Representative Skidmore Hosts Fourth District Dialogue to Discuss the Blue Economy

BOCA RATON, Fla. – State Representative Kelly Skidmore will host a virtual conversation via Zoom on Monday, August 30 from 6-7 p.m. with blue economy experts, Judith Underwood president and founder of the Blue Institute, Ava Ibanez ocean policy fellow at the National Caucus of Environmental Legislators, and Michael Jones president of TMA Blue Tech.

This District Dialogue, which is the fourth and last of the summer series, will focus on the blue economy. Attendees can expect an in-depth conversation about what the blue economy is and how Florida can become a world leader in this vital economic arena.

To register for this District Dialogue, please click HERE or watch it on Facebook Live on @Rep.Skidmore where questions from audience members will be answered as time permits. Registrants may also submit questions in advance by sending an email message to HDIST081@MyFloridaHouse.Gov.

The District Dialogues are conversations with community leaders and constituents to discuss issues that impact daily life.
