOR EXPUNCTION.—Prior to 294 petitioning the court to expunge a criminal history record, a
295 person seeking to expunge a criminal history record shall apply
296 to the department for a certificate of eligibility for 297 expunction. The department shall, by rule adopted pursuant to 298 chapter 120, establish procedures pertaining to the application
299 for and issuance of certificates of eligibility for expunction.
300 A certificate of eligibility for expunction is valid for 12
301 months after the date stamped on the certificate when issued by 302 the department. After that time, the petitioner must reapply to 303 the department for a new certificate of eligibility. Eligibility 304 for a renewed certification of eligibility must be based on the 305 status of the applicant and the law in effect at the time of the 306 renewal application. The department shall issue a certificate of 307 eligibility for expunction to a person who is the subject of a
308 criminal history record if that person:

312 attorney.

313 (g) ~~(f)~~ Has never secured a prior sealing or expunction of 314 a criminal history record under this section, former s. 893.14, 315 former s. 901.33, or former s. 943.058, unless expunction is 316 sought of a criminal history record previously sealed for 10
317 years pursuant to paragraph (i) ~~(h)~~ and the record is otherwise
318 eligible for expunction.

319 Section 8. Present paragraphs (c) through (f) of 320 subsection (2) of section 943.059, Florida Statutes, are 321 redesignated as paragraphs (d) through (g), respectively, and a
322 new paragraph (c) is added to that subsection, to read:

323 943.059 Court-ordered sealing of criminal history
324 records.—The courts of this state shall continue to have
325 jurisdiction over their own procedures, including the
326 maintenance, sealing, and correction of judicial records
327 containing criminal history information to the extent such
328 procedures are not inconsistent with the conditions,
329 responsibilities, and duties established by this section. Any
330 court of competent jurisdiction may order a criminal justice
331 agency to seal the criminal history record of a minor or an 332 adult who complies with the requirements of this section. The
333 court shall not order a criminal justice agency to seal a
334 criminal history record until the person seeking to seal a
335 criminal history record has applied for and received a
336 certificate of eligibility for sealing pursuant to subsection

337 (2). A criminal history record that relates to a violation of s.

341 916.1075, a violation enumerated in s. 907.041, or any violation
342 specified as a predicate offense for registration as a sexual
343 predator pursuant to s. 775.21, without regard to whether that 344 offense alone is sufficient to require such registration, or for 345 registration as a sexual offender pursuant to s. 943.0435, may 346 not be sealed, without regard to whether adjudication was 347 withheld, if the defendant was found guilty of or pled guilty or 348 nolo contendere to the offense, or if the defendant, as a minor,
349 was found to have committed or pled guilty or nolo contendere to 350 committing the offense as a delinquent act. The court may only
351 order sealing of a criminal history record pertaining to one
352 arrest or one incident of alleged criminal activity, except as 353 provided in this section. The court may, at its sole discretion,
354 order the sealing of a criminal history record pertaining to
355 more than one arrest if the additional arrests directly relate
356 to the original arrest. If the court intends to order the 357 sealing of records pertaining to such additional arrests, such
358 intent must be specified in the order. A criminal justice agency
359 may not seal any record pertaining to such additional arrests if 360 the order to seal does not articulate the intention of the court
361 to seal records pertaining to more than one arrest. This section
362 does not prevent the court from ordering the sealing of only a
363 portion of a criminal history record pertaining to one arrest or 364 one incident of alleged criminal activity. Notwithstanding any

HB 761

365 law to the contrary, a criminal justice agency may comply with
366 laws, court orders, and official requests of other jurisdictions
367 relating to sealing, correction, or confidential handling of 368 criminal history records or information derived therefrom. This 369 section does not confer any right to the sealing of any criminal
370 history record, and any request for sealing a criminal history
371 record may be denied at the sole discretion of the court.

372 (2) CERTIFICATE OF ELIGIBILITY FOR SEALING.—Prior to 373 petitioning the court to seal a criminal history record, a
374 person seeking to seal a criminal history record shall apply to 375 the department for a certificate of eligibility for sealing. The 376 department shall, by rule adopted pursuant to chapter 120,
377 establish procedures pertaining to the application for and 378 issuance of certificates of eligibility for sealing. A
379 certificate of eligibility for sealing is valid for 12 months
380 after the date stamped on the certificate when issued by the 381 department. After that time, the petitioner must reapply to the 382 department for a new certificate of eligibility. Eligibility for 383 a renewed certification of eligibility must be based on the
384 status of the applicant and the law in effect at the time of the
385 renewal application. The department shall issue a certificate of 386 eligibility for sealing to a person who is the subject of a
387 criminal history record provided that such person:

388 (c) Remits a $75 processing fee to the state attorney's 389 office to be deposited into the state attorney's grants and

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

HB 1289 defines "proceeds" in statutes relating to RICO, money services businesses, and money laundering. This bill defines "proceeds" to include gross receipts from a criminal enterprise. This definition mirrors the definition in federal law.

This bill amends statutes relating to RICO, money services businesses, and money laundering to remove the requirement that violations of those statutes occur over a 12 month period and allows prosecutors to make charging decisions based on a longer or shorter period of criminal conduct. It permits the values of separate transactions to be aggregated in determine the offense level if the transactions were committed pursuant to one scheme or course of conduct.

This bill amends 896.101(10), Florida Statutes, to allow financial institutions, licensed money services businesses, employees or officers of a financial institution or licensed money services business, or any other person to provide information about the existence and contents of the subpoena and the investigation to the attorney consulted by the person or entity whose testimony is sought. It provides for a $5,000 fine for each violation of the provision.

The bill creates a criminal forfeiture provision in the state RICO statute. Current law allows for a separate civil forfeiture proceeding but does not create a mechanism for the forfeiture proceeding to occur within the criminal case. Creating a criminal forfeiture procedure within the RICO statute will allow the forfeiture proceeding to be tried at the same time as the criminal case. This will help prevent issues involving discovery and self-incrimination that can arise if the forfeiture case is a separate proceeding. The language in the criminal forfeiture section of this bill substantially mirrors federal law.

The fiscal impact is not known. This bill might have a positive fiscal impact if it leads to more forfeitures in criminal RICO cases.

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2010.

HOUSE PRINCIPLES

Members are encouraged to evaluate proposed legislation in light of the following guiding principles of the House of Representatives

- Balance the state budget.
- Create a legal and regulatory environment that fosters economic growth and job creation.
- Lower the tax burden on families and businesses.
- Reverse or restrain the growth of government.
- Promote public safety.
- Promote educational accountability, excellence, and choice.
- Foster respect for the family and for innocent human life.
- Protect Florida's natural beauty.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

This bill makes changes to statutes related to money services and money laundering to enable law enforcement to more effectively prosecute money laundering and RICO offenses in response to a decision from the United States Supreme Court. The bill modifies the penalty provisions so that increased penalties can be imposed on persons that violate the statutes. The bill prohibits certain financial institutions from notifying customers when the customers' financial information has been requested by law enforcement subpoena. Finally, the bill creates mechanism for forfeiture of assets in criminal RICO cases that tracks a federal criminal forfeiture statute.

Defining the Term "Proceeds"

Currently, Florida's money laundering act, Florida's statute relating to money services, and Florida's money laundering statute relating to financial institutions¹ use the term "proceeds" but do not define the term. For example, section 560.123, Florida Statutes, requires money services businesses² to maintain certain records³ to deter the use of a money service business to conceal the proceeds of criminal activity. Section 896.101, Florida Statutes, Florida's money laundering act, prohibits a person knowing that the proceeds represent some form of unlawful activity, from conducting a financial transaction with the intent of carrying on some unlawful activity. Although "proceeds" is used throughout statutes, it is not defined.

The failure by Congress to define "proceeds" in federal statutes led to litigation before the United States Supreme Court. At issue in that case was whether the term "proceeds" referred to the "gross receipts" from criminal activity or from the "profits" derived from criminal activity.

United States v. Santos

In United States v. Santos,⁴ the court dealt with the definition of word "proceeds" in the federal money laundering statute in a case related to an illegal gambling operation. From the 1970's until 1994,

³ Records that are required to be maintained include a record of each financial transaction which has a value of greater than $10,000.

⁴ 553 U.S. 507, 128 S.Ct. 2020 (2008). This analysis contains extensive quotations from the Santos opinions. In all such quotations, footnotes and internal citations are omitted.

Santos operated an illegal lottery and employed a number of workers to run the lottery.⁵ At bars and restaurants, Santos's runners gathered bets from gamblers, kept a portion of the bets as commissions, and delivered the rest to Santos's collectors.⁶ Collectors delivered the money to Santos, who used some of it to pay the salaries of collectors and to pay the winners.⁷ At trial, the government was required to prove that the "proceeds" of the illegal gambling operation were used to fund an illegal act and that Santos knew the "proceeds" used to fund an illegal act were obtained by some unlawful activity. Based on the payments to runners, collectors, and winners with "proceeds" of his gambling operation, Santos was prosecuted and ultimately found guilty of money laundering and other crimes.⁸ His initial appeals were unsuccessful but his federal habeas claim was ultimately heard by the Supreme Court.⁹

"Proceeds" was not defined in federal statute. The government argued that "proceeds" must mean "gross receipts." Otherwise, Justice Scalia summarized, the court will "disserve the purpose of the federal money-laundering statute," which is, the Government says, to penalize criminals who conceal or promote their illegal activities. On the Government's view, "[t]he gross receipts of a crime accurately reflect the scale of the criminal activity, because the illegal activity generated all of the funds."¹⁰

Santos argued that accepting the government's position would cause a "merger" problem.¹¹ That is, if "proceeds" meant "receipts," most violations of the illegal gambling statute would also be a violation of the money laundering statute because paying a winning bettor is a transaction involving receipts that the defendant intends to promote the carrying on of the lottery.¹² Justice Scalia continued:

Since few lotteries, if any, will not pay their winners, the statute criminalizing illegal lotteries would "merge" with the money-laundering statute. Congress evidently decided that lottery operators ordinarily deserve up to 5 years of imprisonment but as a result of merger they would face an additional 20 years.¹³

Justice Scalia, writing for the plurality¹⁴, argued that there was nothing in the statute to indicate whether "proceeds" meant "profits" or "gross receipts" so the statute was ambiguous. Justice Scalia argued that the rule of lenity required ambiguous criminal laws to be interpreted in favor of the defendants subjected to them ("Under a long line of our decisions, the tie must go to the defendant."¹⁵) so he argued that Congress must have intended "proceeds" to mean "profits" and not "gross receipts."

In dissent, Justice Alito argued that the Model Money Laundering Act and the fourteen states that defined "proceeds" did so as "gross receipts."¹⁶ He said that no state defined "proceeds" to mean "profits."

The federal money laundering statute is not the only money laundering provision that uses the term "proceeds." On the contrary, the term is a staple of money laundering laws, and it is instructive that in every single one of these provisions in which the term "proceeds" is defined—and there are many—the law specifies that "proceeds" means "the total amount brought in."

¹² 128 S.Ct. at 2026.

¹³ See 128 S.Ct. at 2026.

¹⁴ Justices Souter, Thomas, and Ginsburg joined the opinion. Justice Stevens concurred in the judgment but did not join the opinion so the Scalia opinion became the plurality opinion and the opinion by Justice Alito, joined by Chief Justice Roberts, Justice Kennedy, and Justice Breyer became the dissent.

¹⁵ See 128 S.Ct. at 2025.

¹⁶ 128 S.Ct. at 2037.

Fourteen States have money laundering statutes that define the term “proceeds,” and in every one of these laws the term is defined in a way that encompasses gross receipts.

This pattern of usage is revealing. It strongly suggests that when lawmakers, knowledgeable about the nature and problem of money laundering, use the term “proceeds” in a money laundering provision, they customarily mean for the term to reach all receipts and not just profits. There is a very good reason for this uniform pattern of usage. Money laundering provisions serve two chief ends. First, they provide deterrence by preventing drug traffickers and other criminals who amass large quantities of cash from using these funds “to support a luxurious lifestyle” or otherwise to enjoy the fruits of their crimes. Second, they inhibit the growth of criminal enterprises by preventing the use of dirty money to promote the enterprise’s growth. Both of these objectives are frustrated if a money laundering statute is limited to profits.¹⁷

Justice Alito rejected Justice Scalia’s “merger” problem by noting that it does not justify “hobbling a statute that applies to more than 250 predicate offenses”¹⁸ in order to reach the result reached in a gambling case.

Justice Stevens concurred in the judgment of Justice Scalia so “proceeds” was defined as “profits” for the limited purpose of the Santos case. Perhaps in anticipation of further litigation on other applications of the word “proceeds,” Congress enacted a statute to define “proceeds” as “gross receipts.” See Fraud Enforcement and Recovery Act of 2009, Public Law 111-21 § 2 (amending 18 USC § 1956).

Effect of the Bill

This bill defines “proceeds” in Florida’s money laundering act, Florida’s statute relating to money services, and Florida’s money laundering statute relating to financial institutions to mean “gross receipts” from the unlawful activity. Adopting a definition in statute could help Florida avoid the litigation on a state level that occurred in the Santos case. The definition proposed in this bill is the same definition recently codified in federal law. See Fraud Enforcement and Recovery Act of 2009, Public Law 111-21 § 2 (amending 18 USC § 1956).

Increased Penalties for Money Laundering and for Violations of the Money Services Statute

Chapter 560 of the Florida Statutes sets forth Florida's Money Transmitters' Code. A Florida court explained the purposes of chapter 560:

One of the purposes of this code, among others, is “[t]he deterrence of the use of money transmitters as a vehicle for money laundering.” § 560.102(2)(d), Fla. Stat. (1995). To further this goal, the code requires any money transmitter operating in the state to register with the Florida [Office of Financial Regulation]. See § 560.122, Fla. Stat. (1995). Operating as a money transmitter without registration is a [felony] and also exposes the offender to an administrative fine.¹⁹

Section 560.125, Florida Statutes, provides penalties for engaging in money services businesses without a license. The penalties are as follows:

If the violation involves currency or payment instruments in amounts greater than $300 but less than $20,000 in any 12 month period, it is punished as a third degree felony.

¹⁷ See 128 S.Ct. at 2036-2038.

¹⁸ 128 S.Ct. at 2044.

¹⁹ See In re Forfeiture of One Hundred Seventy-One Thousand Nine Hundred Dollars ($171,900) in United States Currency, 711 So.2d 1269, 1273 (Fla. 3rd DCA 1998).

If the violation involves currency or payment instruments in amounts greater than $20,000 but less than $100,000 in any 12 month period, it is punished as a second degree felony.

If the violation involves currency or payment instruments in amounts greater than $100,000 in any 12 month period, it is punished as a first degree felony.²⁰

In addition, persons who violate section 560.125 face additional criminal fines and administrative penalties of up to five times the value of the currency.²¹

Similar penalties are imposed for violations of the Florida Control of Money Laundering and Financial Institutions Act, section 655.50, Florida Statutes (the "Act"). The Act requires reporting of certain financial transactions. The reports are required to "deter the use of financial institutions to conceal the proceeds of criminal activity."²² The penalties are as follows:

If the violation involves financial transactions in amounts greater than $300 but less than $20,000 in any 12 month period, it is punished as a third degree felony.

If the violation involves financial transactions in amounts greater than $20,000 but less than $100,000 in any 12 month period, it is punished as a second degree felony.

If the violation involves financial transactions in amounts greater than $100,000 in any 12 month period, it is punished as a first degree felony.²³

Section 896.101, Florida Statutes, the Florida Money Laundering Act, provides penalties for making certain financial transactions while knowing that the property involved in the transaction represented proceeds from felony criminal activity. The penalties are as follows:

If the violation involves financial transactions in amounts less than $20,000 in any 12 month period, it is punished as a third degree felony.

If the violation involves financial transactions greater than $20,000 but less than $100,000 in any 12 month period, it is punished as a second degree felony.

If the violation involves financial transactions greater than $100,000 in any 12 month period, it is punished as a first degree felony.²⁴

Current law requires violations to be aggregated over a 12 month period. This has the effect of restricting charging decisions of prosecutors. Federal law does not contain such a restriction.

Effect of the Bill

This bill amends sections 560.125, 655.50, and 896.101, Florida Statutes, to remove the requirement that violations of those statutes occur over a 12 month period and allows prosecutors to make charging decisions based on a longer or shorter period of criminal conduct. It permits the values of separate transactions to be aggregated in determining the offense level if the transactions were committed pursuant to one scheme or course of conduct. The bill makes conforming changes to the offense severity ranking chart to reflect some renumbering.

Investigative Subpoenas

Section 16.56, Florida Statutes, gives the Statewide Prosecutor the power to issue subpoenas to aid in investigations. Section 27.04, Florida Statutes, gives the state attorney the power to subpoena witness appearances. Section 896.101(10), Florida Statutes, states, in relevant part:

If any subpoena issued under s. 16.56 or s. 27.04 contains a nondisclosure provision, any financial institution, licensed money services business, employee or officer of a financial institution or licensed money services business, or any other person may not notify, directly or indirectly, any customer of that financial institution or money services business whose records are being sought by the subpoena, or any other person named in the subpoena, about the existence or the contents of that subpoena or about information that has been furnished to the state attorney or statewide prosecutor who issued the subpoena or other law enforcement officer named in the subpoena in response to the subpoena.

Effect of the Bill

This bill amends 896.101(10), Florida Statutes, to allow financial institutions, licensed money services businesses, employees or officers of a financial institution or licensed money services business, or any other person to provide information about the existence and contents of the subpoena and the investigation to the attorney consulted by the person or entity whose testimony is sought. It provides for a $5,000 fine for each violation of the provision.

Criminal Forfeiture in RICO Cases

The bill creates a criminal forfeiture provision in the state RICO statute. Current law allows for a separate civil forfeiture proceeding but does not create a mechanism for the forfeiture proceeding to occur within the criminal case. Creating a criminal forfeiture procedure within the RICO statute will allow the forfeiture proceeding to be tried at the same time as the criminal case. This will help prevent issues involving discovery and self-incrimination that can arise if the forfeiture case is a separate proceeding.²⁵

The language in the criminal forfeiture section of this bill substantially mirrors 18 USC §1963.

The bill provides that chapter 895, Florida Statutes, should be construed liberally for the purpose of curtailing racketeering activity and controlled substance crimes and to lessen the economic power of criminal enterprises.

A discussion of the criminal forfeiture process created by this bill follows.

Notice to the Defendant

The bill amends section 923.03, Florida Statutes, to provide that a judgment of forfeiture cannot be entered in a criminal case unless the indictment or information provides notice that the defendant has an interest in the property that is subject to forfeiture.²⁶ The state must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the property is subject to forfeiture.²⁷

A Defendant's Property is Subject to Forfeiture Upon Conviction

The bill provides that when a defendant is convicted of a violation of the RICO statute, the defendant forfeits any interest the defendant has acquired or maintained in violation of the statute, any interest

²⁵ Telephone interviews with a representative of the Office of the Attorney General, March 11-12, 2010.

²⁶ In United States v. Musson, 802 F.2d 384 (10th Cir. 1986), the court held that notice by indictment satisfied due process.

²⁷ In United States v. Pellullo, 14 F.3d 881 (3rd Cir. 1994), the court held that the state's burden of proof in criminal RICO forfeiture statutes is beyond a reasonable doubt. The language of the statute at issue in Pellullo is identical to the bill's language.

providing a source of influence over any enterprise that the defendant has acquired in violation of the statute, or any property or proceeds derived from the unlawful activity. Any such interest or property is transferred to the state upon conviction. Property subject to forfeiture includes real and personal property.

The bill provides that all rights to the property subject to forfeiture vests with the state upon commission of the crime. If the defendant transfers the property to another person after commission of the crime but before conviction, the bill provides a procedure for that person to show that the property was purchased without knowledge that it was subject to forfeiture. Accordingly, the bill provides protection for an "innocent" purchaser while preventing a defendant from transferring property to a co-defendant to avoid forfeiture.

The bill gives the circuit courts the authority to enter orders related to forfeited property or property that is subject to forfeiture without regard to the location of the property.

Disposition of Forfeited Property

The bill defines "prosecuting authority" for purposes of chapter 895, Florida Statutes, as the Attorney General, any state attorney, or the statewide prosecutor. The bill authorizes the court to enter a judgment of forfeiture upon conviction of a defendant and authorize the prosecuting authority to seize the property. The court is authorized to enter appropriate orders to protect the state's interest. Once the property is seized, the bill authorizes the prosecuting authority to dispose of the property by sale or other means. The bill gives persons other than the defendant or persons acting in concert with the defendant the right to petition to stay the sale of property while any appeal is pending if the person can show that failure to enter a stay will result in irreparable harm.

The bill authorizes the prosecuting authority to grant petitions or remission of forfeiture, compromise claims that may arise regarding the property, award compensation to persons providing information resulting in forfeiture of property, and direct the disposition of property. This provision could allow the prosecuting authority to resolve third party claims without the necessity of the court hearing provided for by the bill.

The bill authorizes the Attorney General to adopt rules relating to notice, granting petitions for mitigation, sale of property, and the compromise of claims arising from forfeiture.

Procedure for Pretrial Seizure of Property

The bill provides a procedure for the state to petition the court to enter a restraining order²⁸ or injunction to preserve the availability of property subject to forfeiture. The state may move for an appropriate order either:

- (1) upon the filing of an indictment or information charging a violation of section 895.03(3), Florida Statutes.²⁹ The state must allege that the property is subject to forfeiture upon conviction; or
- (2) prior to the filing of such an indictment or information, if, after notice to persons appearing to have an interest in the property and opportunity for a hearing, the court determines that there is a substantial probability that the state will prevail on the issue of forfeiture and that failure to enter the order will result in the property being destroyed, removed from the jurisdiction of the court, or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture and the need to preserve the availability of the property through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship on any party against whom the ²⁸ In United States v. Musson, 802 F.2d 284 (10th Cir. 1986), the court noted that the Supreme Court has approved physical seizure of property on the basis of probable cause without a hearing. Accordingly, the court held, the entry of restrictions on transfer of property is constitutionally permissible.

²⁹ In Musson, 802 F.2d 384 (10th Cir. 1986), the court upheld the federal statute on which these provisions of bill are based against various constitutional challenges. The Musson court rejected claims that the defendant was entitled to an evidentiary hearing on a restraining order entered after an indictment was issued and that due process does not require such a hearing.

order is to be entered. A pre-indictment order is only effective for 90 days unless the court extends it for good cause.

The bill provides for a temporary restraining order without notice or a hearing when an information or indictment has not yet been filed with respect to the property and the state demonstrates that there is probable cause to believe that the property with respect to which the order is sought would, in the event of conviction, be subject to forfeiture under this section and that provision of notice will jeopardize the availability of the property for forfeiture.

A temporary order shall expire not more than 10 days after the date on which it is entered, unless extended for good cause. A hearing requested concerning an order must be held at the earliest possible time prior to the expiration of the temporary order. At such a hearing, the court may receive and consider evidence and information that would be inadmissible under the Florida Rules of Evidence.³⁰

Procedure for a Hearing to Allow Bona Fide Purchasers to Reclaim Forfeited Property

The bill provides a mechanism for a person other than the defendant to assert an interest in property that has been ordered forfeited to the state.^{31 32}

It requires the state to publish notice of the forfeiture order and of its intent to dispose of the property. The state may also provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in the property. A person may petition for a hearing within 30 days of publication or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier. The petition must be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim, and the relief sought.

The hearing is held before the court without a jury.³³ The hearing on the petition shall be held within 30 days (if practicable) after the filing of the petition. At the hearing, the state and the petitioner may present evidence and witnesses. In addition to testimony and evidence presented at the hearing, the court shall consider the relevant portions of the record of the criminal case which resulted in the order of forfeiture.

The petitioner must show either:

- (1) a legal right, title, or interest in the property and such right, title, or interest renders the order of forfeiture invalid in whole or in part because the right, title, or interest was vested in the petitioner or was superior to any right, title, or interest of the defendant at the time of the commission of the acts which gave rise to the forfeiture of the property under this section; or
- (2) that the petitioner is a bona fide purchaser for value of the right, title, or interest in the property and was at the time of purchase reasonably without cause to believe that the property was subject to forfeiture under this section.

If the petitioner makes the appropriate showing, the court must amend the forfeiture order. Once the court has disposed of all petitions or if no such petitions are filed, the state shall have clear title to

³¹ The defendant is permitted to assert his or her interest during the criminal trial proceedings.

³² The Musson court noted that the provisions for third party petitions addressed Musson's claim regarding limitations on his ability to sell his property. See Musson, 802 F.2d at 386.

³³ Libretti v. United States, 516 U.S. 29 (1995), holds that there is no Sixth Amendment right to a jury trial in a forfeiture determination.

property that is the subject of the order of forfeiture and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The bill prohibits parties claiming an interest in property subject to forfeiture from intervening in the trial or appeal of a criminal case or commence an action against the state concerning the validity of a property interest except as provided in the bill.

Assets if Property Subject to Forfeiture is Unavailable

If the property subject to forfeiture is unavailable because the homestead provisions of the Florida Constitution, because it cannot be located, because it has been sold or transferred to a third party, because it has been moved beyond the court's jurisdiction, or has been comingled with other property, the court must order forfeiture of other property up to the value of the unavailable property.

Discovery to Identify or Locate Property Subject to Forfeiture

The bill authorizes the court to enter orders compelling testimony regarding the identification or location of property ordered forfeited after the entry of an order declaring the property forfeited to the state.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

See "Fiscal Comments."

2. Expenditures:

See "Fiscal Comments."

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

None.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

None.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

The fiscal impact of the bill is not known. By expanding the definition of "proceeds," there is a possibility the state will be able to capture more proceeds generated through criminal activity. The amount cannot be determined at this time.

There is a potential for more revenue to the state by the use of criminal forfeiture in RICO cases. That amount, if any, is not known.

The provisions relating to criminal forfeiture will require an unknown number of hearings in circuit court. The costs of those additional hearings are not known.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

The bill does not appear to require counties or municipalities to spend funds or take any action requiring the expenditure of funds; reduce the authority that municipalities or counties have to raise revenue in the aggregate; or reduce the percentage of a state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

2. Other:

The substantive portion of this analysis notes constitutional issues that have been raised and rejected by various federal courts regarding the federal criminal forfeiture law on which the criminal forfeiture statutes are based. Specifically, courts have rejected claims relating to notice, the denial of the right to a jury trial, violation of the ex post facto clause³⁴, the right to a pre-indictment hearing, the burden of proof in a criminal forfeiture case, and the ability of a defendant to sell his property.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

The bill gives the Attorney General the authority to adopt rules relating to notice to persons who may have an interest in property ordered forfeited, granting petitions for remission or mitigation, the disposition of property forfeited to the state, and related matters.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

Lines 176-77 contain a reference to a hearing pursuant to subsection (1). No hearing is provided in subsection (1). The appropriate reference appears to be to the hearing provisions in subsection (12).

Line 349 contains a reference to subsection (1) that also appears to refer to subsection (12).

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Subsections (28) through (30) of section 560.103, Florida Statutes, are renumbered as subsections (29) through (31), respectively, and a new subsection (28) is added to that section to read:

560.103 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the term:
(28) "Proceeds" means any property derived from or obtained or retained, directly or indirectly, through some form of unlawful activity, including the gross receipts of such activity.

Section 2. Subsection (5) of section 560.125, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

560.125 Unlicensed activity; penalties.—

(5) (a) A person who violates this section, if the violation involves:

1.(a) Currency or payment instruments valued at more than ~~exceeding~~ $300 but less than $20,000 ~~in any 12-month period~~, commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

2.(b) Currency or payment instruments valued at totaling ~~or exceeding~~ $20,000 or more but less than $100,000 ~~in any 12-month period~~, commits a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

3.(c) Currency or payment instruments valued at totaling ~~or exceeding~~ $100,000 or more ~~in any 12-month period~~, commits a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s.

85 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

86 (b) Amounts of value of separate transactions committed
 87 pursuant to one scheme or course of conduct, whether the
 88 transactions involve the same person or several persons, may be
 89 aggregated in determining the grade of the offense.

90 Section 3. Paragraphs (f) and (g) of subsection (3) of 91 section 655.50, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as paragraphs 92 (g) and (h), respectively, a new paragraph (f) is added to that 93 subsection, and paragraph (b) of subsection (10) of that section
 94 is amended, to read:

95 655.50 Florida Control of Money Laundering in Financial 96 Institutions Act; reports of transactions involving currency or 97 monetary instruments; when required; purpose; definitions;
 98 penalties.—

99 (3) As used in this section, the term:

100 (f) "Proceeds" means any property derived from or obtained
 101 or retained, directly or indirectly, through some form of 102 unlawful activity, including the gross receipts of such 103 activity.

104 (10)

105 (b)1. A person who willfully violates or knowingly causes
 106 another to violate any provision of this section, when the 107 violation involves:

108 a.1. Financial transactions valued at totaling or
 109 exceeding $300 or more but less than $20,000 in any 12-month
 110 period, commits is guilty of a felony of the third degree,
 111 punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; or

112 b.2. Financial transactions valued at totaling or

113 ~~exceeding $20,000 or more but less than $100,000 commits in any~~
 114 ~~12 month period is guilty of a felony of the second degree,~~
 115 punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; or

116 c.3. Financial transactions valued at totaling or 117 exceeding $100,000 or more commits in any 12 month period is 118 guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided
 119 in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

120 2. Amounts of value of separate transactions committed
 121 pursuant to one scheme or course of conduct, whether the
 122 transactions involve the same person or several persons, may be
 123 aggregated in determining the grade of the offense.

124 Section 4. Section 895.011, Florida Statutes, is created
 125 to read:

126 895.011 Construction.—The provisions of this chapter shall 127 be liberally construed to achieve their remedial purposes of 128 curtailing racketeering activities and controlled substance
 129 crimes and lessening the economic power of criminal 130 organizations engaged in patterns of racketeering activities in 131 this state.

132 Section 5. Subsection (13) is added to section 895.02,
 133 Florida Statutes, to read:

134 895.02 Definitions.—As used in ss. 895.01-895.08, the 135 term:

136 (13) "Prosecuting authority" means the Attorney General,
 137 any state attorney, or the statewide prosecutor.

138 Section 6. Section 895.041, Florida Statutes, is created
 139 to read:

140 895.041 Criminal forfeiture.—

141 (1) (a) Upon conviction of a violation of s. 895.03, in 142 addition to any other sanction, the defendant shall forfeit to 143 the state, irrespective of any other provision of law, the 144 following:

145 1. Any interest the person has acquired or maintained in 146 violation of s. 895.03.

147 2. Any interest in, security of, claim against, or 148 property or contractual right of any kind affording a source of 149 influence over any enterprise that the person has established, 150 operated, controlled, or conducted, or participated in the 151 conduct of, in violation of s. 895.03.

152 3. Any property constituting, or derived from, any 153 proceeds that the person obtained, directly or indirectly, from 154 racketeering activity or unlawful debt collection in violation
155 of s. 895.03.

156 (b) In imposing sentence on a person convicted of a
157 violation of s. 895.03, the court shall order, in addition to 158 any other sentence imposed, that the person forfeit all property
159 described in this subsection. In lieu of a forfeiture otherwise
160 authorized by this section, a defendant convicted of such a
161 violation who derives profits or other proceeds from the offense
162 may, in addition to any other fine authorized by law, be fined
163 not more than three times the gross profits or other proceeds.

164 (2) Property subject to criminal forfeiture under this 165 section includes:

166 (a) Real property, including things growing on, affixed
167 to, and found in land.

168 (b) Tangible and intangible personal property, including
169 rights, privileges, interests, claims, and securities.

170 (3) All right, title, and interest in property described 171 in subsection (1) vests in the state upon the commission of the 172 act giving rise to forfeiture under this section. Any such 173 property that is subsequently transferred to a person other than 174 the defendant may be the subject of a special verdict of 175 forfeiture and thereafter shall be ordered forfeited to the 176 state, unless the transferee establishes in a hearing pursuant 177 to subsection (1) that he or she is a bona fide purchaser for 178 value of such property who at the time of purchase was 179 reasonably without cause to believe that the property was 180 subject to forfeiture under this section.

181 (4) (a) Upon application of the state, the court may enter
182 a restraining order or injunction, require the execution of a
183 satisfactory performance bond, or take any other action to 184 preserve the availability of property described in subsection
185 (1) for forfeiture under this section:

186 1. Upon the filing of an indictment or information
187 charging a violation of s. 895.03(3) and alleging that the 188 property with respect to which the order is sought would, in the 189 event of conviction, be subject to forfeiture under this 190 section; or

191 2. Prior to the filing of such an indictment or 192 information, if, after notice to persons appearing to have an 193 interest in the property and opportunity for a hearing, the 194 court determines that:

195 a. There is a substantial probability that the state will 196 prevail on the issue of forfeiture and that failure to enter the 197 order will result in the property being destroyed, removed from 198 the jurisdiction of the court, or otherwise made unavailable for 199 forfeiture; and

200 b. The need to preserve the availability of the property
201 through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship
202 on any party against whom the order is to be entered.

203

204 An order entered pursuant to this subparagraph may be effective
205 for no more than 90 days unless extended by the court for good
206 cause shown or unless an indictment or information described in 207 subparagraph 1. has been filed.

208 (b) A temporary restraining order under this subsection
209 may be entered upon application of the state without notice or 210 opportunity for a hearing when an information or indictment has 211 not yet been filed with respect to the property, if the state
212 demonstrates that there is probable cause to believe that the 213 property with respect to which the order is sought would, in the
214 event of conviction, be subject to forfeiture under this section
215 and that provision of notice will jeopardize the availability of 216 the property for forfeiture. Such a temporary order shall expire
217 not more than 10 days after the date on which it is entered,
218 unless extended for good cause shown or the party against whom 219 it is entered consents to an extension for a longer period. A
220 hearing requested concerning an order entered under this 221 paragraph shall be held at the earliest possible time and prior 222 to the expiration of the temporary order.

223 (c) At a hearing held pursuant to this subsection, the 224 court may receive and consider evidence and information that 225 would be inadmissible under the Florida Rules of Evidence.

226 (5) Upon finding that the state is entitled to forfeiture
227 of property under this section, the court shall enter a judgment
228 of forfeiture of the property to the state and shall also 229 authorize the prosecuting authority to seize all property
230 ordered forfeited upon such terms and conditions as the court
231 deems proper. Following the entry of an order declaring the 232 property forfeited, the court may, upon application of the 233 state, enter such appropriate restraining orders or injunctions,
234 require the execution of satisfactory performance bonds, appoint
235 receivers, conservators, appraisers, accountants, or trustees,
236 or take any other action to protect the interest of the state in 237 the property ordered forfeited. Any income accruing to, or 238 derived from, an enterprise or an interest in an enterprise
239 which has been ordered forfeited under this section may be used
240 to offset ordinary and necessary expenses to the enterprise
241 which are required by law or are necessary to protect the 242 interests of the state or of third parties.

243 (6) Following the seizure of property ordered forfeited
244 under this section, the prosecuting authority shall direct the 245 disposition of the property by sale or any other commercially
246 feasible means, making due provision for the rights of any 247 innocent persons. Any property right or interest not exercisable
248 by, or transferable for value to, the state shall expire and 249 shall not revert to the defendant, nor shall the defendant or 250 any person acting in concert with or on behalf of the defendant

251 be eligible to purchase forfeited property at any sale held by 252 the state. Upon application of a person, other than the 253 defendant or a person acting in concert with or on behalf of the 254 defendant, the court may restrain or stay the sale or 255 disposition of the property pending the conclusion of any appeal
256 of the criminal case giving rise to the forfeiture, if the 257 applicant demonstrates that proceeding with the sale or 258 disposition of the property will result in irreparable injury,
259 harm, or loss to him or her. The proceeds of any sale or other 260 disposition of property forfeited under this section and any 261 moneys forfeited shall be used to pay all proper expenses for 262 the forfeiture and the sale, including expenses of seizure,
263 maintenance, and custody of the property pending its 264 disposition, advertising, and court costs. The prosecuting
265 authority shall deposit in the General Revenue Fund any amounts 266 of such proceeds or moneys remaining after the payment of such 267 expenses.

268 (7) With respect to property ordered forfeited under this 269 section, the prosecuting authority is authorized to do the 270 following:

271 (a) Grant petitions for mitigation or remission of 272 forfeiture, restore forfeited property to victims of a violation
273 of this chapter, or take any other action to protect the rights
274 of innocent persons which is in the interest of justice and 275 which is not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

276 (b) Compromise claims arising under this section.

277 (c) Award compensation to persons providing information
278 resulting in a forfeiture under this section.

279 (d) Direct the disposition by the state of all property
280 ordered forfeited under this section by public sale or any other
281 commercially feasible means, making due provision for the rights
282 of innocent persons.

283 (e) Take appropriate measures necessary to safeguard and 284 maintain property ordered forfeited under this section pending
285 its disposition.

286 (8) The Attorney General may adopt rules with respect to 287 the following:

288 (a) Making reasonable efforts to provide notice to persons
289 who may have an interest in property ordered forfeited under 290 this section.

291 (b) Granting petitions for remission or mitigation of 292 forfeiture.

293 (c) The restitution of property to victims of an offense
294 petitioning for remission or mitigation of forfeiture under this 295 section.

296 (d) The disposition by the state of forfeited property by 297 public sale or other commercially feasible means.

298 (e) The maintenance and safekeeping of any property
299 forfeited under this section pending its disposition.

300 (f) The compromise of claims arising under this section.

301
302 Pending the adoption of such rules, all provisions of law
303 relating to the disposition of property, or the proceeds from 304 the sale of such property, or the remission or mitigation of 305 forfeitures for violation of the laws, and the compromise of 306 claims and the award of compensation to persons providing

307 information in respect of such forfeitures shall apply to 308 forfeitures incurred, or alleged to have been incurred, under 309 the provisions of this section, as applicable and not 310 inconsistent with the provisions of this section.

311 (9) Except as provided in subsection (12), a party
312 claiming an interest in property subject to forfeiture under 313 this section may not:

314 (a) Intervene in a trial or appeal of a criminal case
315 involving the forfeiture of such property under this section; or

316 (b) Commence an action at law or equity against the state
317 concerning the validity of his alleged interest in the property
318 subsequent to the filing of an indictment or information
319 alleging that the property is subject to forfeiture under this 320 section.

321 (10) The circuit courts shall have jurisdiction to enter
322 orders as provided in this section without regard to the 323 location of any property that may be subject to forfeiture under 324 this section or that has been ordered forfeited under this 325 section.

326 (11) In order to facilitate the identification or location
327 of property declared forfeited and to facilitate the disposition
328 of petitions for remission or mitigation of forfeiture, after 329 the entry of an order declaring property forfeited to the state, 330 the court may, upon the state's application, order that the 331 testimony of any witness relating to the property forfeited be 332 taken by deposition and that any designated book, paper,
333 document, record, recording, or other material not privileged be 334 produced at the same time and place, in the same manner as

335 provided for the taking of depositions under Rule 3.220, Florida
336 Rules of Criminal Procedure.

337 (12) (a) Following the entry of an order of forfeiture
338 under this section, the state shall publish notice of the order
339 and of its intent to dispose of the property in such manner as 340 the prosecuting authority may direct. The state may also, to the 341 extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person 342 known to have alleged an interest in the property that is the 343 subject of the order of forfeiture as a substitute for published
344 notice as to those persons so notified.

345 (b) Any person, other than the defendant, asserting a
346 legal interest in property which has been ordered forfeited to 347 the state to this section may, within 30 days after the final 348 publication of notice or his or her receipt of notice under 349 subsection (1), whichever is earlier, petition the court for a
350 hearing to adjudicate the validity of his or her alleged 351 interest in the property. The hearing shall be held before the 352 court alone, without a jury.

353 (c) The petition shall be signed by the petitioner under 354 penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of 355 the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the property, the 356 time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the 357 right, title, or interest in the property, any additional facts
358 supporting the petitioner's claim, and the relief sought.

359 (d) The hearing on the petition shall, to the extent
360 practicable and consistent with the interests of justice, be 361 held within 30 days after the filing of the petition. The court
362 may consolidate the hearing on the petition with a hearing on

363 any other petition filed by a person other than the defendant
364 under this subsection.

365 (e) At the hearing, the petitioner may testify and present
366 evidence and witnesses on his or her own behalf and cross-
367 examine witnesses who appear at the hearing. The state may 368 present evidence and witnesses in rebuttal and in defense of its 369 claim to the property and cross-examine witnesses who appear at 370 the hearing. In addition to testimony and evidence presented at 371 the hearing, the court shall consider the relevant portions of 372 the record of the criminal case which resulted in the order of 373 forfeiture.

374 (f) If, after the hearing, the court determines that the 375 petitioner has established by a preponderance of the evidence 376 that:

377 1. The petitioner has a legal right, title, or interest in 378 the property and such right, title, or interest renders the 379 order of forfeiture invalid in whole or in part because the 380 right, title, or interest was vested in the petitioner rather 381 than the defendant or was superior to any right, title, or 382 interest of the defendant at the time of the commission of the 383 acts which gave rise to the forfeiture of the property under 384 this section; or

385 2. The petitioner is a bona fide purchaser for value of 386 the right, title, or interest in the property and was at the 387 time of purchase reasonably without cause to believe that the 388 property was subject to forfeiture under this section,
389

390 the court shall amend the order of forfeiture in accordance with 391 its determination.

392 (g) Following the court's disposition of all petitions
393 filed under this subsection, or if no such petitions are filed
394 following the expiration of the period provided in subsection
395 (2) for the filing of such petitions, the state shall have clear
396 title to property that is the subject of the order of forfeiture
397 and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or 398 transferee.

399 (13) If any of the property described in subsection (1) is 400 protected by s. 6, Art. VII of the Florida Constitution or, as a 401 result of any act or omission of the defendant, is otherwise
402 unreachable because it:

403 (a) Cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;

404 (b) Has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a
405 third party;

406 (c) Has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;

407 (d) Has been substantially diminished in value; or

408 (e) Has been commingled with other property which cannot 409 be divided without difficulty,

410
411 the court shall order the forfeiture of any other property of 412 the defendant up to the value of any such protected or 413 unavailable property.

414 Section 7. Paragraphs (g), (h), and (i) of subsection (2)
415 of section 896.101, Florida Statutes, are redesignated as 416 paragraphs (h), (i), and (j), respectively, a new paragraph (g)
417 is added to that subsection, and paragraph (a) of subsection (2)

418 and subsections (5) and (10) of that section are amended, to 419 read:

420 896.101 Florida Money Laundering Act; definitions;
 421 penalties; injunctions; seizure warrants; immunity.-

422 (2) As used in this section, the term:

423 (a) "Knowing that the property involved in a financial 424 transaction represents the proceeds of some form of unlawful 425 activity" means that the person knew the property involved in 426 the transaction represented proceeds from some form, though not 427 necessarily which form, of activity that constitutes a felony
 428 under state or federal law, regardless of whether or not such 429 activity is specified in paragraph (h) ~~(g)~~.

430 (g) "Proceeds" means any property derived from or obtained
 431 or retained, directly or indirectly, through some form of 432 unlawful activity, including the gross receipts of such 433 activity.

434 (5) (a) A person who violates this section, if the 435 violation involves:

436 1.(a) Financial transactions valued at ~~exceeding~~ $300 but 437 less than $20,000 ~~in any 12-month period~~, commits a felony of 438 the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s.
 439 775.083, or s. 775.084.

440 2.(b) Financial transactions valued at ~~totaling or~~
 441 ~~exceeding~~ $20,000 or more but less than $100,000 ~~in any 12-month~~
 442 ~~period~~, commits a felony of the second degree, punishable as 443 provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

444 3.(c) Financial transactions valued at ~~totaling or~~
 445 ~~exceeding~~ $100,000 or more ~~in any 12-month period~~, commits a

446 felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s.
447 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

448 (b) Amounts of value of separate transactions committed
449 pursuant to one scheme or course of conduct, whether the 450 transactions involve the same person or several persons, may be 451 aggregated in determining the grade of the offense.

452 (10) (a) Any financial institution, licensed money services
453 business, or other person served with and complying with the 454 terms of a warrant, temporary injunction, or other court order,
455 including any subpoena issued under s. 16.56 or s. 27.04,
456 obtained in furtherance of an investigation of any crime in this 457 section, including any crime listed as specified unlawful 458 activity under this section or any felony violation of chapter
459 560, has immunity from criminal liability and is not liable to 460 any person for any lawful action taken in complying with the 461 warrant, temporary injunction, or other court order, including 462 any subpoena issued under s. 16.56 or s. 27.04. If any subpoena
463 issued under s. 16.56 or s. 27.04 contains a nondisclosure
464 provision, any financial institution, licensed money services
465 business, employee or officer of a financial institution or 466 licensed money services business, or any other person may not 467 notify, directly or indirectly, any customer of that financial 468 institution or money services business whose records are being 469 sought by the subpoena, or any other person, other than an 470 attorney consulted by the person or entity whose testimony is 471 sought in the matter named in the subpoena, about the existence
472 or the contents of that subpoena, or of the investigation, or 473 about information that has been furnished to the state attorney

474 or statewide prosecutor who issued the subpoena or any other law
475 enforcement officer named in the subpoena in response to the 476 subpoena.

477 (b) Any person who, having received or been served with 478 such a warrant, temporary injunction, or other court order,
479 including any subpoena issued under s. 16.56 or s. 27.04,
480 containing a nondisclosure provision as described in paragraph 481 (a) who thereafter notifies any person of information in 482 violation of paragraph (a) shall be fined $5,000 for each such 483 unauthorized notification.

484 Section 8. Subsection (3) is added to section 923.03,
485 Florida Statutes, to read:

486 923.03 Indictment and information.—

487 (3) A judgment of forfeiture may not be entered in a
488 criminal proceeding unless the indictment or the information
489 provides notice that the defendant has an interest in property
490 that is subject to forfeiture in accordance with the applicable
491 statute.

492 Section 9. Paragraphs (g), (h), and (i) of subsection (3)
493 of section 921.0022, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Domestic Violence Fatality Review Teams (FRTs) were first formed in Florida in the mid-1990's. FRTs, which are not funded by the state, work independently and may be composed of representatives from municipal, county, state and federal agencies, as well as individuals or organizations that are involved with, or affected by, a domestic violence fatality. The goals of FRTs are to review fatal and near-fatal incidents of domestic violence, related domestic violence matters, and suicides, and to identify changes in policy or procedure that may prevent future deaths.

Information gathered by FRTs is protected from discovery and introduction into evidence in civil or disciplinary proceedings. In addition, persons attending FRT meetings are prohibited from testifying in civil or disciplinary actions regarding records or information produced or presented at the meeting. These provisions do not apply to criminal or administrative proceedings.

HB 1291 provides that information and records acquired by the FRTs are not subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any criminal or administrative proceeding in certain circumstances.

The bill also provides that a person who has attended a meeting of the FRTs may not testify in criminal or administrative proceedings regarding certain records or information that was produced or presented by the team.

HB 1291 deletes the requirement that the Governor's Task Force on Domestic Violence provide information and technical assistance to FRTs. The Governor's Task Force on Domestic Violence was part of an Executive Order that expired on June 30, 2001.

HB 1291 does not appear to have a fiscal impact and is effective July 1, 2010.

HOUSE PRINCIPLES

Members are encouraged to evaluate proposed legislation in light of the following guiding principles of the House of Representatives

- Balance the state budget.
- Create a legal and regulatory environment that fosters economic growth and job creation.
- Lower the tax burden on families and businesses.
- Reverse or restrain the growth of government.
- Promote public safety.
- Promote educational accountability, excellence, and choice.
- Foster respect for the family and for innocent human life.
- Protect Florida's natural beauty.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation:

In Florida, domestic violence is defined as:

[A]ny assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, sexual assault, sexual battery, stalking, aggravated stalking, kidnapping, false imprisonment, or any criminal offense resulting in physical injury or death of one family or household member by another family or household member.¹

In 2008, the total number of domestic violence offenses reported across Florida was 113,123. Of the total, 194 offenses were classified as murder or manslaughter.²

Domestic Violence Fatality Review Teams (FRTs) were first formed in Florida in the mid-1990's. These teams began as local initiatives supported with federal grant funds.³ In 2000, the Legislature enacted s. 741.316, F.S., which allows organizations to establish FRTs at the local, regional, or state level. The teams, which are not funded by the state, work independently and may be composed of representatives from municipal, county, state and federal agencies, as well as individuals or organizations that are involved with, or affected by, a domestic violence fatality.⁴ The goals of the FRTs are to review fatal and near-fatal incidents of domestic violence, related domestic violence matters, and suicides, and to identify changes in policy or procedure that may prevent future deaths.⁵ There are currently 19 active FRTs in Florida.⁶

Public Records and Meeting Exemptions for Domestic Violence Fatality Review Teams

Fatality Review Teams are immune from liability for "any act or proceeding undertaken or performed within the scope of the functions of the team" unless the act or proceeding was undertaken in bad

⁶ As of June 19, 2009, there were active FRTs in the following counties: Alachua, Brevard, Broward, Columbia, Duval, Escambia, Highlands, Hillsborough, Lee, Manatee, Miami-Dade, Orange, Palm Beach, Pasco, Pinellas, Santa Rosa, Sarasota, Seminole and St. John's. faith.⁷ Information gathered by FRTs is protected from discovery and introduction into evidence in civil or disciplinary proceedings. In addition, persons attending FRT meetings are prohibited from testifying in civil or disciplinary actions regarding records or information produced or presented at the meeting.⁸ These provisions do not apply to criminal or administrative proceedings. Because FRT members are not protected from criminal subpoenas, case reviews typically occur after the final disposition of the related criminal case. For this reason, fatality reviews are conducted years after the crimes occurred, which can result in the loss of key information and people.⁹ In contrast, child abuse death review team members are protected from subpoenas in criminal cases as well as in civil proceedings.¹⁰

The Governor's Task Force on Domestic Violence (task force) was created to serve the public purpose of directing policies on reducing and eliminating domestic violence and domestic violence fatalities. The task force was required to produce an annual report including a summary of task force findings, other special areas of interest, and efforts of the local FRTs.¹¹ Before it expired on June 30, 2001, the task force provided support and technical assistance to FRTs. Since its expiration, the task force has not been reauthorized.¹²

FRTs are now assigned to the Department of Children and Families (department) for administrative purposes.¹³ The department provides technical support to FRTs and, although not directed, has assumed the responsibility of supporting FRTs with the collection and reporting of data from their reviews.¹⁴

Effect of Proposed Changes:

HB 1291 deletes the requirement that the Governor's Task Force on Domestic Violence provide information and technical assistance to local domestic violence fatality review teams (FRTs). The Governor's Task Force on Domestic Violence was part of an Executive Order that expired on June 30, 2001.

The bill provides that information and records acquired by the FRTs are not subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any criminal or administrative proceeding in certain circumstances.

The bill provides that a person who has attended a meeting of the FRT may not testify in criminal or administrative proceedings regarding certain records or information that was produced or presented by the team.

B. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1. Amends s. 741.316, F.S., relating to Domestic violence fatality review teams; definition; membership; duties; report by the Department of Law Enforcement.

Section 2. Provides an effective date of July 1, 2010.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

HB 1291 does not strike the reference in the title of s. 741.316, F.S., to the "report by Department of Law Enforcement." This requirement was repealed by Ch. 2008-112 L.O.F. SB 1446, the companion to HB 1291, does strike this reference in the title.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL OR COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

1 A bill to be entitled
 2 An act relating to domestic violence fatality review
 3 teams; amending s. 741.316, F.S.; deleting a requirement
 4 that the Governor's Task Force on Domestic Violence
 5 provide information and technical assistance to local 6 domestic violence fatality review teams; providing that
 7 information and records acquired by a domestic violence
 8 fatality review team are not subject to discovery or 9 introduction into evidence in criminal or administrative 10 proceedings in certain circumstances; providing that a
 11 person who has attended a meeting of a domestic violence
 12 fatality review team may not testify in criminal or

 14 information produced or presented to the team; providing 15 an effective date.

16
 17 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

18
 19 Section 1. Section 741.316, Florida Statutes, is amended
 20 to read:

21 . 741.316 Domestic violence fatality review teams;
 22 definition; membership; duties; report by the Department of Law
 23 Enforcement.—

24 (1) As used in this section, the term "domestic violence 25 fatality review team" means an organization that includes, but 26 is not limited to, representatives from the following agencies
 27 or organizations:

28 (a) Law enforcement agencies.

- 29 (b) The state attorney.
- 30 (c) The medical examiner.
- 31 (d) Certified domestic violence centers.
- 32 (e) Child protection service providers.
- 33 (f) The office of court administration.
- 34 (g) The clerk of the court.
- 35 (h) Victim services programs.
- 36 (i) Child death review teams.
- 37 (j) Members of the business community.
- 38 (k) County probation or corrections agencies.
- 39 (l) Any other persons who have knowledge regarding
- 40 domestic violence fatalities, nonlethal incidents of domestic
- 41 violence, or suicide, including research, policy, law, and other
- 42 matters connected with fatal incidents.
- 43 (m) Other representatives as determined by the review
- 44 team.
- 45 (2) A domestic violence fatality review team may be
- 46 established at a local, regional, or state level in order to
- 47 review fatal and near-fatal incidents of domestic violence,
- 48 related domestic violence matters, and suicides. The review may
- 49 include a review of events leading up to the domestic violence
- 50 incident, available community resources, current laws and
- 51 policies, actions taken by systems and individuals related to
- 52 the incident and the parties, and any information or action
- 53 deemed relevant by the team, including a review of public
- 54 records and records for which public records exemptions are
- 55 granted. The purpose of the teams is to learn how to prevent
- 56 domestic violence by intervening early and improving the

57 response of an individual and the system to domestic violence.
58 The structure and activities of a team shall be determined at 59 the local level. The team may determine the number and type of 60 incidents it wishes to review and shall make policy and other
61 recommendations as to how incidents of domestic violence may be 62 prevented.

63 ~~(3) The Governor's Task Force on Domestic Violence shall~~
64 ~~provide information and technical assistance to local domestic~~ 65 ~~violence fatality review teams.~~

66 (3)~~(4)~~(a) There may not be any monetary liability on the 67 part of, and a cause of action for damages may not arise
68 against, any member of a domestic violence fatality review team
69 or any person acting as a witness to, incident reporter to, or 70 investigator for a domestic violence fatality review team for 71 any act or proceeding undertaken or performed within the scope
72 of the functions of the team, unless such person acted in bad
73 faith, with malicious purpose, or in a manner exhibiting wanton
74 and willful disregard of human rights, safety, or property.

75 (b) This subsection does not affect the provisions of s.
76 768.28.

77 (4)~~(5)~~ All information and records acquired by a domestic 78 violence fatality review team are not subject to discovery or 79 introduction into evidence in any civil or criminal action or 80 administrative or disciplinary proceeding by any department or 81 employing agency if the information or records arose out of 82 matters that are the subject of evaluation and review by the 83 domestic violence fatality review team. However, information,
84 documents, and records otherwise available from other sources

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The bill authorizes licensed security officers and security agency managers who possess a valid Class G license, who are on duty and in uniform, and who are on the premises of their client, to temporarily detain a person who has committed or is committing a crime against a client or patron. The detention must be for the purpose of ascertaining the person's identity and the circumstances of the crime and may not extend beyond the place where it was first affected or the immediate vicinity thereof.

The bill requires the security officer to notify the appropriate law enforcement agency as soon as reasonably possible. Additionally, the bill specifies that the security officer may only detain the person in a reasonable manner and only until a law enforcement officer arrives on the premises and is in the presence of the detainee.

The bill also authorizes security officers who have probable cause to believe that a person being detained is armed with a weapon to conduct a search of the person and his or her belongings, only to the extent necessary for the purpose of disclosing the presence of a weapon.

The bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact and takes effect July 1, 2010.

HOUSE PRINCIPLES

Members are encouraged to evaluate proposed legislation in light of the following guiding principles of the House of Representatives

- Balance the state budget.
- Create a legal and regulatory environment that fosters economic growth and job creation.
- Lower the tax burden on families and businesses.
- Reverse or restrain the growth of government.
- Promote public safety.
- Promote educational accountability, excellence, and choice.
- Foster respect for the family and for innocent human life.
- Protect Florida's natural beauty.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

The Power to Detain

Section 812.015(3)(a), F.S., currently authorizes law enforcement officers¹, merchants², farmers³, and transit agency⁴ employees or agents who have probable cause to believe that a retail theft,⁵ farm theft,⁶ or trespass,⁷ has been committed to take the offender into custody and detain the offender in a reasonable manner for a reasonable length of time for the purpose of attempting to effect recovery or for prosecution.⁸ The statute further specifies that in the event the merchant, merchant's employee, farmer, or a transit agency's employee or agent takes the person into custody, a law enforcement officer shall be immediately called to the scene.

Innkeepers and food service establishment operators have the similar statutory authority to "take a person into custody and detain a person" if there is probable cause to believe the person is engaging in

¹ Section 943.10, F.S., defines the term "law enforcement officer" as any person who is elected, appointed, or employed full time by any municipality or the state or any political subdivision thereof; who is vested with authority to bear arms and make arrests; and whose primary responsibility is the prevention and detection of crime or the enforcement of the penal, criminal, traffic, or highway laws of the state. This definition includes all certified supervisory and command personnel whose duties include, in whole or in part, the supervision, training, guidance, and management responsibilities of full-time law enforcement officers, part-time law enforcement officers, or auxiliary law enforcement officers but does not include support personnel employed by the employing agency.

² Section 812.015, F.S., defines the term "merchant" as an owner or operator, or the agent, consignee, employee, lessee, or officer of an owner or operator, of any premises or apparatus used for retail purchase or sale of any merchandise.

³ Section 812.015, F.S., defines the term "farmer" as a person who is engaging in the growing or producing of farm produce, milk products, eggs, or meat, either part time or full time, for personal consumption or for sale and who is the owner or lessee of the land or a person designated in writing by the owner or lessee to act as her or his agent.

⁵ "Retail theft" means the taking possession of or carrying away of merchandise, property, money, or negotiable documents; altering or removing a label, universal product code, or price tag; transferring merchandise from one container to another; or removing a shopping cart, with intent to deprive the merchant of possession, use, benefit, or full retail value. See s. 812.015, F.S.

⁶ "Farm theft" means the unlawful taking possession of any items that are grown or produced on land owned, rented, or leased by another person. See s. 812.015, F.S.

⁷ Section 812.015, F.S., defines the term "trespass" in accordance with s. 810.08, F.S.

⁸ In the case of retail or farm theft, the law enforcement officer, merchant, farmer, or transit agency employee must also have probable cause to believe that the property can be recovered by taking the offender into custody before detaining the offender.

disorderly conduct⁹ that threatens the safety of the person or others.¹⁰ In these situations, it is also required that law enforcement be called immediately.

Private, State-Licensed Security Officers

There are several classes of licenses issued by the Division of Licensing within the Department of Agriculture (Department). Section 493.6301, F.S., requires any person who performs the services of a security officer to have a Class "D" license. The requirements for a Class "D" security officer license are as follows:

- (a) An applicant for a Class "D" license must complete a minimum of 40 hours of professional training at a school or training facility licensed by the department. The department shall by rule establish the general content and number of hours of each subject area to be taught.
- (b) An applicant may fulfill the training requirement prescribed in paragraph (a) by submitting proof of:
 - Successful completion of the total number of required hours of training before initial application for a Class "D" license; or
 - Successful completion of 24 hours of training before initial application for a Class "D" license and successful completion of the remaining 16 hours of training within 180 days after the date that the application is submitted. If documentation of completion of the required training is not submitted within the specified timeframe, the individual's license is automatically suspended until such time as proof of the required training is provided to the department.¹¹

Class "MB" security officers may manage a security agency. Class "MB" and "D" security officers are permitted to carry a firearm, but must obtain a Class "G" license in order to do so.¹²

Seaport security officers must have a Class "D" license and complete a specialized seaport security officer training curriculum.¹³

Private, State-Licensed Security Officers – Ability to Detain

Section 311.124, F.S., specifies that any Class "D" or Class "G" seaport security officer certified under the Maritime Transportation Security Act guidelines and s. 311.121, F.S., who has probable cause to believe that a person is trespassing in a designated restricted area pursuant to s. 311.111, F.S., is authorized to detain such person in a reasonable manner for a reasonable period of time pending the arrival of a law enforcement officer. Upon detaining a person for trespass, the seaport security officer shall immediately call a certified law enforcement officer to the scene.

Effect of the Bill

The bill authorizes licensed security officers and security agency managers who possess a valid Class "G" license, who are on duty and in uniform, and who are on the premises of their client, to temporarily detain a person who has committed or is committing a crime against a client or patron. The detention must be for the purpose of ascertaining the person's identity and the circumstances of the crime. The bill specifies that temporary detention by a security officer may not extend beyond the place where it was first affected or the immediate vicinity thereof.

⁹ Disorderly conduct is described in s. 877.03, F.S.

¹⁰ s. 509.143, F.S.

¹² Class "G" officers have special firearm training requirements and are authorized to carry their firearms on duty. s. 493.6301, F.S.

¹³ The specialized seaport security officer training curriculum includes no less than 218 hours of initial certification training that conforms to or exceeds model courses approved by the Federal Maritime Act under Section 109 of the Federal Maritime Transportation Security Act of 2002 for facility personnel with specific security duties. See s. 311.121, F.S.

The bill requires the security officer to notify the appropriate law enforcement agency as soon as reasonably possible. Additionally, the bill specifies that the security officer may only detain the person in a reasonable manner and only until a law enforcement officer arrives on the premises and is in the presence of the detainee. The bill specifies that a person may not be further detained upon the arrival of the law enforcement officer except under the authority of the responding law enforcement officer. Custody of the person being temporarily detained must be immediately transferred to the responding law enforcement officer for determination of appropriate disposition.

If the security officer has probable cause to believe the person being detained (or the person who is about to be detained) is armed with a firearm, concealed weapon, or destructive device that poses a threat to the safety of the officer or others, the security officer may conduct a search of the person and his or her belongings, only to the extent necessary for the purpose of disclosing the presence of a weapon. If the search reveals a weapon, the bill authorizes the seizure of the weapon and requires the security officer to give the weapon to the responding law enforcement officer. The bill specifies that in this context, the term "probable cause" means the observation of the security officer or an admission of the detainee that the detainee has a weapon in his or her possession.

The bill amends s. 493.6118, F.S., to specify that the Department take disciplinary actions against a security officer if the security officer commits an act of violence or use of force on any person except:

- In the lawful protection of one's self or another from physical harm; or
- In the process of a lawful detention of a suspect while awaiting the arrival of a law enforcement officer.

The bill conforms a cross-reference in s. 493.6115, F.S.

B. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1. Amends s. 493.6305, F.S., relating to uniforms, required wear; authority limitations.

Section 2. Amends s. 493.6118, F.S., relating to grounds for disciplinary action.

Section 3. Amends s. 493.6115, F.S., relating to weapons and firearms.

Section 4. This bill takes effect July 1, 2010.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

Not applicable because this bill does not appear to: require the counties or municipalities to spend funds or take an action requiring the expenditure of funds; reduce the authority that counties or municipalities have to raise revenues in the aggregate; or reduce the percentage of a state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

2. Other:

It is possible that a person who is detained under this bill could raise Fourth Amendment search and seizure issues. The bill statutorily authorizes one citizen, arguably "under color of law," to detain and search another citizen virtually on behalf of law enforcement. For that reason, security officers who undertake a detention and subsequent search under the parameters authorized in the bill should be aware that any evidence they seize may be later used as evidence in a criminal case and it should be handled accordingly.

30 identifying the employing agency. A licensed security officer
31 who also possesses a valid Class "G" license, or a licensed
32 security agency manager who also possesses a valid Class "G"
33 license, who is on duty, in uniform, and on the premises of a
34 client, and who has probable cause to believe that a person has 35 committed or is committing a crime against the client or patrons
36 thereof, may temporarily detain the person for the purpose of 37 ascertaining his or her identity and the circumstances of the 38 activity that is the basis for the temporary detention. The 39 detaining officer may detain the person in a reasonable manner
40 until the responding law enforcement officer arrives at the 41 premises of the client and is in the presence of the detainee.
42 ~~Upon resignation or termination of employment, a Class "D"~~

58 The temporary detention by a licensed security officer or 59 security agency manager may not extend beyond the place where it
60 was first affected or the immediate vicinity thereof.

61 (4) A person may not be temporarily detained under 62 subsection (2) longer than is reasonably necessary to effect the 63 purposes of this section.

64 (5) (a) If a licensed security officer or security agency
65 manager who is authorized to temporarily detain a person under 66 subsection (1) has probable cause to believe that the person
67 whom the security officer has temporarily detained, or is about
68 to temporarily detain, is armed with a firearm, concealed 69 weapon, or any destructive device that poses a threat to the 70 safety of the security officer or any person for whom the 71 security officer is responsible for providing protection, the 72 security officer or security agency manager may conduct a search
73 of the person and his or her belongings only to the extent
74 necessary for the purpose of disclosing the presence of a
75 weapon. If the search reveals such a weapon, the weapon may be 76 seized and shall be provided to the responding law enforcement
77 officer.

78 (b) For the purpose of this subsection, the term "probable

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Section 509.144, F.S., prohibits persons from distributing handbills, or directing another to distribute handbills, at or in a public lodging establishment without permission. "Without permission" is defined as "without the expressed written or oral permission of the owner, manager, or agent of the owner or manager of the public lodging establishment where a sign is posted prohibiting advertising or solicitation."

The PCB amends the definition of the term "without permission" to remove "oral permission." The PCB also increases the fine for persons who direct another to distribute handbills from $500 to $1,000. Additionally, the PCB provides the following fines for subsequent violations of the handbill statute:

- For a second violation, a minimum fine of $2,000
- For a third or subsequent violation, a minimum fine of $3,000.

The PCB amends the definition of the term "contraband" in the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act to specify that property that was used as an instrumentality in the commission of a person's third or subsequent violation of the handbill distribution statute is subject to seizure and forfeiture.

The PCB also adds another exception to the general rule that officers must witness a misdemeanor offense in order to make a warrantless arrest. Specifically, the PCB provides that an officer may arrest a person without a warrant:

- If there is probable cause to believe that a violation of s. 509.144, F.S., has been committed; and
- Where the owner or manager of the public lodging establishment in which the violation occurred signs an affidavit containing information that supports the probable cause determination.

This PCB may have a positive fiscal impact on local governments. See fiscal section.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Current Situation

Handbill Distribution

Section 509.144(2), F.S., prohibits persons acting on behalf of another to, without permission, deliver, distribute, or place a handbill¹ at or in a public lodging establishment². Subsection (3) of the statute also prohibits persons to, without permission, direct another person to deliver, distribute, or place a handbill in a public lodging establishment. Both crimes are punishable as 1st degree misdemeanors³. In addition to the 1st degree misdemeanor penalty, persons who violate subsection (3) of the statute are required to pay a minimum fine of $500.⁴

Currently, s. 509.144, F.S., defines the term "without permission" as "without the expressed written or oral permission of the owner, manager, or agent of the owner or manager of the public lodging establishment where a sign is posted prohibiting advertising or solicitation in the manner provided in subsection (4)."⁵

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends the definition of the term "without permission" to remove "oral permission." Thus, a person who distributes handbills must have the written permission of the public lodging establishment's owner or manager. The PCB also increases the fine for violating subsection (3) of the handbill statute from $500 to $1,000. Additionally, the PCB provides the following fines for subsequent violations of the handbill statute:

- For a second violation, a minimum fine of $2,000
- For a third or subsequent violation, a minimum fine of $3,000.

² Section 509.013, F.S., defines the term "public lodging establishment" as a transient public lodging establishment or a non-transient public lodging establishment. "Transient public lodging establishment" means any unit, group of units, dwelling, building, or group of buildings within a single complex of buildings which is rented to guests more than three times in a calendar year for periods of less than 30 days or 1 calendar month, whichever is less, or which is advertised or held out to the public as a place regularly rented to guests. "Non-transient public lodging establishment" means any unit, group of units, dwelling, building, or group of buildings within a single complex of buildings which is rented to guests for periods of at least 30 days or 1 calendar month, whichever is less, or which is advertised or held out to the public as a place regularly rented to guests for periods of at least 30 days or 1 calendar month.

³ A first degree misdemeanor is punishable by up to one year in county jail and a maximum $1,000 fine. ss. 775.082 and 775.083, F.S.
⁴ s. 509.144(3), F.S.

Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act

The Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act (Act)⁶ provides that any contraband article, vessel, motor vehicle, aircraft, other personal property, or real property used in violation of any provision of the Act, or in, upon, or by means of which any violation of the Act has taken or is taking place, may be seized and shall be forfeited subject to the provisions of the Act. Section 932.701, F.S., defines the term "contraband" to include:

- Any controlled substance as defined in chapter 893 or any substance, device, paraphernalia, or currency or other means of exchange that was used, was attempted to be used, or was intended to be used in violation of any provision of chapter 893, if the totality of the facts presented by the state is clearly sufficient to meet the state's burden of establishing probable cause to believe that a nexus exists between the article seized and the narcotics activity, whether or not the use of the contraband article can be traced to a specific narcotics transaction.
- Any gambling paraphernalia, lottery tickets, money, currency, or other means of exchange which was used, was attempted, or intended to be used in violation of the gambling laws of the state.
- Any equipment, liquid or solid, which was being used, is being used, was attempted to be used, or intended to be used in violation of the beverage or tobacco laws of the state.
- Any motor fuel upon which the motor fuel tax has not been paid as required by law.
- Any personal property, including, but not limited to, any vessel, aircraft, item, object, tool, substance, device, weapon, machine, vehicle of any kind, money, securities, books, records, research, negotiable instruments, or currency, which was used or was attempted to be used as an instrumentality in the commission of, or in aiding or abetting in the commission of, any felony, whether or not comprising an element of the felony, or which is acquired by proceeds obtained as a result of a violation of the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act.
- Any real property, including any right, title, leasehold, or other interest in the whole of any lot or tract of land, which was used, is being used, or was attempted to be used as an instrumentality in the commission of, or in aiding or abetting in the commission of, any felony, or which is acquired by proceeds obtained as a result of a violation of the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act.
- Any personal property, including, but not limited to, equipment, money, securities, books, records, research, negotiable instruments, currency, or any vessel, aircraft, item, object, tool, substance, device, weapon, machine, or vehicle of any kind in the possession of or belonging to any person who takes aquaculture products in violation of s. 812.014(2)(c), F.S.
- Any motor vehicle offered for sale in violation of s. 320.28., F.S.
- Any motor vehicle used during the course of committing an offense in violation of s. 322.34(9)(a), F.S.
- Any photograph, film, or other recorded image, including an image recorded on videotape, a compact disc, digital tape, or fixed disk, that is recorded in violation of s. 810.145, F.S., and is possessed for the purpose of amusement, entertainment, sexual arousal, gratification, or profit, or for the purpose of degrading or abusing another person.
- Any real property, including any right, title, leasehold, or other interest in the whole of any lot or tract of land, which is acquired by proceeds obtained as a result of Medicaid fraud under s. 409.920, F.S., or s. 409.9201, F.S.; any personal property, including, but not limited to, equipment, money, securities, books, records, research, negotiable instruments, or currency; or any vessel, aircraft, item, object, tool, substance, device, weapon, machine, or vehicle of any kind in the possession of or belonging to any person which is acquired by proceeds obtained as a result of Medicaid fraud under s. 409.920, F.S., or s. 409.9201, F.S.

⁶ Sections 932.701 – 932.706, F.S., contain the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act.

The current definition of the term "contraband" does not include property that was used as an instrumentality in the commission of a violation of s. 509.144, F.S., relating to handbill distribution.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends the definition of the term "contraband" in s. 932.701, F.S., to include the following:

Any personal property, including, but not limited to, any vehicle of any kind, item, object, tool, device, weapon, machine, money, securities, books, or records, which was used or was attempted to be used as an instrumentality in the commission of, or aiding and abetting in the commission of, a person's third or subsequent violation of s. 509.144, whether or not comprising an element of the offense.

The PCB also amends s. 509.144, F.S., to specify that the above-described property is subject to seizure and forfeiture under the Act.

Warrantless Arrest

Section 901.15, F.S., sets forth the instances in which a law enforcement officer can arrest a person without a warrant. For misdemeanor offenses, the general rule is that law enforcement officers must witness the occurrence of the offense in order to make an arrest without a warrant. If the officer does not witness the offense, the officer must obtain an arrest warrant.

In certain instances the Legislature has deemed particular misdemeanor offenses to be of such a nature that they should be exceptions to the above rule. Those crimes, which are listed in s. 901.15, F.S., are:

- Violations of injunctions for protection in domestic violence, repeat violence, sexual violence, and dating violence situations.
- Violations of pretrial release conditions in domestic and dating violence cases
- Acts of domestic or dating violence.
- Luring or enticing a child.
- Aggravated assault upon a law enforcement officer, firefighter and other listed persons.
- Battery.
- Criminal mischief or graffiti-related offenses.
- Violations of certain naval vessel protection zones or trespass in posted areas in airports.

For these offenses, an officer does not have to witness the crime in order to make a warrantless arrest - they only need to have probable cause to believe the person committed the crime.⁷

Effect of the PCB

The PCB adds another exception to the general rule that officers must witness a misdemeanor offense in order to make a warrantless arrest. Specifically, the PCB provides that an officer may arrest a person without a warrant:

- If there is probable cause to believe that a violation of s. 509.144, F.S., (the handbill statute) has been committed; and
- Where the owner or manager of the public lodging establishment in which the violation occurred signs an affidavit containing information that supports the probable cause determination.

B. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1. Amends s. 509.144, F.S., relating to prohibited handbill distribution in a public lodging establishment; penalties.

Section 2. Amends s. 901.15, F.S., relating to when arrest by officer without warrant is lawful.

⁷ s. 901.15, F.S.

Section 3. Amends s. 932.701, F.S., relating to short title; definitions.

Section 4. This PCB takes effect October 1, 2010.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

None.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

The PCB increases the fine for first, second, and subsequent violations of s. 509.144, F.S. The PCB also provides a civil forfeiture provision relating to violations of the handbill distribution statute. As such local governments may see increased revenues.

2. Expenditures:

None.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

None.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

None.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

Not applicable because this PCB does not appear to: require the counties or municipalities to spend funds or take an action requiring the expenditure of funds; reduce the authority that counties or municipalities have to raise revenues in the aggregate; or reduce the percentage of a state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

2. Other:

None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

31 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

32

33 Section 1. Paragraph (i) is added to subsection (4) of 34 section 394.492, Florida Statutes, to read:

35 394.492 Definitions.—As used in ss. 394.490-394.497, the
 36 term:

37 (4) "Child or adolescent at risk of emotional disturbance"
 38 means a person under 18 years of age who has an increased
 39 likelihood of becoming emotionally disturbed because of risk
 40 factors that include, but are not limited to:

41 (i) Being 9 years of age or younger at the time of referral
 42 for a delinquent act.

43 Section 2. Subsections (9) and (25) of section 984.03,
 44 Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

45 984.03 Definitions.—When used in this chapter, the term:

46 (9) "Child in need of services" means a child for whom
 47 there is no pending investigation into an allegation or
 48 suspicion of abuse, neglect, or abandonment; no pending referral
 49 alleging the child is delinquent, except when a child 9 years of
 50 age or younger is being referred to the department; or no
 51 current supervision by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the 52 Department of Children and Family Services for an adjudication
 53 of dependency or delinquency. The child must also, pursuant to 54 this chapter, be found by the court:

55 (d) To be 9 years of age or younger and have been referred

56 for a delinquent act.

57 (25) "Family in need of services" means a family that has 58 a child who is running away; who is persistently disobeying
 59 reasonable and lawful demands of the parent or legal custodian
 60 and is beyond the control of the parent or legal custodian; or 61 who is habitually truant from school or engaging in other
 62 serious behaviors that place the child at risk of future abuse,
 63 neglect, or abandonment or at risk of entering the juvenile 64 justice system; or who is 9 years of age or younger and being
 65 referred to the Department of Juvenile Justice for a delinquent
 66 act. The child must be referred to a law enforcement agency, the 67 Department of Juvenile Justice, or an agency contracted to 68 provide services to children in need of services. A family is 69 not eligible to receive services if, at the time of the 70 referral, there is an open investigation into an allegation of 71 abuse, neglect, or abandonment or if the child is currently 72 under supervision by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the 73 Department of Children and Family Services due to an 74 adjudication of dependency or delinquency.

75 Section 3. Subsection (1) of section 984.14, Florida
 76 Statutes, is amended to read:

77 984.14 Shelter placement; hearing.—

78 (1) Unless ordered by the court pursuant to the provisions
 79 of this chapter, or upon voluntary consent to placement by the 80 child and the child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian, a
 81 child taken into custody shall not be placed in a shelter prior 82 to a court hearing unless the child is taken into custody for a
 83 misdemeanor domestic violence charge and is ineligible to be

84 held in secure detention or a determination has been made that 85 the provision of appropriate and available services will not 86 eliminate the need for placement and that such placement is 87 required:

88 (a) To provide an opportunity for the child and family to 89 agree upon conditions for the child's return home, when 90 immediate placement in the home would result in a substantial
 91 likelihood that the child and family would not reach an 92 agreement; or

93 (b) Because a parent, custodian, or guardian is 94 unavailable to take immediate custody of the child.

95 Section 4. Subsections (9) and (10) are added to section
 96 985.02, Florida Statutes, to read:

97 985.02 Legislative intent for the juvenile justice
 98 system.—

99 (9) CHILDREN 9 YEARS OF AGE OR YOUNGER.—The Legislature
 100 finds that very young children need age-appropriate services in 101 order to prevent and reduce future acts of delinquency. Children
 102 who are 9 years of age or younger should be diverted into 103 prearrest or postarrest programs, civil citation programs, or 104 children-in-need-of-services and families-in-need-of-services
 105 programs, or other programs as appropriate. If, upon findings
 106 from the needs assessment, the child is found to be in need of 107 mental health services or substance abuse treatment services,
 108 the department shall cooperate with the parent or legal guardian
 109 and the Department of Children and Family Services, as 110 appropriate, to identify the most appropriate services and

111 supports and available funding sources to meet the needs of the 112 child.

113 (10) Restorative Justice.—

114 (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that the juvenile 115 justice system advance that principles of restorative justice.
 116 The department should focus on repairing the harm to victims of 117 delinquent behavior, ensuring the youth understands the impact
 118 of their delinquent behavior on the victim and the community,
 119 and restoring the loss to the victim.

120 (b) Offender accountability is one of the basic principles
 121 of restorative justice. The premise of this principle is that 122 the juvenile justice system must respond to delinquent behavior
 123 in such a way that the offender is made aware of and takes 124 responsibility for repaying or restoring loss, damage or injury
 125 perpetrated upon the victim and the community. This goal is 126 achieved when the offender understands the consequences of 127 delinquent behaviors in terms of harm to others; and when the 128 offender makes amends for the harm, loss or damage through 129 restitution, community services or other appropriate repayment.

130 Section 5. Subsections (7) and (23) of section 985.03,
 131 Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

132 985.03 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, the term:

133 (7) "Child in need of services" means a child for whom
 134 there is no pending investigation into an allegation or
 135 suspicion of abuse, neglect, or abandonment; no pending referral
 136 alleging the child is delinquent, except when a child 9 years of
 137 age or younger is being referred to the department; or no
 138 current supervision by the department or the Department of

139 Children and Family Services for an adjudication of dependency
 140 or delinquency. The child must also, under this chapter, be 141 found by the court:

142 (a) To have persistently run away from the child's parents
 143 or legal custodians despite reasonable efforts of the child, the 144 parents or legal custodians, and appropriate agencies to remedy
 145 the conditions contributing to the behavior. Reasonable efforts
 146 shall include voluntary participation by the child's parents or 147 legal custodians and the child in family mediation, services,
 148 and treatment offered by the department or the Department of 149 Children and Family Services;

150 (b) To be habitually truant from school, while subject to 151 compulsory school attendance, despite reasonable efforts to 152 remedy the situation under ss. 1003.26 and 1003.27 and through 153 voluntary participation by the child's parents or legal 154 custodians and by the child in family mediation, services, and 155 treatment offered by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the 156 Department of Children and Family Services; ~~or~~

157 (c) To have persistently disobeyed the reasonable and 158 lawful demands of the child's parents or legal custodians, and 159 to be beyond their control despite efforts by the child's
 160 parents or legal custodians and appropriate agencies to remedy
 161 the conditions contributing to the behavior. Reasonable efforts
 162 may include such things as good faith participation in family or 163 individual counseling; or

164 (d) To be 9 years of age or younger and have been referred
 165 for a delinquent act.

166 (23) "Family in need of services" means a family that has

167 a child for whom there is no pending investigation into an 168 allegation of abuse, neglect, or abandonment or no current 169 supervision by the department or the Department of Children and 170 Family Services for an adjudication of dependency or 171 delinquency. The child must also have been referred to a law
 172 enforcement agency or the department for:

- 173 (a) Running away from parents or legal custodians;
- 174 (b) Persistently disobeying reasonable and lawful demands
 175 of parents or legal custodians, and being beyond their control;
 176 ~~or~~
- 177 (c) Habitual truancy from school; or
- 178 (d) Being a child 9 years of age or younger and being 179 referred for a delinquent act.

180 Section 6. Subsection (1) of section 985.125, Florida
 181 Statutes, is amended to read:

182 985.125 Prearrest or postarrest diversion programs.—

- 183 (1) A law enforcement agency, ~~or~~ school district, county,
 184 municipality, or the department in cooperation with the state
 185 attorney, is encouraged to ~~may~~ establish a prearrest or 186 postarrest diversion program. Youth 9 years of age or younger
 187 should be given the opportunity to participate in a prearrest or 188 postarrest diversion program.

189 Section 7. Paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section
 190 985.145, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

191 985.145 Responsibilities of juvenile probation officer
 192 during intake; screenings and assessments.—

- 193 (1) The juvenile probation officer shall serve as the 194 primary case manager for the purpose of managing, coordinating,

195 and monitoring the services provided to the child. Each program
 196 administrator within the Department of Children and Family
 197 Services shall cooperate with the primary case manager in 198 carrying out the duties and responsibilities described in this 199 section. In addition to duties specified in other sections and 200 through departmental rules, the assigned juvenile probation
 201 officer shall be responsible for the following:

202 (d) Completing risk assessment instrument.—The juvenile 203 probation officer shall ensure that a risk assessment instrument
 204 establishing the child's eligibility for detention has been 205 accurately completed and that the appropriate recommendation was 206 made to the court. If upon completion of the risk assessment
 207 instrument, the child is ineligible for secure detention based 208 on the criteria in s. 985.24(2)(e), the juvenile probation
 209 officer shall make a referral to the appropriate CINS/FINS
 210 shelter.

211 Section 8. Section 985.24, Florida Statutes, is amended to
 212 read:

213 985.24 Use of detention; prohibitions.—

214 (1) All determinations and court orders regarding the use
 215 of secure, nonsecure, or home detention shall be based primarily 216 upon findings that the child:

217 (a) Presents a substantial risk of not appearing at a
 218 subsequent hearing;

219 (b) Presents a substantial risk of inflicting bodily harm
 220 on others as evidenced by recent behavior;

221 (c) Presents a history of committing a property offense
 222 prior to adjudication, disposition, or placement;

- 223 (d) Has committed contempt of court by:
- 224 1. Intentionally disrupting the administration of the
- 225 court;
- 226 2. Intentionally disobeying a court order; or
- 227 3. Engaging in a punishable act or speech in the court's
- 228 presence which shows disrespect for the authority and dignity of
- 229 the court; or
- 230 (e) Requests protection from imminent bodily harm.
- 231 (2) A child alleged to have committed a delinquent act or
- 232 violation of law may not be placed into secure, nonsecure, or
- 233 home detention care for any of the following reasons:
- 234 (a) To allow a parent to avoid his or her legal
- 235 responsibility.
- 236 (b) To permit more convenient administrative access to the
- 237 child.
- 238 (c) To facilitate further interrogation or investigation.
- 239 (d) Due to a lack of more appropriate facilities.
- 240 (e) Due to a misdemeanor charge of domestic violence when
- 241 the child lives in a family with a history of domestic violence
- 242 as defined in s. 741.28 or has been a victim of abuse or neglect
- 243 as defined in s. 39.01, and the decision to place in secure
- 244 detention is mitigated by the history of trauma faced by the
- 245 child, unless the youth would otherwise score for secure
- 246 detention based on prior history.
- 247 (3) A child alleged to be dependent under chapter 39 may
- 248 not, under any circumstances, be placed into secure detention
- 249 care.
- 250 (4) A child 9 years of age or younger may not be placed in

251 secure detention unless the child is charged with a capital
 252 felony, a life felony, or a felony of the first degree.

253 (5)(4) The department shall continue to identify 254 alternatives to secure detention care and shall develop such 255 alternatives and annually submit them to the Legislature for 256 authorization and appropriation.

257 Section 9. Subsection (2) of section 985.245, Florida
 258 Statutes, is amended to read:

259 985.245 Risk assessment instrument.-

260 (2)(a) The risk assessment instrument for detention care
 261 placement determinations and court orders shall be developed by 262 the department in agreement with a committee composed of two 263 representatives appointed by the following associations: the 264 Conference of Circuit Judges of Florida, the Prosecuting
 265 Attorneys Association, the Public Defenders Association, the 266 Florida Sheriffs Association, and the Florida Association of 267 Chiefs of Police. Each association shall appoint two 268 individuals, one representing an urban area and one representing 269 a rural area. In addition, the committee shall include two 270 representatives from child advocacy organizations appointed by 271 the Secretary of the department. The parties involved shall 272 evaluate and revise the risk assessment instrument as is 273 considered necessary using the method for revision as agreed by 274 the parties.

275 (b) The risk assessment instrument shall take into 276 consideration, but need not be limited to, prior history of 277 failure to appear, prior offenses, offenses committed pending
 278 adjudication, any unlawful possession of a firearm, theft of a

279 | motor vehicle or possession of a stolen motor vehicle, and
 280 | probation status at the time the child is taken into custody.
 281 | The risk assessment instrument shall also take into
 282 | consideration appropriate aggravating and mitigating
 283 | circumstances, and shall be designed to target a narrower
 284 | population of children than s. 985.255. The risk assessment
 285 | instrument shall also include any information concerning the
 286 | child's history of abuse and neglect. The risk assessment shall
 287 | indicate whether detention care is warranted, and, if detention
 288 | care is warranted, whether the child should be placed into
 289 | secure, ~~nonsecure~~, or home detention care.

290 | (c) The risk assessment instrument shall be independently
 291 | validated. The department shall review the population, policies
 292 | and procedures impacting the use of detention every seven years
 293 | to determine the necessity of revalidating the risk assessment
 294 | instrument. Validation is assessing the effectiveness of the
 295 | instrument's ability to measure the risk of new offending and
 296 | failure to appear for court proceedings.

297 | Section 10. Section 985.255, Florida Statutes, is amended
 298 | to read:

299 | 985.255 Detention criteria; detention hearing.—

300 | (1) Subject to s. 985.25(1), a child taken into custody
 301 | and placed into ~~nonsecure~~ or home detention care or detained in
 302 | secure detention care prior to a detention hearing may continue
 303 | to be detained by the court if:

304 | (a) The child is alleged to be an escapee from a
 305 | residential commitment program; or an absconder from a
 306 | nonresidential commitment program, a probation program, or

307 conditional release supervision; or is alleged to have escaped
 308 while being lawfully transported to or from a residential
 309 commitment program.

310 (b) The child is wanted in another jurisdiction for an 311 offense which, if committed by an adult, would be a felony.

312 (c) The child is charged with a delinquent act or
 313 violation of law and requests in writing through legal counsel
 314 to be detained for protection from an imminent physical threat
 315 to his or her personal safety.

316 (d) The child is charged with committing a felony ~~an~~ 317 offense of domestic violence as defined in s. 741.28 and is 318 detained as provided in subsection (2).

319 (e) The child is charged with possession or discharging a
 320 firearm on school property in violation of s. 790.115.

321 (f) The child is charged with a capital felony, a life
 322 felony, a felony of the first degree, a felony of the second
 323 degree that does not involve a violation of chapter 893, or a
 324 felony of the third degree that is also a crime of violence,
 325 including any such offense involving the use or possession of a
 326 firearm.

327 (g) The child is charged with any second degree or third
 328 degree felony involving a violation of chapter 893 or any third 329 degree felony that is not also a crime of violence, and the 330 child:

331 1. Has a record of failure to appear at court hearings
 332 after being properly notified in accordance with the Rules of 333 Juvenile Procedure;

334 2. Has a record of law violations prior to court hearings;

335 3. Has already been detained or has been released and is
 336 awaiting final disposition of the case;

337 4. Has a record of violent conduct resulting in physical
 338 injury to others; or

339 5. Is found to have been in possession of a firearm.

340 (h) The child is alleged to have violated the conditions
 341 of the child's probation or conditional release supervision.
 342 However, a child detained under this paragraph may be held only
 343 in a consequence unit as provided in s. 985.439. If a
 344 consequence unit is not available, the child shall be placed on 345 home detention with electronic monitoring.

346 (i) The child is detained on a judicial order for failure
 347 to appear and has previously willfully failed to appear, after 348 proper notice, for an adjudicatory hearing on the same case
 349 regardless of the results of the risk assessment instrument. A
 350 child may be held in secure detention for up to 72 hours in 351 advance of the next scheduled court hearing pursuant to this 352 paragraph. The child's failure to keep the clerk of court and 353 defense counsel informed of a current and valid mailing address
 354 where the child will receive notice to appear at court
 355 proceedings does not provide an adequate ground for excusal of
 356 the child's nonappearance at the hearings.

357 (j) The child is detained on a judicial order for failure
 358 to appear and has previously willfully failed to appear, after 359 proper notice, at two or more court hearings of any nature on 360 the same case regardless of the results of the risk assessment
 361 instrument. A child may be held in secure detention for up to 72
 362 hours in advance of the next scheduled court hearing pursuant to

PCB PSDS 10-02

363 this paragraph. The child's failure to keep the clerk of court
364 and defense counsel informed of a current and valid mailing
365 address where the child will receive notice to appear at court
366 proceedings does not provide an adequate ground for excusal of 367 the child's nonappearance at the hearings.

368 (2) A child who is charged with committing a felony ~~an~~ 369 offense of domestic violence as defined in s. 741.28 and who 370 does not meet detention criteria may be held in secure detention
371 if the court makes specific written findings that:

372 (a) Respite care for the child is not available.

373 (b) It is necessary to place the child in secure detention
374 in order to protect the victim from injury.

375
376 The child may not be held in secure detention under this 377 subsection for more than 48 hours unless ordered by the court.
378 After 48 hours, the court shall hold a hearing if the state
379 attorney or victim requests that secure detention be continued.
380 The child may continue to be held in detention care if the court
381 makes a specific, written finding that detention care is 382 necessary to protect the victim from injury. However, the child
383 may not be held in detention care beyond the time limits set
384 forth in this section or s. 985.26.

385 (3)(a) A child who meets any of the criteria in subsection
386 (1) and who is ordered to be detained under that subsection
387 shall be given a hearing within 24 hours after being taken into 388 custody. The purpose of the detention hearing is to determine
389 the existence of probable cause that the child has committed the 390 delinquent act or violation of law that he or she is charged

391 with and the need for continued detention. Unless a child is 392 detained under paragraph (1)(d) or paragraph (1)(e), the court
 393 shall use the results of the risk assessment performed by the 394 juvenile probation officer and, based on the criteria in 395 subsection (1), shall determine the need for continued
 396 detention. A child placed into secure, nonsecure, or home
 397 detention care may continue to be so detained by the court.

398 (b) If the court orders a placement more restrictive than 399 indicated by the results of the risk assessment instrument, the 400 court shall state, in writing, clear and convincing reasons for 401 such placement.

402 (c) Except as provided in s. 790.22(8) or in s. 985.27,
 403 when a child is placed into secure or nonsecure detention care,
 404 or into a respite home or other placement pursuant to a court
 405 order following a hearing, the court order must include specific 406 instructions that direct the release of the child from such
 407 placement no later than 5 p.m. on the last day of the detention 408 period specified in s. 985.26 or s. 985.27, whichever is 409 applicable, unless the requirements of such applicable provision 410 have been met or an order of continuance has been granted under 411 s. 985.26(4).

412 Section 11. Subsection (8) of section 985.664, Florida
 413 Statutes, is amended to read:

414 985.664 Juvenile justice circuit boards and juvenile 415 justice county councils.—

416 (8) At any time after the adoption of initial bylaws
 417 pursuant to subsection (12), a juvenile justice circuit board
 418 may revise the bylaws to increase the number of members by not

419 more than five ~~three~~ in order to adequately reflect the 420 diversity of the population and community organizations or 421 agencies in the circuit.

422 Section 12. Paragraph (e) is added to subsection (1) of 423 section 985.441, Florida Statutes, to read:

424 985.441 Commitment.—

425 (1) The court that has jurisdiction of an adjudicated
 426 delinquent child may, by an order stating the facts upon which a
 427 determination of a sanction and rehabilitative program was made
 428 at the disposition hearing:

429 (e) Commit the child to the department for placement in a
 430 mother-infant program designed to serve the needs of the 431 juvenile mothers or expectant juvenile mothers who are committed 432 as delinquents. The department's mother-infant program shall be 433 licensed as a child care facility in accordance with s. 402.308
 434 and shall provide the services and support necessary to enable 435 the committed juvenile mothers to provide for the needs of the 436 infants who, upon agreement of the mother, may accompany them in 437 the program. The department shall adopt rule provisions pursuant 438 to ch. 120 to govern operation of such programs.

439 Section 13. Section 985.632, Florida Statutes, is amended
 440 to read:

441 985.632 Quality assurance and cost-effectiveness.—

442 (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that the 443 department:

444 (a) Ensure that information be provided to decisionmakers
 445 in a timely manner so that resources are allocated to programs
 446 that ~~of the department which~~ achieve desired performance levels.

447 (b) Collect and analyze available statistical data for the 448 purpose of ongoing evaluation of all programs.

449 ~~(c)~~ Provide information about the cost of such programs
 450 and their differential effectiveness so that program the quality
 451 ~~of such programs~~ can be compared and improvements made
 452 continually.

453 ~~(d)~~ Provide information to aid in developing related
 454 policy issues and concerns.

455 ~~(e)~~ Provide information to the public about the 456 effectiveness of such programs in meeting established goals and 457 objectives.

458 ~~(f)~~ Provide a basis for a system of accountability so
 459 that each youth client is afforded the best programs to meet his 460 or her needs.

461 ~~(g)~~ Improve service delivery to youth clients.

462 ~~(h)~~ Modify or eliminate activities that are not 463 effective.

464 (2) DEFINITIONS.--As used in this section, the term:

465 (a) "Youth" ~~"Client"~~ means any person who is being 466 provided treatment or services by the department or by a
 467 provider under contract with the department.

468 (b) "Program" means any facility, service, or program for 469 youth that is operated by the department or by a provider under 470 contract with the department.

471 ~~(c)~~ "Program component" means an aggregation of 472 generally related objectives which, because of their special
 473 character, related workload, and interrelated output, can 474 logically be considered an entity for purposes of organization,

475 management, accounting, reporting, and budgeting.

476 ~~(c) "Program effectiveness" means the ability of the~~ 477 ~~program to achieve desired client outcomes, goals, and~~
 478 ~~objectives.~~

479 (d) "Program group" means a collection of programs with 480 sufficient similarity of functions, services, and youth to 481 permit appropriate comparison among programs within the group.

482 (3) COMPREHENSIVE ACCOUNTABILITY REPORT.--The department
 483 shall use a standard methodology for annually measuring,
 484 evaluating, and reporting program outputs and youth outcomes for 485 each program and program group. The department shall submit a 486 report to the appropriate substantive and fiscal committees of 487 the Legislature and the Governor no later than January 15 of 488 each year. The department shall notify the Office of Program
 489 Policy Analysis and Government Accountability and contract
 490 service providers of substantive changes to the methodology.

491 (a) The standard methodology must:

492 1. Incorporate, whenever possible, performance-based 493 budgeting measures.

494 2. Include common terminology and operational definitions
 495 for measuring the performance of system and program
 496 administration, program outputs, and youth outcomes.

497 3. Specify program outputs for each program and for each
 498 program group within the juvenile justice continuum.

499 4. Specify desired youth outcomes and methods by which to 500 measure youth outcomes for each program and program group.

501 ~~(3) The department shall annually collect and report cost~~
 502 ~~data for every program operated or contracted by the department.~~

503 ~~The cost data shall conform to a format approved by the~~ 504 ~~department and the Legislature. Uniform cost data shall be~~
 505 ~~reported and collected for state operated and contracted~~
 506 ~~programs so that comparisons can be made among programs. The~~ 507 ~~department shall ensure that there is accurate cost accounting~~
 508 ~~for state operated services including market equivalent rent and~~
 509 ~~other shared cost. The cost of the educational program provided~~ 510 ~~to a residential facility shall be reported and included in the~~ 511 ~~cost of a program. The department shall submit an annual cost~~
 512 ~~report to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House~~
 513 ~~of Representatives, the Minority Leader of each house of the~~ 514 ~~Legislature, the appropriate substantive and fiscal committees~~
 515 ~~of each house of the Legislature, and the Governor, no later~~
 516 ~~than December 1 of each year. Cost benefit analysis for~~ 517 ~~educational programs will be developed and implemented in~~ 518 ~~collaboration with and in cooperation with the Department of~~ 519 ~~Education, local providers, and local school districts. Cost~~
 520 ~~data for the report shall include data collected by the~~ 521 ~~Department of Education for the purposes of preparing the annual~~ 522 ~~report required by s. 1003.52(19).~~

523 ~~(4)(a) COST-EFFECTIVENESS MODEL.The department Department~~
 524 ~~of Juvenile Justice, in consultation with the Office of Economic~~ 525 ~~and Demographic Research, and contract service providers, shall~~
 526 ~~develop a cost effectiveness model and apply the cost-~~
 527 ~~effectiveness model to each commitment program and include the~~
 528 ~~results in the Comprehensive Accountability Report. Program~~
 529 ~~recidivism rates shall be a component of the model.~~

530 ~~(a) The cost-effectiveness model shall compare program~~

531 costs to expected and actual youth recidivism rates ~~client~~
532 ~~outcomes and program outputs~~. It is the intent of the 533 Legislature that continual development efforts take place to 534 improve the validity and reliability of the cost-effectiveness
535 model and to ~~integrate the standard methodology developed under~~ 536 ~~s. 985.401(4) for interpreting program outcome evaluations~~.

537 ~~(b) The department shall rank commitment programs based on~~ 538 ~~the cost effectiveness model and shall submit a report to the~~ 539 ~~appropriate substantive and fiscal committees of each house of~~
540 ~~the Legislature by December 31 of each year.~~

541 (b)(c) Based on ~~reports of the department on client~~
542 ~~outcomes and program outputs~~ and on the department's most recent 543 cost-effectiveness rankings, the department may terminate a
544 commitment program operated by the department or a provider if 545 the program has failed to achieve a minimum threshold of cost-
546 effectiveness program effectiveness. This paragraph does not 547 preclude the department from terminating a contract as provided
548 under this section or as otherwise provided by law or contract, 549 and does not limit the department's authority to enter into or 550 terminate a contract.

551 (c)(d) The department shall notify the Office of Program
552 Policy Analysis and Government Accountability and contract
553 service providers of substantive changes to the cost-
554 effectiveness model. ~~In collaboration with the Office of~~
555 ~~Economic and Demographic Research, and contract service~~
556 ~~providers, the department shall develop a work plan to refine~~
557 ~~the cost effectiveness model so that the model is consistent~~
558 ~~with the performance based program budgeting measures approved~~

559 ~~by the Legislature to the extent the department deems~~
 560 ~~appropriate. The department shall notify the Office of Program~~
 561 ~~Policy Analysis and Government Accountability of any meetings to~~ 562 ~~refine the model.~~

563 ~~(d)(e)~~ Contingent upon specific appropriation, the 564 department, in consultation with the Office of Economic and 565 Demographic Research, and contract service providers, shall:

566 1. Construct a profile of each commitment program that 567 uses the results of the quality assurance report required by 568 this section, the cost-effectiveness report required in this 569 subsection, and other reports available to the department.

570 2. Target, for a more comprehensive evaluation, any 571 commitment program that has achieved consistently high, low, or 572 disparate ratings in the reports required under subparagraph 1.

573 3. Identify the essential factors that contribute to the 574 high, low, or disparate program ratings.

575 4. Use the results of these evaluations in developing or 576 refining juvenile justice programs or program models, youth
 577 ~~client~~ outcomes and program outputs, provider contracts, quality
 578 assurance standards, and the cost-effectiveness model.

579 (5) QUALITY ASSURANCE.--The department shall:

580 (a) Establish a comprehensive quality assurance system for 581 each program operated by the department or operated by a
 582 provider under contract with the department. Each contract
 583 entered into by the department must provide for quality
 584 assurance and include the results in the Comprehensive 585 Accountability Report.

586 (b) Provide operational definitions of and criteria for 587 quality assurance for each specific program component.

588 (c) Establish quality assurance goals and objectives for 589 each specific program component.

590 (d) Establish the information and specific data elements
591 required for the quality assurance program.

592 (e) Develop a quality assurance manual of specific,
593 standardized terminology and procedures to be followed by each
594 program.

595 (f) Evaluate each program operated by the department or a
596 provider under a contract with the department and establish 597 minimum thresholds for each program component. If a provider
598 fails to meet the established minimum thresholds, such failure
599 shall cause the department to cancel the provider's contract
600 unless the provider achieves compliance with minimum thresholds
601 within 6 months or unless there are documented extenuating
602 circumstances. In addition, the department may not contract with 603 the same provider for the canceled service for a period of 12
604 months. If a department-operated program fails to meet the 605 established minimum thresholds, the department must take 606 necessary and sufficient steps to ensure and document program
607 changes to achieve compliance with the established minimum
608 thresholds. If the department-operated program fails to achieve
609 compliance with the established minimum thresholds within 6
610 months and if there are no documented extenuating circumstances,
611 the department must notify the Executive Office of the Governor
612 and the Legislature of the corrective action taken. Appropriate 613 corrective action may include, but is not limited to:

614 1. Contracting out for the services provided in the

615 program;

616 2. Initiating appropriate disciplinary action against all
 617 employees whose conduct or performance is deemed to have 618 materially contributed to the program's failure to meet
 619 established minimum thresholds;

620 3. Redesigning the program; or

621 4. Realigning the program.

622

623 ~~The department shall submit an annual report to the President of~~ 624 ~~the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the~~ 625 ~~Minority Leader of each house of the Legislature, the~~
 626 ~~appropriate substantive and fiscal committees of each house of~~ 627 ~~the Legislature, and the Governor, no later than February 1 of~~ 628 ~~each year. The annual report must contain, at a minimum, for~~ 629 ~~each specific program component: a comprehensive description of~~ 630 ~~the population served by the program; a specific description of~~ 631 ~~the services provided by the program; cost; a comparison of~~ 632 ~~expenditures to federal and state funding; immediate and long-~~
 633 ~~range concerns; and recommendations to maintain, expand,~~
 634 ~~improve, modify, or eliminate each program component so that~~ 635 ~~changes in services lead to enhancement in program quality. The~~ 636 ~~department shall ensure the reliability and validity of the~~ 637 ~~information contained in the report.~~

638 ~~(6) The department shall collect and analyze available~~
 639 ~~statistical data for the purpose of ongoing evaluation of all~~
 640 ~~programs. The department shall provide the Legislature with~~ 641 ~~necessary information and reports to enable the Legislature to~~
 642 ~~make informed decisions regarding the effectiveness of, and any~~

643 ~~needed changes in, services, programs, policies, and laws.~~
644 ~~(7) No later than November 1, 2001, the department shall~~
645 ~~submit a proposal to the Legislature concerning funding~~
646 ~~incentives and disincentives for the department and for~~
647 ~~providers under contract with the department. The~~ 648 ~~recommendations for funding incentives and disincentives shall~~
649 ~~be based upon both quality assurance performance and cost-~~
650 ~~effectiveness performance. The proposal should strive to achieve~~
651 ~~consistency in incentives and disincentives for both department-~~
652 ~~operated and contractor provided programs. The department may~~ 653 ~~include recommendations for the use of liquidated damages in the~~ 654 ~~proposal; however, the department is not presently authorized to~~

656 ~~facilities until January 1, 2002.~~

657 Section 14. Subsection (1) of section 985.45, Florida
658 Statutes, is amended to read:

659 985.45 Liability and remuneration for work.-

660 (1) Whenever a child is required by the court to 661 participate in any work program under this part or whenever a
662 child volunteers to work in a specified state, county,
663 municipal, or community service organization supervised work
664 program or to work for the victim, either as an alternative to 665 monetary restitution or as a part of the rehabilitative or 666 probation program, the child is an employee of the state for the 667 purposes of ch. 440 liability.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES STAFF ANALYSIS

BILL #: PCB PSDS 10-02 Department of Juvenile Justice
SPONSOR(S): Public Safety & Domestic Security Policy Committee
TIED BILLS: IDEN./SIM. BILLS:

Table with 4 columns: REFERENCE, ACTION, ANALYST, STAFF DIRECTOR. Row 1: Public Safety & Domestic Security Policy Committee, Cunningham, Cunningham.

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The PCB makes various changes to Chapter 985, F.S., relating to juvenile justice, as well as changes to the "Children and Families in Need of Services" (CINS/FINS) statute and the "Comprehensive Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services Act." Specifically, the PCB:

- Amends the definition of "child or adolescent at risk of emotional disturbance" to include the additional risk factor of "being 9 years of age or younger at the time of referral for a delinquent act."
Provides changes to the "child in need of services" and "families in need of services" definitions to allow youth 9 year of age or younger who have been referred to the Department of Juvenile Justice (Department) to be served by the CINS/FINS network.
Permits a child who has been taken into custody for a misdemeanor domestic violence charge to be placed in a shelter prior to a court hearing.
Promotes the use of restorative justice practices to support victims of juvenile delinquency;
Encourages specified entities to establish prearrest/postarrest diversion programs and provides that youth 9 years of age or younger should be given the opportunity to participate in such programs.
Requires juvenile probation officers to make a referral to the appropriate CINS/FINS shelter if a child taken into custody for a domestic violence offense is ineligible for secure detention.
Requires the Department to independently validate the detention risk assessment instrument and adds two child advocates to the committee responsible for developing the risk assessment instrument.
Authorizes the court to commit a child who has been adjudicated delinquent to the Department for placement in a mother-infant program.
Requires the Department to submit an annual Comprehensive Accountability Report to the Governor and Legislature detailing the effectiveness of Department programs.

The PCB takes effect upon becoming a law and does not appear to have a fiscal impact.

HOUSE PRINCIPLES

Members are encouraged to evaluate proposed legislation in light of the following guiding principles of the House of Representatives

- Balance the state budget.
- Create a legal and regulatory environment that fosters economic growth and job creation.
- Lower the tax burden on families and businesses.
- Reverse or restrain the growth of government.
- Promote public safety.
- Promote educational accountability, excellence, and choice.
- Foster respect for the family and for innocent human life.
- Protect Florida's natural beauty.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Child and Adolescent Mental Health System of Care – Eligibility

Chapter 394, F.S., entitled the "Comprehensive Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services Act," requires the Department of Children and Families (DCF) to establish a child and adolescent mental health system of care that provides array of services to meet the individualized service and treatment needs of children¹ and adolescents² who are members of specified target populations. Currently, only individuals who fall within the following categories are eligible to be served through the child and adolescent mental health system of care:

- Children and adolescents who are experiencing an acute mental or emotional crisis.
- Children and adolescents who have a serious emotional disturbance or mental illness.
- Children and adolescents who have an emotional disturbance.
- Children and adolescents who are at risk of emotional disturbance.³

Section 394.492(4), F.S., currently defines a "child or adolescent at risk of emotional disturbance" as a person under 18 years of age who has an increased likelihood of becoming emotionally disturbed because of risk factors that include, but are not limited to:

- Being homeless.
- Having a family history of mental illness.
- Being physically or sexually abused or neglected.
- Abusing alcohol or other substances.
- Being infected with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV).
- Having a chronic and serious physical illness.
- Having been exposed to domestic violence.
- Having multiple out-of-home placements.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends the definition of "child or adolescent at risk of emotional disturbance" to include the additional risk factor of "being 9 years of age or younger at the time of referral for a delinquent act." This change will expand the pool of persons eligible to receive treatment services through the child and adolescent mental health system of care.

¹ Section 394.492, F.S., defines the term "child" as "a person from birth until the person's 13th birthday."

² Section 394.492, F.S., defines the term "adolescent" as "a person who is at least 13 years of age but under 18 years of age."

³ Each of these groups is defined in s. 394.492, F.S.

Children and Families in Need of Services - Definitions

The Department of Juvenile Justice's (Department) CINS/FINS network provides services and treatment to children and families in need of services that are designed to preserve the integrity and unity of the family.⁴ Such services and treatment include, but are not limited to, parent training, runaway center services, intensive crisis counseling, and placement in a staff-secure shelter. To be eligible for such services and treatment, a child or family must first meet the definition of a "child in need of services" or a "family in need of services."

Section 984.03(9), F.S., currently defines the term "child in need of services" as:

A child for whom there is no pending investigation into an allegation or suspicion of abuse, neglect, or abandonment; no pending referral alleging the child is delinquent; or no current supervision by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the Department of Children and Family Services for an adjudication of dependency or delinquency. The child must also be found by the court:

- To have persistently run away from the child's parents or legal custodians despite reasonable efforts of the child, the parents or legal custodians, and appropriate agencies to remedy the conditions contributing to the behavior. Reasonable efforts shall include voluntary participation by the child's parents or legal custodians and the child in family mediation, services, and treatment offered by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the Department of Children and Family Services;
- To be habitually truant from school, while subject to compulsory school attendance, despite reasonable efforts to remedy the situation pursuant to ss. 1003.26 and 1003.27 and through voluntary participation by the child's parents or legal custodians and by the child in family mediation, services, and treatment offered by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the Department of Children and Family Services; or
- To have persistently disobeyed the reasonable and lawful demands of the child's parents or legal custodians, and to be beyond their control despite efforts by the child's parents or legal custodians and appropriate agencies to remedy the conditions contributing to the behavior. Reasonable efforts may include such things as good faith participation in family or individual counseling.

Section 984.03(25), F.S., currently defines the term "family in need of services" as:

A family that has a child who is running away; who is persistently disobeying reasonable and lawful demands of the parent or legal custodian and is beyond the control of the parent or legal custodian; or who is habitually truant from school or engaging in other serious behaviors that place the child at risk of future abuse, neglect, or abandonment or at risk of entering the juvenile justice system. The child must be referred to a law enforcement agency, the Department of Juvenile Justice, or an agency contracted to provide services to children in need of services. A family is not eligible to receive services if, at the time of the referral, there is an open investigation into an allegation of abuse, neglect, or abandonment or if the child is currently under supervision by the Department of Juvenile Justice or the Department of Children and Family Services due to an adjudication of dependency or delinquency.

The above definitions currently exclude children who have a pending referral to the Department from being served by the CINS/FINS network. The Department reports that 498 children age 9 or younger were referred to the Department during FY 08-09. As such, these youth were excluded from being served through the CINS/FINS network.

⁴ See ch. 984, F.S.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends the definitions of “child in need of services” and “family in need of services” in s. 984.03, F.S., to include youth who are 9 years of age or younger who have a delinquency referral. As a result, these youth will be able to receive CINS/FINS services even though they have an active referral to the Department.

The PCB makes the same changes to the definitions of “child in need of services” and “family in need of services” in the delinquency statute, s. 985.03(7), F.S.

Shelter Placement

Section 984.13, F.S., provides that a child may be taken into custody:

- By a law enforcement officer when the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the child has run away from his or her parents, guardian, or other legal custodian;
- By a law enforcement officer when the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the child is absent from school without authorization or is suspended or expelled and is not in the presence of his or her parent or legal guardian, for the purpose of delivering the child without unreasonable delay to the appropriate school system site;
- Pursuant to an order of the circuit court based upon sworn testimony before or after a petition seeking an adjudication that a child is a child in need of services is filed; or
- By a law enforcement officer when the child voluntarily agrees to or requests services pursuant to this chapter or placement in a shelter.

Section 984.14, F.S. provides that unless ordered by the court or upon voluntary consent by the child and the child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian, a child taken into custody shall not be placed in a shelter⁵ prior to a court hearing unless a determination has been made that the provision of appropriate and available services will not eliminate the need for placement and that such placement is required:

- To provide an opportunity for the child and family to agree upon conditions for the child's return home, when immediate placement in the home would result in a substantial likelihood that the child and family would not reach an agreement; or
- Because a parent, custodian, or guardian is unavailable to take immediate custody of the child.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends s. 984.14, F.S. to add that a child may also be placed into custody prior to a court hearing if the child is taken into custody for a misdemeanor domestic violence charge and is ineligible to be placed in secure detention.⁶ The Department reports that there were 7,263 children with misdemeanor domestic violence-related offenses referred to the Department in FY 08-09. The PCB allows these children to be placed in a shelter prior to a court hearing rather than being placed back into the home where the domestic violence allegedly occurred.

⁵ Section 984.03(39), F.S., defines the term “shelter” as “a place for the temporary care of a child who is alleged to be or who has been found to be dependent, a child from a family in need of services, or a child in need of services, pending court disposition before or after adjudication or after execution of a court order. “Shelter” may include a facility which provides 24-hour continual supervision for the temporary care of a child who is placed pursuant to s. 984.14.”

⁶ Section 984.03(18), F.S., defines the term “secure detention” as “temporary custody of the child while the child is under the physical restriction of a detention center or facility pending adjudication, disposition, or placement.”

Legislative Intent

Section 985.02, F.S., sets forth the legislature's intent for the juvenile justice system. The PCB creates two new subsections under s. 985.02, F.S., entitled "children nine years of age or younger" and "restorative justice." The new subsections provide the following:

- Children 9 Years of Age or Younger
 - o The Legislature finds that very young children need age-appropriate services in order to prevent and reduce future acts of delinquency. Children who are 9 years of age or younger should be diverted into prearrest or postarrest programs, civil citations programs, or child-in-need-of-services and families-in-need-of-services programs, or other programs as appropriate. If, upon findings from the needs assessment, the child is found to be in need of mental health services or substance abuse treatment services, the department shall cooperate with the parent or legal guardian and the Department of Children and Family Services, as appropriate, to identify the most appropriate services and supports and available funding sources to meet the needs of the child.⁷

- Restorative Justice
 - o It is the intent of the Legislature that the juvenile justice system advance the principles of restorative justice. The department should focus on repairing the harm to victims of delinquent behavior, ensuring the youth understands the impact of their delinquent behavior on the victim and the community, and restoring the loss to the victim.
 - o Offender accountability is one of the basic principles of restorative justice. The premise of this principle is that the juvenile justice system must respond to delinquent behavior in such a way that the offender is made aware of and takes responsibility for repaying or restoring loss, damage, or injury perpetrated upon the victim and the community. This goal is achieved when the offender understands the consequences of delinquent behaviors in terms of harm to others; and when the offender makes amends for the harm, loss or damage through restitution, community services or other appropriate payment.

Pre-Arrest and Post-Arrest Diversion Programs

Section 985.125, F.S., allows a law enforcement agency or a school district, in cooperation with the state attorney, to create a prearrest or postarrest diversion program for children who have committed or been alleged to have committed a delinquent act. Diversion is a process designed to keep a youth from entering the juvenile justice system through the legal process. Diversion programs include community arbitration, Juvenile Alternative Services Program (JASP), teen court, civil citation, boy scouts and girl scouts, boys and girls clubs, mentoring programs, and alternative schools.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB adds counties, municipalities, and the DJJ to the list of entities that may establish prearrest and postarrest diversion programs. It also specifies that youth 9 years of age or younger should be given the opportunity to participate in a prearrest or postarrest diversion program.

Intake

Section 985.14, F.S., requires the Department to develop an intake system whereby a child brought into intake is assigned a juvenile probation officer. The purpose of the intake process is to assess the child's needs and risks and to determine the most appropriate treatment plan and setting for the child's programmatic needs and risks. The intake process is performed by the Department through a case

⁷ The Department reports that it communicates with DCF regularly about youth who are served by both agencies. According to a FY 07-8 analysis of youth IDs, DCF had contact with approximately 30 percent of the youth age 9 and younger who were referred to the Department for a delinquent act.

management system, and a child's assigned juvenile probation officer serves as the primary case manager.⁸

Currently, s. 985.145(1)(d), F.S., requires a child's juvenile probation officer to ensure that a risk assessment instrument that establishes the child's eligibility for detention has been completed and that the appropriate recommendation was made to the court.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends s. 985.145(1)(d), F.S. to add that juvenile probation officers must make a referral to the appropriate CINS/FINS shelter if a child is ineligible for secure detention due to a misdemeanor charge of domestic violence when the child lives with a family with a history of domestic violence or has been a victim of abuse or neglect.

Detention – Initial Assessment

Section 985.24, F.S., provides criteria used in determining if a child alleged to have committed a delinquent act qualifies for detention. Subsection (2) of the statute specifies that a child alleged to have committed a delinquent act may not be placed in detention for any of the following reasons:

- To allow a parent to avoid his or her legal responsibilities;
- To permit more convenient administrative access to the child;
- To facilitate further interrogation or investigation; or
- Due to a lack of appropriate facilities.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends s. 985.24(2), F.S., by adding the following reason to the above list:

- Due to a misdemeanor charge of domestic violence when the child lives with a family with a history of domestic violence or has been a victim of abuse or neglect, and the decision to place in secure detention is mitigated by the history of trauma faced by the child, unless the youth would otherwise score for secure detention based on prior history.

The PCB also provides children 9 years of age or younger not be placed into secure detention unless the child is charged with a capital felony, life felony, or a first degree felony.

Risk Assessment Instrument

Section 985.245, F.S., requires a detention risk assessment instrument to be developed by the Department in agreement with representatives appointed by the following associations:

- Conference of Circuit Judges of Florida
- Prosecuting Attorneys Association
- Public Defenders Association
- Florida Sheriff's Association
- Florida Association of Chiefs of Police

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends s. 985.245, F.S., to provide that the risk assessment instrument be developed by the Department in agreement with a committee composed of two representatives from the above-listed association, as well as two representatives from child advocacy organizations appointed by the Secretary of the Department.

Additionally, the PCB amends s. 985.245, F.S., to require that the risk assessment instrument be independently validated. The PCB requires the Department to review the population, policies and procedures impacting the use of detention every seven years to determine the necessity of revalidating the instrument, and specifies that validation is assessing the effectiveness of the instrument's ability to measure the risk of new offending and failure to appear for court proceedings.

Continued Detention

Section 985.255, F.S. provides criteria the court may use in determining whether to continue to detain a child prior to a detention hearing. Section 985.255(1)(d), F.S. provides the court may continue to detain a child if the child is charged with domestic violence. Additionally, subsection (2) of the statute provides that a child who is charged with committing an offense of domestic violence and who does not meet detention criteria may be held in secure detention if the court makes specific findings.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends s. 985.255(1)(d), F.S. to provide the court may consider only whether the child is charged with felony domestic violence when determining whether to continue to detain a child prior to a detention hearing. The PCB also amends subsection (2) of the statute to specify that a child who is charged with committing a felony offense of domestic violence and who does not meet detention criteria may be held in secure detention if the court makes specific findings.

Juvenile Justice Circuit Boards

Section 985.664, F.S., authorizes the creation of a juvenile justice circuit board in each of the 20 judicial circuits and a juvenile justice county council in each of the 67 counties. The purpose of each juvenile justice circuit board and each juvenile justice county council is to provide advice and direction to the Department in the development and implementation of juvenile justice programs and to work collaboratively with the Department in seeking program improvements and policy changes to address the emerging and changing needs of Florida's youth who are at risk of delinquency.⁹

Generally, membership of the circuit board may not exceed 18 members.¹⁰ However, s. 985.664(8), F.S., permits a juvenile justice circuit board to revise its bylaws to increase the number of members by no more than three in order to adequately reflect the diversity of the population and community organizations or agencies in the circuit.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends s. 985.664(8), F.S., to expand the number of additional members that may be added to the juvenile justice circuit boards to adequately reflect the community diversity from 3 to 5.

Commitment – Mother-Infant Programs

Section 985.441, F.S., authorizes a court that has jurisdiction of an adjudicated delinquent child to commit the child to:

- A licensed child-caring agency willing to receive the child
- The Department at a restrictiveness level defined in s. 985.03, F.S.
- The Department for placement in a program/facility for serious or habitual juvenile offenders
- The Department for placement in a program or facility for juvenile sexual offenders

The Department currently operates a 20-bed mother-infant program in Miami-Dade county that serves pregnant and postpartum females ages 14-19. The goal of the program is to return the women back to their communities with skills necessary to lead productive lives and successfully parent their children. At this time, there is no statutory provision allowing a court to commit a child who has been adjudicated delinquent to a mother-infant program.

⁹ s. 985.664(1), F.S.

¹⁰ s. 985.664(7), F.S. In certain instances, the circuit board may exceed 18 members. See s. 985.664(8) and (9), F.S.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB amends s. 985.441, F.S., to authorize the court to commit a child to the Department for placement in a mother-infant program designed to serve the needs of juvenile mothers or expectant juvenile mothers who are committed as delinquents. The PCB requires the Department's mother-infant program to be licensed as a childcare facility under s. 402.308, F.S., and requires the program to provide the services and support necessary to enable the committed juvenile mothers to provide for the needs of the infants who, upon agreement of the mother, may accompany them in the program. The PCB also requires the Department to adopt rules to govern the program.

Comprehensive Accountability Report

Legislative Intent

Section 985.632(1), F.S., provides that it is the intent of the Legislature that the Department:

- Ensure that information be provided to decisionmakers in a timely manner so that resources are allocated to programs of the department which achieve desired performance levels.
- Provide information about the cost of such programs and their differential effectiveness so that the quality of such programs can be compared and improvements made continually.
- Provide information to aid in developing related policy issues and concerns.
- Provide information to the public about the effectiveness of such programs in meeting established goals and objectives.
- Provide a basis for a system of accountability so that each client is afforded the best programs to meet his or her needs.
- Improve service delivery to clients.
- Modify or eliminate activities that are not effective.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB adds to the above list that it is the intent of the Legislature that the Department collect and analyze available statistical data for the purpose of ongoing evaluation of all programs.

The PCB also deletes the definition of the term "program effectiveness" and creates the following definitions in s. 985.632(2), F.S.:

- "Program" means any facility, service, or program for youth that is operated by the department or by a provider under contract with the department.
- "Program group" means a collection of programs with sufficient similarity of functions, services, and youth to permit appropriate comparison among programs within the group.

Comprehensive Accountability Report

Currently, s. 985.632(3), F.S., requires the Department to annually collect and report cost data for every program operated or contracted by the Department. The cost data must conform to a format approved by the Department and the Legislature and shall be reported and collected for state-operated and contracted programs so that comparisons can be made among programs. The statute also requires the Department to ensure that there is accurate cost accounting for state-operated services including market-equivalent rent and other shared cost. Further, the Department must submit an annual cost report to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Minority Leader of each house of the Legislature, the appropriate substantive and fiscal committees of each house of the Legislature, and the Governor, no later than December 1 of each year.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB deletes s. 985.632(3), F.S., in its entirety and replaces it with language requiring the Department to:

- Use a standard methodology for annually measuring, evaluating, and reporting program outputs and youth outcomes for each program and program group.
- Submit a Comprehensive Accountability Report to the appropriate substantive and fiscal committees of the Legislature and the Governor no later than January 15 of each year.

- Notify the Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government Accountability (OPPAGA) and contract service providers of substantive changes to the methodology.

The PCB specifies that the standard methodology must:

- Incorporate, whenever possible, performance-based budgeting measures/
- Include common terminology and operational definitions for measuring the performance of system and program administration, program outputs, and youth outcomes.
- Specify program outputs for each program and for each program group within the juvenile justice continuum.
- Specify desired youth outcomes and methods by which to measure youth outcomes for each program and program group.

Cost-Effectiveness Model

Section 985.632(4), F.S., currently requires the Department to develop a cost-effectiveness model and apply it to each commitment program. The statute also requires the Department to rank commitment programs based on the cost-effectiveness model and submit a report to specified entities. The Department is also required to develop a work plan to refine the cost-effectiveness model so that the model is consistent with the performance based program budgeting measures approved by the legislature to the extent the Department deems appropriate.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB makes several amendments to s. 985.632(4), F.S. The amendments:

- Require the Department to include the results of the cost-effectiveness model in the Comprehensive Accountability Report.
- Remove the language requiring the Department to rank commitment programs based on the cost-effectiveness model.
- Replaces the language requiring the Department to develop a work plan to refine the cost-effectiveness model with language requiring the Department to notify OPPAGA and contract service providers of substantive changes to the cost-effectiveness model.

Quality Assurance

Section 985.632(5), F.S., requires the Department to establish a comprehensive quality assurance system for each program operated by the Department or operated by a provider under contract with the Department. The statute also requires the Department to submit an annual report relating to quality assurance to specified entities. The annual report must include specified information about each program component.

Effect of the PCB

The PCB removes the requirement that the Department submit the annual quality assurance report and instead requires the Department to include quality assurance information in the Comprehensive Accountability Report.

Obsolete Reporting Requirement

The PCB removes an obsolete requirement that the Department submit a proposal to the Legislature by November 1, 2001 concerning funding incentives and disincentives for the Department and for providers under contract with the Department.

 11 cause determination; amending s. 932.701, F.S.; revising
 12 the definition of the term "contraband;" providing an 13 effective date.

14
 15 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

16
 17 Section 1. Section 509.144, Florida Statutes, is amended
 18 to read:

19 509.144 Prohibited handbill distribution in a public
 20 lodging establishment; penalties.—

21 (1) As used in this section, the term:

22 (a) "Handbill" means a flier, leaflet, pamphlet, or other
 23 written material that advertises, promotes, or informs persons
 24 about an individual, business, company, or food service
 25 establishment, but shall not include employee communications
 26 permissible under the National Labor Relations Act.

27 (b) "Without permission" means without the expressed
 28 written ~~or oral~~ permission of the owner, manager, or agent of

29 the owner or manager of the public lodging establishment where a 30 sign is posted prohibiting advertising or solicitation in the 31 manner provided in subsection (4).

32 (c) "At or in a public lodging establishment" means any 33 property under the sole ownership or control of a public lodging
 34 establishment.

35 (2) Any individual, agent, contractor, or volunteer who is 36 acting on behalf of an individual, business, company, or food
 37 service establishment and who, without permission, delivers,
 38 distributes, or places, or attempts to deliver, distribute, or 39 place, a handbill at or in a public lodging establishment
 40 commits a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as 41 provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

42 (3) Any person who, without permission, directs another
 43 person to deliver, distribute, or place, or attempts to deliver,
 44 distribute, or place, a handbill at or in a public lodging
 45 establishment commits a misdemeanor of the first degree,
 46 punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any person
 47 sentenced under this subsection shall be ordered to pay a
 48 minimum fine of $1,000 ~~$500~~ in addition to any other penalty
 49 imposed by the court.

50 (4) In addition to any other penalty imposed by the court,
 51 a person who violates subsection (2) or (3):

52 (a) A second time shall be ordered to pay a minimum fine of 53 $2,000.

54 (b) A third or subsequent time shall be ordered to pay a
 55 minimum fine of $3,000.

56 (5)~~(4)~~ For purposes of this section, a public lodging

57 establishment that intends to prohibit advertising or 58 solicitation, as described in this section, at or in such 59 establishment must comply with the following requirements when 60 posting a sign prohibiting such solicitation or advertising:

61 (a) There must appear prominently on any sign referred to 62 in this subsection, in letters of not less than 2 inches in
 63 height, the terms "no advertising" or "no solicitation" or terms
 64 that indicate the same meaning.

65 (b) The sign must be posted conspicuously.

66 (c) If the main office of the public lodging establishment
 67 is immediately accessible by entering the office through a door
 68 from a street, parking lot, grounds, or other area outside such 69 establishment, the sign must be placed on a part of the main
 70 office, such as a door or window, and the sign must face the 71 street, parking lot, grounds, or other area outside such 72 establishment.

73 (d) If the main office of the public lodging establishment
 74 is not immediately accessible by entering the office through a
 75 door from a street, parking lot, grounds, or other area outside
 76 such establishment, the sign must be placed in the immediate 77 vicinity of the main entrance to such establishment, and the 78 sign must face the street, parking lot, grounds, or other area
 79 outside such establishment.

80 (6) Any personal property, including, but not limited to,
 81 any vehicle of any kind, item, object, tool, device, weapon,
 82 machine, money, securities, books, or records, which was used or 83 was attempted to be used as an instrumentality in the commission
 84 of, or in aiding and abetting in the commission of, a person's

85 third or subsequent violation of this section, whether or not 86 comprising an element of the offense, is subject to seizure and 87 forfeiture under the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act.

88 Section 2. Subsection (16) is added to section 901.15,
 89 Florida Statutes, to read:

90 901.15 When arrest by officer without warrant is lawful.—A
 91 law enforcement officer may arrest a person without a warrant 92 when:

93 (16) The officer has determined that he or she has probable
 94 cause to believe that a violation of s. 509.144 has been
 95 committed and where the owner or manager of the public lodging
 96 establishment in which the violation occurred signs an affidavit
 97 containing information that supports the officer's probable
 98 cause determination.

99 Section 3. Paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section
 100 932.701, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

101 932.701 Short title; definitions.—

102 (2) As used in the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act:

103 (a) "Contraband article" means:

104 1. Any controlled substance as defined in chapter 893 or 105 any substance, device, paraphernalia, or currency or other means 106 of exchange that was used, was attempted to be used, or was 107 intended to be used in violation of any provision of chapter
 108 893, if the totality of the facts presented by the state is 109 clearly sufficient to meet the state's burden of establishing 110 probable cause to believe that a nexus exists between the 111 article seized and the narcotics activity, whether or not the 112 use of the contraband article can be traced to a specific
