SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The Pinellas County Construction Licensing Board (Board) was created by Chapter 75-489, Laws of Florida, as amended. The function of the Board is to regulate certain construction and home improvement contractors practicing in all Pinellas County jurisdictions. The Board also provides countywide certification and registration of contractors and countywide certification of journeymen.

The board is comprised of 21 members who must be nominated by various associations and organizations.

The bill revises the composition of the Board by adding a remodeling contractor and a member of the Board of County Commissioners as a designee to the board, bringing the total to 23 members. The bill also makes the changes for how a member should be selected.

The bill specifies that if an organization or association referenced in the bill change their names, this law will recognize the successor association or organization.

The bill also adds a remodeling contractor to the list of members that must commence their terms in odd-numbered years and a member of the Board of County Commissioners as a designee to the list of members that must commence their terms in even-numbered years.

The bill takes effect upon becoming law.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

The Pinellas County Construction Licensing Board (Board) was created by Chapter 75-489, Laws of Florida, as amended. The function of the Board is to regulate certain construction and home improvement contractors practicing in all Pinellas County jurisdictions.¹ The Board also provides countywide certification and registration of contractors and countywide certification of journeymen.²

The Board consists of 21 members:³

- Two general contractors;
- Two building contractors;
- Two residential contractors;
- One Florida registered architect doing business in Pinellas County;
- One electrical contractor;
- One plumbing contractor;
- One mechanical contractor;
- One roofing or sheet metal contractor;
- One swimming pool, aluminum or veneer specialty contractor;
- Two fire marshals;
- Three building directors. One each from St. Petersburg, Clearwater and Pinellas County;
- One North county building director from one of the following municipalities: Tarpon Springs, Dunedin, Oldsmar, Safety Harbor, Belleair, Belleair Bluffs, or Largo;
- One South county building director from one of the following municipalities: South Pasadena, Gulfport, Seminole, Kenneth City, or Pinellas Park;
- One Beach Community building director from one of the following: the Town of Belleair Beach, the Town of Belleair Shores, the City of Redington Beach, the City of North Redington Beach, the City of Madeira Beach, the City of Indian Rocks Beach, the Town of Indian Shores, the Town of Redington Shores, the City of Treasure Island, and the City of St. Pete Beach, and
- One consumer member who is a resident and citizen of Pinellas County and who is not and never has been a member or practitioner of any of the trades or professions regulated by the board or a member or practitioner of any closely related trade or profession.

Members of the Board must be selected as follows:⁴

- Three building directors of the City of Clearwater, City of St. Petersburg and the County of Pinellas;
- One north county building director and one south county building director selected by the chairman of the board of county commissioners from the municipalities listed above;

- One consumer member to be appointed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners.

The building director members from the City of Clearwater, from the City of St. Petersburg and Pinellas County, must be permanent members of the board. All other members serve terms of two years.

The following members must commence their terms in even-numbered years: the Florida registered architect, one general contractor, one building contractor or, one residential building contractor, one electrical contractor, one fire marshal, the north county, south county, and Beach Community building directors.

The following members must commence their terms in odd-numbered years: one general contractor, one building contractor, one residential building contractor, one mechanical contractor, one plumbing contractor, one fire marshal, one roofing or sheet metal contractor, one swimming pool, aluminum or veneer specialty contractor, and one consumer member.

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill revises the composition of the Board by adding a remodeling contractor and a member of the Board of County Commissioners as a designee to the board, resulting in the board having 23 members. The bill also makes the following changes for how a member should be selected:

- Provides that the Florida Suncoast Chapter of the International Code Council and Building Officials Association of Florida submit a South County building director candidate and provides the candidate be appointed by the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners.
- Provides that the AIA Tampa Bay Chapter of the American Institute, instead of St. Petersburg and Clearwater Sections, submit Florida Registered Architect candidates.
- Removes the Association of General Contractors of Mid Florida, Inc. from submitting general contractor candidates.
- Removes Contractors and Builders Association of Pinellas County from submitting building contractor candidates.
- Provides that the Tampa Bay Builders Association, instead of the Contractors and Builders Association of Pinellas County, submit residential building contractor candidates.
- Provides that the National Association of the Remodeling Industry, Tampa Bay, submit a licensed and registered contractor candidate who is primarily engaged in the remodeling industry.

- Provides that two fire marshals must be active members of the Pinellas County Fire Chiefs' Association, instead of the Tampa Bay Area Fire Marshals Association.
- Provides that the West Coast Roofing Contractors Association submit one roofing or sheet metal contractor candidate.
- Provides the United Pool and Spa Association or Alliance of Florida Contractors submit one swimming pool, aluminum or veneer specialty contractor candidate and that the candidate be appointed by the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners.
- Provides that one member of the Board of County Commissioners shall be appointed to the board by the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners.

The bill specifies that if an organization or association referenced in the bill changes its name, this law will recognize the successor association or organization.

Finally, the bill adds a remodeling contractor to the list of members that must commence their terms in odd-numbered years and a member of the Board of County Commissioners as a designee to the list of members that must commence their terms in even-numbered years.
