Representative Matt Willhite Teams with Palm Beach County Cares to Collect Supplies for Haiti

WELLINGTON, Fla. – In collaboration with Palm Beach County Cares, Representative Matt Willhite's office is helping collect much needed emergency supplies for Haiti. Palm Beach County Cares includes a diverse group of concerned citizens, public figures, and business owners in Palm Beach County coming together to help our neighbors in Haiti recover from the aftermath of the 7.2 magnitude earthquake that struck the island on August 12, 2021.

“The people of Haiti have been endured a terrible natural disaster,” said Representative Willhite. “Palm Beach County Cares has a record of service. They have sent supplies to Puerto Rico, the Bahamas, and now, we need to come together to help Haiti. I am proud that my office has the capacity to serve as a donation drop off location.”

The top categories of emergency supplies needed:

1. Shelter materials
2. Water
3. Canned/nonperishable food
4. Medical Supplies & First Aid Kits
5. Hygiene items & toiletry kits
