16 substantially similar to the interrupted service during the 17 period of the interruption at no additional cost.

18 (c) Restoration of service for less than one hour during a 19 service interruption does not toll the time for purposes of 20 calculating the period of the service interruption. The credit
21 or refund shall be calculated by identifying the number of days
22 beyond the first 24 hours that service was interrupted, dividing 23 that number by the number of days in the billing period, and 24 multiplying the resulting fraction by the normal billing amount.
25 If the interrupted service is provided as part of a bundled 26 package that includes services not covered by this section, the 27 credit or refund shall be calculated based only on the portion
28 of the normal billing amount attributable to the interrupted
29 services covered by this section. The credit or refund must be 30 provided within 30 days after the service is restored or the 31 date of the customer's next bill following service restoration,
32 whichever is later. Notwithstanding any other provision of law
33 to the contrary, the commission shall impose a fine equal to 10
34 times the credit or refund amount upon any telecommunications 35 company that fails to provide a credit or refund as specified in 36 this paragraph. The commission may adopt rules to implement this 37 paragraph.

38 Section 3. Subsection (1) of section 610.108, Florida
39 Statutes, is amended to read:

Amendment No. 2

41 (1) (a) All cable or video service providers shall comply
42 with customer service requirements in 47 C.F.R. s. 76.309(c).

43 (b) A cable or video service provider may not charge a
44 customer for cable or video service that has been interrupted 45 for longer than 24 consecutive hours unless:

46 1. The interruption is caused by a negligent or willful
47 act by the customer;

48 2. The interruption is caused by damage or loss of 49 electrical power on the customer's side of the service
50 demarcation point that prevents the receipt or use of service
51 that is otherwise available; or

52 3. The cable or video service provider, by means of any 3 other platform, provides the customer with access to programming
54 or service substantially similar to the interrupted service
55 during the period of the interruption at no additional cost.

56 (c) Restoration of service for less than one hour during 57 the service interruption does not toll the calculation of time
58 for purposes of determining the length of the service
59 interruption. The credit or refund shall be calculated by 60 identifying the number of days beyond the first 24 hours that 61 service was interrupted, dividing that number by the number of

6 Between lines 121 and 122, insert:

7 (c) If a customer of a telecommunications company requests 8 that service be discontinued on a date before the end of the 9 customer's normal billing period, the customer charge for that 10 period shall be calculated by identifying the number of days
11 that service is provided in the billing period, up to and 12 including the date that service is discontinued, dividing that 13 number by the number of days in the billing period, and 14 multiplying the resulting fraction by the normal charge for the 15 billing period. The telecommunications company shall credit the 16 customer's account or issue a refund for any overpayment to

18 The credit or refund must be provided within 30 days after the 19 service is discontinued or the date of the customer's next 20 regular bill following discontinuance, whichever is later.
21 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the 22 Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall impose an 23 administrative fine equal to 10 times the credit or refund
24 amount upon any telecommunications company that fails to provide 25 a credit or refund as specified in this paragraph. This 26 provision does not reduce any applicable contractual penalty or 27 fee that applies when a customer discontinues service during the 28 term of a contract if such customer has agreed to take service
29 from the telecommunications company at a specified rate for the 30 full term of the contract and the term of the contract includes 31 more than one billing period.

32 (d) Fines collected by the department under this section
