House Democratic Leadership on House Committee Ranking Member Assignments

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – House Democratic Caucus Co-Leader Bobby DuBose (D- Fort Lauderdale) and Co-Leader Evan Jenne (D- Hollywood) issued the following statements on the announcement of House committee Democratic Ranking Members for the upcoming legislative session.

“The Florida House Democrats are ready to get back to work and help Floridians still struggling because of the pandemic. From keeping our schools safe to fixing our broken health care system, Floridians need us to come up with real solutions to the problems making life in the Sunshine State difficult for so many. We will continue to be strong advocates of the people on the critical health and safety policies that the people deserve,” said Co-Leader Bobby DuBose.

Co-Leader Evan Jenne added, “I’m excited about our list of ranking members. The Florida House Democratic Caucus looks forward to advocating and fighting for all Floridians. This is yet another important session because of the ongoing COVID pandemic. We must help provide relief for so many Floridians that need it, ensure small businesses stay open, and continue to defend local governments’ autonomy.”
