business tax, or obtain a local business tax receipt.

- (2) An individual exempt under this section may not be held liable by any local governing authority for the failure of a principal or employer to apply for an exemption from a local business tax, pay a local business tax, or obtain a local business tax receipt. An individual exempt under this section may not be required by any local governing authority to apply for an exemption from a local business tax, otherwise prove his or her exempt status, or pay any tax or fee related to a local business tax.
- (3) A principal or employer who is required to obtain a local business tax receipt may not be required by a local governing authority to provide personal or contact information for individuals exempt under this section in order to obtain a local business tax receipt.
- Section 2. Subsection (1) of section 205.066, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
 - 205.066 Exemptions; employees.-
- (1) An individual who engages in or manages a business, profession, or occupation as an employee of another person is not required to apply for an exemption from a local business tax, pay a local business tax, or obtain a local business tax receipt. For purposes of this section, an individual licensed and operating as a broker associate or sales associate under chapter 475 is an employee. An individual acting in the capacity of an independent contractor is not an employee.
 - Section 3. This act shall take effect October 1, 2012.
