Representative López Announces Puerto Rico Day at the Capitol

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.- Representative Johanna López (D-Orlando) is excited to announce Puerto Rico Day at the Florida Capitol will be held Monday, January 29, 2024 and Tuesday, January 30, 2024. Alongside Representative López, the co-hosts for the event are Senator Victor Torres (D-Orlando) and partnering organizations.

“Puerto Rico Day at the Capitol is a celebration of the shared history, traditions, and vibrant spirit that defines the Puerto Rican people,” says Representative Johanna López. “I am honored to be part of this showcase that promotes understanding and bipartisan discussions about the needs of our diverse community.”

Puerto Rico Day at the Capitol showcases the unique culture and history of the Puerto Rican people. It provides an opportunity for the community to discuss legislative priorities with elected officials. Puerto Rican organizations from across the state will be present and there will be panel discussions, cultural events, tours of each chamber, and more, honoring the legacy of former State Representative Anthony “Tony” Suarez (D-Orlando).
