7 employee dues, assessments, fines, or penalties.-

8 (1) A labor organization may not use dues, uniform 9 assessments, fines, penalties, or special assessments paid by an 10 employee to make contributions or expenditures, as defined in s.
11 106.011, without the express written authorization of the 12 employee. The written authorization must be executed by the 13 employee separately for each fiscal year of the labor
14 organization and shall be accompanied with a detailed account, 15 provided by the labor organization, of all contributions and 16 expenditures made by the labor organization in the preceding 24
17 months. The labor organization shall estimate its expected 18 contributions and expenditures for the fiscal year and shall 19 reduce the amount collected during the fiscal year from each

20 employee that has not executed a written authorization. If the 21 actual contributions and expenditures of the labor organization
22 exceed its estimated contributions and expenditures, the labor 23 organization shall provide a refund at the end of the fiscal 24 year to each employee that has not executed a written 25 authorization.

26 (2) The employee may revoke the authorization described in 27 subsection (1) at any time. If an employee revokes the 28 authorization, the employee shall be entitled to a pro rata
29 reduction of such dues, uniform assessments, fines, penalties, 30 or special assessments for the remainder of the fiscal year of 31 the labor organization. The amount of the reduction shall be 32 based upon the proportion of the contributions and expenditures, 33 as defined in s. 106.011, in relation to the total annual 34 contributions and expenditures of the labor organization for the 35 preceding fiscal year.
