Re: Engagement with GrayRobinson, P.A.

Dear Clerk Tiffany Moore Russell:

Thank you very much for your interest in GrayRobinson, P.A. (“GrayRobinson” or “the Firm”). We appreciate the opportunity to provide governmental consulting services to Orange County Clerk of Courts (“the Clerk”). The Firm is committed to providing the highest level of service in furtherance of your goals. This letter will describe the terms under which that representation will occur, disclose the Firm’s reporting responsibilities under the law, and summarize the nature of government consulting services as compared to legal services.

Firm Contacts for Your Representation

We understand this engagement to primarily be for proposing legislation aimed at modernizing fees collected by Clerks of Courts, monitoring legislation regarding the Clerk’s priorities, assist the Florida Court Clerks and Comptrollers Association’s priorities and generally raise the Clerk’s profile in Tallahassee.

The entire team of GrayRobinson’s lobbyists will be available to advance your interests. However, in order to ensure that your needs are efficiently and fully addressed, I will be the primary contact for this representation. If I should ever be unavailable, I would encourage you to contact Robert Stuart, Christopher Dawson, or Katie Flury, who will serve as secondary contacts for this representation.

Fees, Costs and Terms

While annual fees for general representation would ordinarily be in the range of $60,000 to $75,000, because of the existing relationship and the Firm’s goal and commitment to support its local Clerk of Court, for the 2023 Legislative Session we propose a flat fee of $24,000 for services covering pre-session through session and the veto season (January 2023 – August 2023). This fee will be broken out into eight (8) monthly payments of $3,000 per month for a period beginning on January 1, 2023 and ending August 1, 2023. If the Clerk would want to pursue additional services or extend the relationship, we would welcome that and negotiate a new agreement at that time. Both the Clerk and the Firm have the right to terminate this contract with or without cause with thirty (30) days’ notice given.

Lobbyist Registration

Florida law requires that GrayRobinson's lobbyists must register with the state prior to engaging in lobbying activity. Lobbyist registrations are effective when they are received by the state, and lobbying may not occur prior to proper registration. The registration and fee cycle is a calendar year beginning January 1 and ending December 31. Therefore, the Clerk consents for the firm's lobbyists to register to represent the Clerk, and the Clerk agrees to reimburse the Firm for the cost of lobbyist registrations.

Lobbyist registration fees are:

- Legislature: $20 for each person from the point of registration until December 31; then renewed in January each calendar year thereafter.
- Executive: $25 for each person from the point of registration until December 31; then renewed in January each calendar year thereafter.

Lobbyist registration forms will be sent following the execution of this agreement. By signing below, you agree to complete and return the registration authorization, which are necessary to our representation of the Clerk during the term of this contract or after its termination should reporting periods overlap. The Firm cannot commence representation until the registration authorizations are properly filed with the state.

Similarly, local governments, before which we may need to appear on your behalf, may also have their own lobbying registration and/or reporting requirements. GrayRobinson will comply with any such jurisdictional ordinances or policies, and will not commence any representation in those jurisdictions until all necessary disclosures or authorizations are filed. You agree to facilitate any required registrations with appropriate paperwork, documentation, and payment of costs associated with such compliance.

Compensation Reporting

Florida law requires that the fees and costs invoiced by Gray Robinson for lobbying services are reportable to the state on a quarterly basis to both the Florida Legislature and the Florida Commission on Ethics. Therefore, the Clerk consents to the quarterly disclosure of compensation paid or owed to GrayRobinson for lobbying activity as required by Chapter 2005-359, Laws of Florida. Such consent is granted so that GrayRobinson may file the specified quarterly reports, disclosing only the information required by Chapter 2005-359, Laws of Florida, and shall remain in effect as long as any GrayRobinson lawyer or non-lawyer lobbyist serves as the client's registered representative before the Legislature and any executive branch agency.

Unless you direct otherwise, the Firm will attribute and report 50% of our fees and reimbursements as legislative branch lobbying fees, and 50% of our fees and reimbursements as executive branch lobbying fees, subject to periodic adjustment by us to reflect our best professional judgment regarding allocation of our efforts associated with this representation.

Confidentiality

In order to ensure the candor and trust in our relationship that forms the basis of effective representation, it is the policy of the Firm to keep strictly confidential all information about your interests and strategies. Because information is our stock in trade and because advancing your interests may depend on it, we ask that you also keep confidential any information we may share with you regarding political strategy, insight, information, or analysis.

Distinguishing Between Lobbying and Legal Services; Conflicts

GrayRobinson offers not only legal services but also lobbying services. The Florida Bar treats legal services differently than non-legal services, which includes lobbying and consulting. It is important to understand the distinction between those services relative to conflicts, and the scope of this representation. This lobbyist engagement does not create an attorney/client relationship between you and our firm. If legal services are required by the Clerk, we will enter into a separate engagement.

Both lobbyists and lawyers must avoid conflict of interest. Lawyers may not accept a legal client adverse to another legal client in a legal matter, and our lobbyists will decline to accept a lobbying client involved in legal action against an existing legal or lobbying client of the Firm. However, legal services and lobbying are separate and distinct services for the purposes of evaluating conflicts, and, because lobbying frequently involves advocating for potential changes to existing law within the legislative branch or application of the law by the executive branch, the positions advanced on behalf of lobbying clients may or may not differ from legal positions taken on behalf of clients in judicial proceedings. In some instances, lobbying clients may not have a legal conflict, but they may be marketplace competitors or they may take inconsistent positions on one or more lobbying issues. We will bring any such situations to your attention immediately upon discovery and we likewise ask you to contact us immediately if you have similar concerns at any time. Whenever conditions merit, we will implement and maintain an "ethics wall" to maintain complete separation of information, strategy, and personnel associated with the affected lobbying clients.

Under the scope of representation outlined above we know of no lobbying conflicts with our current lobbying clients, and we have discussed our plan for protecting your interest from marketplace competitors via an ethics wall. If you ever have a concern about a perceived or potential conflict, or any other issue we ask that you alert us immediately so we can address it in a mutually acceptable fashion. We will do the same.

I believe the above reflects our understanding. If it does, please sign this agreement and return it to me. If not already completed, electronic lobbyist registration forms will be sent separately from the respective entities for 2022. I appreciate your attention to this matter and look forward to working with you. Please never hesitate to contact me if we can assist you in any way.

Sincerely,

Chris Carmody

PRIVACY POLICY

Attorneys, like other professionals who advise on personal financial matters, are now required by a new federal law to inform their clients of their policies regarding privacy of client information. Attorneys have been, and continue to be, bound by professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by this new law. Therefore, we have always protected your right to privacy and do not take lightly the confidence you place in us.

In the course of providing our clients with financial and tax planning and preparation services, employment counseling, bankruptcy activities, certain real estate services, and other certain financial services, we receive significant personal financial information about you either from you or with your authorization. If you are a current or former client of GrayRobinson, P.A. you should know that all information that we receive about you is held in extreme confidence, and is not released to any person or entity outside of this law firm, except as agreed upon by you, or as required under applicable law.

We retain records relating to professional services that we provide so that we are better able to assist you with your professional needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to guard your non-public personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

Please call if you have any questions regarding this matter. Your privacy, our professional ethics, and the ability to provide you with quality legal services are very important to us.
