House Democratic Caucus Members React to Special Session Call

Tallahassee, FL – In reaction to the Governor’s announcement that he is planning to call a special session for a vaccine requirement ban for private businesses, members of the House Democratic Caucus will hold a Zoom press conference to respond to this unnecessary government intrusion into private businesses to further the Governor’s political aspirations and agenda.

Per the Orlando Sentinel, “Gov. Ron DeSantis on Thursday said he would call a special session of the Legislature in November to pass laws banning local governments, agencies and businesses from mandating COVID-19 vaccines for their employees and stripping liability protections from any businesses that impose them.”

Leader-Designate Ramon Alexander (D- Tallahassee), Policy Chair Representative Fentrice Driskell (D- Tampa) and Representative Anna Eskamani (D- Orlando) will be available for comments and to take questions.
