The bill has an effective date of July 1, 2016.

II. Present Situation:

Sections 413.402 and 413.4021, F.S., establish and provide a specific funding source for a personal care attendant program to provide personal care attendants to eligible persons with severe and chronic disabilities. The program was established as a pilot in 2002¹ and made permanent and statewide in 2005.² Currently, there are 16 Centers for Independent Living operating in Florida.³ The most recent data show that the centers provided independent living services to 21,938 people from October 1, 2013 to September 30, 2014.⁴

Pursuant to s. 413.402, F.S., the Florida Endowment Foundation for Vocational Rehabilitation (also known as the Able Trust) is required to enter into an agreement with the Florida Association for Centers for Independent Living to administer the program. The administrative expenses of the association are paid from funds deposited with the Able Trust pursuant to the Tax Collection Enforcement Diversion Program⁵ and the Motorcycle Specialty License Plate program.⁶

Persons eligible to participate in the program must:

- Be at least 18 years of age, a legal resident of this state and significantly and chronically disabled;
- Require a personal care attendant for assistance with or support for at least two activities of daily living such as bathing and dressing and as defined in s. 429.02, F.S.;
- Require a personal care attendant in order to maintain substantial gainful employment; and
- Be able to acquire and direct a personal care attendant.

Training for program participants on hiring and managing a personal care attendant shall be provided by Florida Association for Centers for Independent Living. Additionally, the association coordinates with the Department of Revenue and the Florida Prosecuting Attorneys Association to select the judicial circuits in which to operate the program.

There are two funding sources for the Personal Care Attendant program:

- Tax Collection Enforcement Diversion Program; and
- Fees from the Motorcycle Specialty License Plate.⁷

Tax Collection Enforcement Diversion Program

In conjunction with the establishment of the Personal Care Attendant program, the Department of Revenue was directed, in cooperation with Association for Centers for Independent Living and state attorneys, to select judicial circuits in which to operate a tax collection enforcement diversion program (“tax diversion program”) to collect unpaid sales taxes from delinquent business owners.⁸ Fifty percent of the collections from the tax diversion program are deposited into the operating account of the Able Trust to be used to operate the Personal Care Attendant program and to contract with the state attorneys participating in the tax diversion program.⁹ Sixteen centers in all 20 circuits participate in the tax diversion program.¹⁰

The bill changes this to up to 12 percent of the funds deposited in the Able Trust for the program. In addition, the association must prepare a budget to be approved by the Advisory and Oversight Committee.

The bill renames the Advisory and Oversight Committee and makes changes to its membership. The representative of the Medicaid program within the Agency for Health Care Administration and the representative of the Able Trust are deleted. The bill adds a member of the Florida Independent Living Council appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, a financial management professional appointed by the Governor, an ex-officio member from the Able Trust, and an ex-officio member from the Florida Association of Centers for Independent Living. The appointing authority for the program participant is changed to the President of the Senate.
