Line	SENATE – Barcode Amendment #294316 to HB 7067	HOUSE – HB 7067
39	Cardroom Employee Occupational License Fee: up to $500 annually for designated players and employees. § 849.086(9)(a), FS	No provision.
40	DPMW must respond within specified time periods to licensee requests concerning internal controls or new games. § 849.086(4)(g), FS	No provision.
41	Authorizes cardrooms to operate 24 hours a day on weekdays (up from 18 hours per day currently). §849.086(7)(b), FS	No provision.
42	Decoupled facilities must contribute 4 percent of monthly cardroom gross receipts for thoroughbred purse and awards.  Funds must be used to enhance purses at a qualified permitholder’s facility.  To be eligible for funds, a permitholder must conduct a full schedule of live races or games (40 performances of 8 races each) and conduct no fewer performances than it conducted in FY 2017-2018. Limited thoroughbred permitholders and permitholders operating at another permitholder’s facility are not eligible for funds (GP TARP and the Tropical Park permits operate at Gulfstream). § 849.086(14)(d)2., FS	No provision.
PRE-REVEAL GAMES
43	No provision.	Revises the definition of “slot machine or device” in statute to expressly include machines which reveal the outcome in advance (pre-reveal machines).
EFFECTIVE DATE
44	Same as House Bill, except the provisions related to the 2018 compact are effective upon becoming a law.  Remainder of the bill becomes effective upon becoming a law.	Effective July 1, 2018, pre-approves and ratifies a 2018 Compact provided that it (1) is executed in identical form by the Governor and Tribe and (2) goes into effect on or before January 1, 2019. All other sections of the bill become effective on July 1, 2018, independent of the 2018 Compact.
