State Representative Daisy Morales Marks 100 Days in Office

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Freshman State Representative Daisy Morales (D-Orlando) celebrates her first 100 days in office, sharing approximately three-and-a-half months of consistent service to her constituents, strong outreach to Hispanic and underserved communities, and bold legislative action.

“I’m proud of what my staff and I have already achieved in the first 100 days and we’re just getting started,” said Representative Morales. “From introducing legislation to help small businesses and our special needs population to protecting our people against the deadly COVID-19 virus with vaccination clinics, we’re working hard to deliver results for the people of District 48 who chose me to represent them in Tallahassee.”

Representative Morales has introduced seven bills, including legislation to help barbers offer mobile services, to limit unwanted robocalls, help free underserved students in the reduced lunch program from shame and hunger, and empower the special needs community by expanding the state’s definition of disability to increase their access to key medical services.
