19th Amendment Anniversary Event Featuring Leader Driskell, Others

Tallahassee, FL – The certification of the 19th Amendment to the US Constitution happened on August 26, 1920, guaranteeing women the right to vote in our country. Tomorrow, a bipartisan group will host a press conference to mark the upcoming anniversary, discuss its importance, and announce that Florida House Democratic Leader Fentrice Driskell (D- Tampa) will be filing a Ceremonial Resolution for the 2024 Legislative Session, highlighting August 26th and encouraging governments across Florida and the country to declare this critically important event a holiday.

WHO: Leader Fentrice Driskell (D- Tampa); Doris Weatherford – author/historian; Kim Droege – Host, ‘Connecting with Kim’ on TBAE; Teresa Potter – President, League of Women Voters of Hillsborough & Pasco Counties

WHAT: Press Conference on the 19th Amendment

WHEN: Friday, August 25th at 11:00 a.m.

WHERE: Zoom, and streaming on Leader Driskell’s Facebook page
