Remove everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Section 761.061, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

761.061 Rights of certain churches or religious organizations or individuals.-

(1) A church or religious organization within the meaning of s. 760.10(9), an individual employed by a church or religious organization within the meaning of s. 760.10(9) while acting in the scope of that employment, or a clergy member or minister may not be required to solemnize any marriage.

(2) A church or religious organization within the meaning of s. 760.10(9), an individual employed by a church or religious organization within the meaning of s. 760.10(9) while acting in

Amendment No. 1

18 the scope of that employment, or a clergy member or minister may 19 not be required to provide services, accommodations facilities,
20 goods, or privileges outside the meaning of s. 760.02(11) for a
21 purpose related to the solemnization, formation, or celebration
22 of any marriage if such an action would violate a sincerely held 23 religious belief.

24 (3) A refusal to solemnize any marriage or provide 25 services, accommodations, facilities, goods, or privileges under 26 subsection (1) or (2) may not serve as the basis for a civil or 27 criminal cause of action or any other action by this state or a 28 political subdivision of this state to penalize or withhold 29 benefits or privileges, including tax exemptions or governmental 30 contracts, grants, or licenses, from any entity or individual
31 protected under subsection (1) or (2).

32 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2016.

1 Committee/Subcommittee hearing bill: Judiciary Committee
 2 Representative Moskowitz offered the following:

Amendment (with ballot and title amendments)

Remove lines 12-17 and insert:

6 That the following amendment to Section 5 of Article IV,
 7 Section 8 of Article V, and the creation of a new section in 8 Article XII of the State Constitution are agreed to and shall be 9 submitted to the electors of this state for approval or
 10 rejection at the next general election or at an earlier special
 11 election specifically authorized by law for that purpose:

ARTICLE IV

EXECUTIVE

SECTION 5. Election of governor, lieutenant governor and cabinet members; qualifications; terms.-

(a) At a state-wide general election in each calendar year the number of which is even but not a multiple of four, the

18 electors shall choose a governor and a lieutenant governor and 19 members of the cabinet each for a term of four years beginning 20 on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January of the 21 succeeding year. In primary elections, candidates for the office
22 of governor may choose to run without a lieutenant governor
23 candidate. In the general election, all candidates for the 24 offices of governor and lieutenant governor shall form joint
25 candidacies in a manner prescribed by law so that each voter
26 shall cast a single vote for a candidate for governor and a
27 candidate for lieutenant governor running together.

28 (b) When elected, the governor, lieutenant governor and
29 each cabinet member must be an elector not less than thirty
30 years of age who has resided in the state for the preceding
31 seven years. The attorney general must have been a member of the 32 bar of Florida for the preceding five years. No person who has,
33 or but for resignation would have, served as governor or acting
34 governor for more than one term ~~six years in two consecutive~~ 35 ~~terms~~ shall be elected governor for the succeeding term.

Remove lines 12-17 and insert:

That the following amendment to Section 5 of Article IV,
 Section 8 of Article V, and the creation of new sections in Article XII of the State Constitution are agreed to and shall be submitted to the electors of this state for approval or
 rejection at the next general election or at an earlier special
 election specifically authorized by law for that purpose:

SECTION 5. Election of governor, lieutenant governor and cabinet members; qualifications; terms.—

(a) At a state-wide general election in each calendar year the number of which is even and is ~~but not~~ a multiple of four,

Amendment No. 18

18 the electors shall choose a governor and a lieutenant governor
19 and members of the cabinet each for a term of four years
20 beginning on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January 21 of the succeeding year. In primary elections, candidates for the 22 office of governor may choose to run without a lieutenant 23 governor candidate. In the general election, all candidates for 24 the offices of governor and lieutenant governor shall form joint 25 candidacies in a manner prescribed by law so that each voter
26 shall cast a single vote for a candidate for governor and a
27 candidate for lieutenant governor running together.

28 (b) When elected, the governor, lieutenant governor and
29 each cabinet member must be an elector not less than thirty
30 years of age who has resided in the state for the preceding
31 seven years. The attorney general must have been a member of the 32 bar of Florida for the preceding five years. No person who has,
33 or but for resignation would have, served as governor or acting 34 governor for more than six years in two consecutive terms shall 35 be elected governor for the succeeding term.

52 ELECTIONS AND TERMS OF OFFICE.—Proposing amendments to the 53 State Constitution to change the election of governor and 54 cabinet to the same general election cycle as the United States
55 presidential election, and to limit the terms of Supreme Court
56 justices and judges of the district courts of appeal to two six 57 year terms. The amendment would change the term of office for 58 the governor and cabinet elected in this election to two years.
